The Treasurer and the Comptroller of the Household took their places behind the Sponsors.

Others of the Household, the Officers of Arms, and the Attendants upon the Royal Family arranged themselves on either side of the Chapel.

The Service then commenced with the performance of Sacred Music.

When the music had ceased, the Lord Chamberlain, accompanied by the Groom of the Stole to His Royal Highness Prince Albert, conducted the Infant Princess into the Chapel; Her Royal Highness being carried by the Head-Nurse, and attended by the Dowager Lady Lyttelton.

The Dowager Lady Lyttelton handed the Infant Princess to the Archbishop, and received the Princess from him again when she had been baptized.

After the Baptismal Service, Her Royal Highness the Infant Princess Louisa was re-conducted from the Chapel in the same way.

The Ceremony concluded with the performance of Sacred Music.

As soon as the Ceremony was concluded, Her Majesty, His Royal Highness Prince Albert, Her Majesty the Queen Dowager, the Sponsors, and the other Royal Personages, with their respective Attendants, and the Visitors, proceeded from the Chapel, up the Grand Staircase; Her Majesty and the other Royal Personages entered the Throne-Room, the remainder of the Company continued in the Green Drawing-Room.

Her Majesty was conducted, at eight o'clock, to the Banquet, in the Picture-Gallery, accompanied by the Royal Family, the Foreign Ministers, the Cabinet Ministers, and the other Persons who attended the Ceremony, the Band playing "GOD save the QUEEN."

After the Banquet, the Lord Steward gave the following Toasts, viz.:

"Her Royal Highness the Princess Louisa."

"Her Majesty the Queen Dowager."

"The Queen and the Prince."
