London and North Western Railway—Coventry and Nuneaton Branch.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to give further time for making certain railways," the London and North Western Railway Company have made application, in writing, to the Commissioners of Railways, setting forth, that the London and North Western Railway Company are desirous that the period of time limited by the "London and Birmingham Railway, Coventry and Nuneaton Railway Act, 1846," for the completion of the branch railway by the said Act authorized to be made, diverging from and out of the main line of the said London and Birmingham (now the London and North Western) Railway, near the Coventry Station thereon, in the parishes of Saint Michael and Saint John Baptist, Coventry, and the Holy Trinity, Coventry, in the county of Warwick, or one of them, and passing through the following places, that is to say, Saint Michael, Coventry, Saint John Baptist, Coventry, the Holy Trinity, Coventry, Foleshill, Exhall, Bedworth, Chilvers Coton, and Nuneaton, and terminating by a junction with the Trent Valley Railway, in the said parish of Nuneaton, and known as the proposed Coventry and Nuneaton Branch of the London and North Western Railway, should be extended for the further period of one year from the expiration of the period so limited by such Act.

And notice is hereby further given, that any persons who may think themselves aggrieved by such proposed extension of time for the completion of the said branch railway, and for the compulsory purchase of the said lands required for such branch railway, and who desire to object thereto, may bring such objections before the Commissioners of Railways, by sending a written statement thereof, by post, on or before the 1st day of July next, addressed to the Secretary of the Commissioners of Railways, Whitehall, London.—Dated this 30th day of May 1848.

Richard Creed, { Secretaries to the London
Henry Booth, { and North Western Railway Company.

Office of Ordnance, May 24, 1848.

THE Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that they are ready to dispose of, to such persons as may be willing to tender for the same,

A quantity of old Iron Guns, and Shot and Shells, in Store, at the Royal Arsenal, at Woolwich, which have been divided into lots, and may be viewed upon application to the Storekeeper, at that place, any day (Sundays excepted) previous to the day fixed for the delivery of the tenders.

A catalogue of the several lots may be obtained by persons willing to become purchasers, at the Storekeeper's Office, Woolwich; the Principal Storekeeper's Office, at the Tower; and at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-mall; where the tenders for the whole, or any number of the said lots, are to be delivered, on or before Monday the 12th June next.

By order of the Board,

R. Byham, Secretary.
