

behalf vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, viz.

“ Your Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Llangollen, in the county of Denbigh, and within the diocese of Saint Asaph, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the church of Saint John the Baptist, recently erected and consecrated at Pontfadog, in the said parish of Llangollen, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty’s said Commissioners under the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should consist of the townships of Cilcohwyn, Crogen Iddon, Crogen-w-Ladies otherwise Crogen Wladis, Erwallo, Hafodgyn fawr, Nantygwryd otherwise Nantgwrhyd, Talygarth, and Cysyllte, and that such proposed district should be called, “ The Chapelry District of Pontfadog,” with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned :

“ The chapelry district of Pontfadog is bounded on the north east by the parish of Chirk; on the east by the parish of Saint Martin; on the south east and south by the parish of Selattyn; on the south west by the parish of Llanarmon; on the west by the parish of Llansilin; on the north west by the parish of Llansantffraid; and on the north by the remaining part of the parish of Llangollen, from which the proposed chapelry district of Pontfadog is separated by the northern boundary of the township of Crogen Wladis, and the western boundary of the township of Cysyllte and the river Dee, as such proposed chapelry district of Pontfadog is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink :

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient, that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church at Pontfadog; and that the fees to arise therefrom should, from and after the first or next avoidance of the parish church of Llangollen, belong to the Incumbent for the time being of the said church at Pontfadog :

“ That the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler Lord Bishop of Saint Asaph, as the Bishop of the diocese within which the said parish of Llangollen is situate, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Thomas Vowler Lord Bishop of Saint Asaph has signed and sealed this representation :

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
