

SUPPLEMENT
TO
The London Gazette

Of FRIDAY the 28th of APRIL.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 1848.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by a warrant, under the hands of three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated the seventh day of February now last, it was ordered and directed, that printed books, printed magazines, printed reviews, and printed pamphlets (whether British, colonial, or foreign) might be transmitted by the post within the United Kingdom, subject to the several regulations and rates therein contained; and it was thereby provided and declared, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time thereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates thereby fixed, or the regulations thereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that might be payable were to be paid:

And whereas it is expedient to make further regulations as to the forwarding of such packets by the post:

Now we, the undersigned, being three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power or authority reserved or given to us in and by the said recited warrant, and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf, by this warrant under our hands, do order and direct, that every such packet as shall be transmitted by the post, pursuant to the said recited warrant, shall be sent without a cover, or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides, and shall (except as hereinafter mentioned) contain printed matter only, with the binding thereof; and that (except as hereinafter mentioned) there shall be no writing or marks upon the cover or envelope thereof, or upon or within any part of the contents thereof, other than the name and address of the person to whom the packet shall be forwarded; and the exceptions are as follow, first, the name and address of the sender may be written or printed upon or in any book, magazine, review, or pamphlet so sent, or on the envelope or cover thereof, in addition to the name and address of the person to or for whom it shall be forwarded; and secondly, any other writing may be on any leaf of any book, magazine, review, or pamphlet so sent, or on the binding thereof, provided that all such last-mentioned writing be on one and the self same page of the book or corresponding portion of the binding.

And we hereby further order and direct, that if any packet sent, or tendered or delivered in order to be sent, by the post under the provisions of the said recited warrant, or this present warrant, shall contain any writing or other thing besides printed matter and the binding thereof, or if any such book, magazine, review, or pamphlet shall have any writing or marks upon the same (except the name and address of the sender thereof, and the name and address of the person to whom it is forwarded, and except any other writing on any one page of any such book, magazine, review, or pamphlet, or corresponding portion of the binding thereof as aforesaid), or shall have any writing or marks upon the cover or envelope thereof, except
