PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for substituting a money payment to the Dean of the cathedral church of Exeter, for certain property belonging to him as such Dean.

"Whereas it is by the first herein recited Act (amongst other things) enacted, that, subject to the provisions therein contained, all the estate and interest which the holder of any deanery not suspended by or under the provisions of the same Act, and his successors, had and would have in any lands, tithes and other hereditaments or endowments whatsoever annexed or belonging to or usually held or enjoyed with such deanery (except any right of patronage), or whereof the rents and profits had been usually taken and enjoyed by the holder of such deanery as such holder separately and in addition to his share of the corporate revenues of such chapter, should, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the provisions of the same Act, accrue to and be absolutely vested in us and our successors, for the purposes of the same Act, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required :

“ And whereas it is by the said Acts enacted, that, by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement may, from time to time, be made, with the consent, in writing, under the hand of any dean of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer or exchange of any lands, tithes or other hereditaments belonging to such dean, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes or other hereditaments :

“ And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Very Reverend Thomas Hill Lowe, Master of Arts, the present Dean of the said cathedral church of Exeter, that, with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council :

“ We, therefore, with the consent of the said Thomas Hill Lowe, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all the lands, tithes and other hereditaments (except such as are situated within the city of Exeter, and except also any right of patronage), now belonging to or forming part of the endowment of the said deanery of Exeter, or to or in which he the said Thomas Hill Lowe as such dean has or ought to have any estate, right, title or interest, separately and in addition to his share in the corporate revenues of the chapter of Exeter, shall, together with all such estate, right, title and interest therein, be and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Thomas Hill Lowe to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof; and that, in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us to the said Thomas Hill Lowe in each and every year, so long as he shall continue to hold the said deanery of Exeter, and no longer, the annual sum of six hundred pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of June and the first day of December; and that the first such half-yearly payment shall be made on the first day of June next; provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease, of any part of such lands, tithes and other hereditaments as aforesaid, shall, since the said first day of December last, have been or shall be granted by the said Thomas Hill Lowe; and that if the next avoidance of the said deanery shall happen on any other day than one of such half-yearly days of payment, then a proportionate sum only shall be paid to the said Thomas Hill Lowe, or his representative or representatives.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.
