Vice Chancellor Knight Bruce.—Monday the 1st day of May, in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1848, between John Cutts, plaintiff; John Reginald Riddell and others, defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Heathfield, of Counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff filed his bill in this Court against the defendants, and took out process of subpoena against the defendant, John Reginald Riddell, on the 27th day of June 1846, requiring him to appear to and answer the plaintiff's bill; that it appears by two affidavits of Francis Galloway, and an affidavit of John Blackeman Owen, that the said defendant, John Reginald Riddell, has been within the jurisdiction of the Court at some time not more than two years before the subpoena issued, that he cannot be found at his former residence at Enfield, and that he has not now any usual place of abode in this country, and that he has therefore absconded or is keeping out of the way to avoid being served with process; it is thereupon ordered, that the said defendant, John Reginald Riddell, do appear to the plaintiff's bill, on or before the 1st day of June 1848; and it is ordered, that the plaintiff do cause a copy of this Order, together with the notice pursuant to the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette of Friday the 12th day of May instant.

John Reginald Riddell.—Take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own shewing.

SEWELL and FOX, Plaintiff's Solicitors, 51, Old Broad-street.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the cause Paterson v. Mills, it is referred to the Honourable Sir George Rose, to enquire and state to the Court, whether Martha, the daughter of Richard Clark, the testator in the pleadings mentioned in his will named, is living or dead, and, if dead, when she died; and whether there was or were any and what children or child of the said testator's said daughter Martha born at the time of her decease; and whether any such children or child are or is now living or dead; and if any such children or child be dead, when and at what ages they respectively died, and whom they respectively left their heirs or heir at law then surviving; and if the said Master shall find that the said testator's daughter Martha is dead, then it is ordered, that the said Master do enquire and state who were or was the children or child of the said Martha living at the time of her decease, and who were or was the heirs or heir at law or real representatives or representative of any of the children or child of the said Martha as were or was then dead; and it is ordered, that the said Master do enquire and state whether any such heirs or heir at law or real representatives or representative of any such deceased children or child, as were or was living at the time of the death of the said Martha, are or is now living or dead, and, if any such heirs or heir at law, real representatives or real representative be dead, who are or is his, her, or their heir or heirs at law or real representatives or representative, and who are or is the personal representatives or representative of such heirs or heir at law, real representatives or real representative as are or is now dead; therefore any persons or person claiming to be such heirs or heir, or representatives or representative as aforesaid, is or are, on or before the 10th day of June 1848, to leave their claims before the said Master, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; and are, on or before the 10th day of July 1848, to establish such claims, and make out his, her, or their heirship or representation, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.—The said Richard Clark was a Cordwainer, residing in Cranbourn-street, Leicester-fields, in the county of Middlesex, and died on the 28th day of July 1796; and his said daughter Martha married Peter Robertson or Robinson, formerly of Beltrin, in the parish of Glenbucket, in the county of Aberdeen, North Britain, and late of Charles-street, Tottenham-court-road, in the county of Middlesex, since deceased, and she died, on the 10th day of November 1839, at No. 21, Beaufort-street, Chelsea, in the same county.
