

April 1848, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 20th day of April 1848,
Wm. Archbold, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Wesley Chapel, situated at Howard-town, in the parish of Glossop, in the county of Derby, in the district of Hayfield and Glossop, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 7th day of April 1848, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 3d day of May 1848,
John Slater, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Richard Clarke Burleigh, late of the city of Bath, Gent. has made application to Her Majesty's Attorney General for leave to enter a disclaimer and memorandum of alteration of part of the specification of a patent granted to him by Her present Most Excellent Majesty, bearing date the 28th day of August 1846, for "certain improvements in artificial light," by disclaiming and omitting such parts as relate to the use of coloured reflectors, and confining the invention to achromatized glasses.—Dated this 4th day of May 1848.

Newton and Son, Agents for the Patentee.
Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane.

WHEREAS by a certain warrant, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, under the hands and seals of two of the Commissioners of Property and Income Tax acting for the district of the city of London, that Joseph Norville, of Cornhill, a Collector of the Duties of Property and Income Tax for the Ward of Cornhill, in the said district, had, as such Collector, collected and received, from divers persons within the said Ward, the sum of forty pounds two shillings and five pence in respect of the said duties, and that the said Joseph Norville had neglected to pay the said sum of money, according to the directions of the several Acts of Parliament in that behalf, and that he had detained, and did then detain, the same in his hands:

The said Commissioners did thereby command the Constable of the ward of Cornhill, to whom the said warrant was directed, to seize and secure the estate, as well freehold as copyhold, and all other estate, both real and personal, of the said Joseph Norville to him belonging, wheresoever the same could be discovered and found:

And whereas certain estates, goods, and chattels of the said Collector have been seized and secured under the said warrant:

Now we, the undersigned, George Larpent and Edward Eagleton, being two of the said Commissioners acting in the said district, do, in pursuance of the Act of Parliament in that behalf, appoint the sixteenth day of May next, for a meeting of the Commissioners of Property and Income Tax for the said district, to be held at No. 36, Basinghall-street, in the said district, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon of the said day; and we do hereby give notice, that if the said sum of money, so due and owing from the said Collector, be not paid or satisfied, as ought to be done, according to the directions of the Acts in that behalf, the Commissioners present at such meeting, or the major part of them, will sell and dispose of the said estates, goods, and chattels, to satisfy and pay the said sum of money.

Given under our hands this 3d day of
May, in the year of our Lord, 1848,

George Larpent, } Commissioners of Property
Edw. Eagleton, } and Income Tax.

Manchester, Buxton, Matlock, and Midlands Junction Railway, Deviation and Branches.—
(Proposed substitution of a Branch from Baslow to Bakewell, in lieu of Branch from Great Rowsley to Bakewell.)

WHEREAS a Bill is now pending in Parliament, intituled "A Bill to make a deviation in the authorized line of the Manchester, Buxton, Matlock, and Midlands Junction Railway, together with branches to Buxton, Bakewell, and the Midland Railways," by which said Bill it is proposed, amongst other powers, to enable the Manchester, Buxton, Matlock, and Midlands Junction Railway Company to make and maintain a branch railway, in the county of Derby, commencing by a junction with the line of the Manchester, Buxton, Matlock, and Midlands Junction Railway (as intended to be altered under the powers in the said Bill contained), in a field in the township of Great Rowsley, in the parish of Bakewell, belonging to his Grace the Duke of Rutland, in the occupation of George Elliot, passing through the following places, or some of them, that is to say, Darley or Darleigh otherwise Darley Dale, Little Rowsley, Wensley, Snitterton, Wensley and Snitterton, Stancliff or Stonecliff, Tinkersley, Youlgreave, Stanton, Great Rowsley, Bakewell, Beeley, Nether Haddon, Over Haddon, Ashford, Great Longstone otherwise Great Longstone and Holme, Hassop, Baslow, Edensor, Pilsley, Calton otherwise Calton Lees, and Chatsworth, in the said county of Derby, and terminating at a public highway commonly called Granby-road, adjoining the Cattle-market, in the town of Bakewell aforesaid.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament forthwith, for leave to make such alterations in the said Bill, and to insert such additional or substituted clauses and provisions therein as may be necessary to enable the said Railway Company to make and maintain, in lieu of the branch railway hereinbefore particularly mentioned, a branch railway,
