

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JUNE 13, 1848.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June 13, 1848.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room; at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 22d instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOM.

The Ladies, who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

And those Ladies, who are to be presented, are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, on Monday the 19th instant, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, which names shall correspond with those previously sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

It is particularly requested, that in every case written cards only be delivered.

TRINIDAD.

In the Supreme Civil Court.

In the matter of the humble Petition of Hippolite Agarrat, of the town of Port of Spain, in the island of Trinidad, Merchant.

PUBLIC notice is hereby given, that by an Order of the Honourable William George Knox, Acting Chief Justice, made in the above matter this day, Hippolite Agarrat, of the town of Port of Spain, in the island of Trinidad, Merchant, was adjudged an insolvent, and that the Schedule, required by the Ordinance "for giving relief to insolvent debtors," has been duly filed in my office by the said Hippolite Agarrat; and that the said Hippolite Agarrat will be brought up or appear before this Honourable Court, at the Court-house, in the town of Port of Spain aforesaid, on Wednesday the 5th day of July now next ensuing, then and there to be dealt with according to the provisions of the said Ordinance.—Dated this 5th day of April 1848. THORNTON WARNER, Registrar.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Pettinger against Haines, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, some time in the month of July 1848, of which due notice will be given, at Garraway's Coffee-house, Change-alley, Cornhill, in two lots;

Six leasehold houses, situate in Ashley-terrace, Hoxton, in the county of Middlesex, held on lease for a term, of which fifty-two years are unexpired; and two leasehold houses, situate in Nottingham-place, Hoxton aforesaid, for a term, of which fifty-two years are unexpired, and late the property of John Pettinger, deceased.

Printed particulars and conditions of sale may in a short time be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Mr. H. Martineau, Solicitor, No. 2, Raymond-buildings, Gray's-inn; of Mr. John Scargill, Solicitor, No. 2, Hatton-court, Threadneedle-street; and at the office of Mr. Henry Haines, Auctioneer, No. 38, Moorgate-street.

Vice Chancellor Knight Bruce.—Tuesday the 6th day of June, in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1848, between John Long, plaintiff; the Reverend John George Storie, the Reverend James Williams, and others, defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Follett, of Counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff filed his bill in this Court against the defendants, and took out process of subpoena against the defendant, James Williams, on the 26th of April last, requiring him to appear to and answer the plaintiff's bill; that it appears by the affidavit of John Deacon, that he knows and is well acquainted with the above-named defendant, James Williams, the present Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, and that the said James Williams has been resident within the jurisdiction of this Court within the period of eighteen months last past, having resided at Champion-hill, in the said parish of Camberwell, till some time in or about the month of May 1847, when he left the said parish, but where the said James Williams now is he does not know, and verily believes that he is keeping out of the way to avoid his creditors, and that the said James Williams officiated, in his capacity of Incumbent of Saint Giles aforesaid, in or about the month of November 1846; whereupon, and upon hearing the said affidavit, and an affidavit of James Tymm, read, this Court doth order, that the defendant, James Williams, do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the 1st day of July next; and it is ordered, that the plaintiff do cause a copy of this Order, together with the notice pursuant to the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette on or before the 20th day of June instant.

Notice.—James Williams, take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own shewing.

HALE, BOYS, and AUSTEN, No. 6, Ely-place, Holborn, Plaintiff's Solicitors.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Wilson versus Cates, it was, amongst other things, referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court what charitable institution was intended by the institution (in the will of James Sawers Cates, the testator in the pleadings named, formerly of London, and late of Hastings, in the county of Sussex, a Captain on half-pay Unattached, deceased) called the Female Penitentiary, Mill-bank, and what fund was intended by the fund in the said will called the Fund for Building a Church at Jerusalem, and what charities or charitable institutions were intended by the other charities or charitable institutions mentioned in the said will and codicils, save and except the charitable societies in the said will called the Various District Visiting Societies of the Poor from Bedford-square and Fitzroy-square to the West End of London, in respect of which last-mentioned charities or societies no enquiry was at present directed; therefore, all persons who claim any benefit or interest under the said testator's will are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 29th day of June 1848, to leave their claims before the said Master, at his office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London (where a copy of such will may be seen), and are, on or before the 29th day of July 1848, to establish such claims before the said Master, or in default thereof such persons will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the cause Paterson v. Mills, it is referred to the Honourable Sir George Rose, to enquire and state to the Court, whether Martha, the daughter of Richard Clark, the testator in the pleadings mentioned in his will named, is living or dead, and, if dead, when she died; and whether there was or were any and what children or child of the said testator's said daughter Martha born at the time of her decease; and whether any such children or child are or is now living or dead; and if any such children or child be dead, when and at what ages they respectively died, and whom they respectively left their heirs or heir at law then surviving; and if the said Master shall find that the said testator's daughter Martha is dead, then it is ordered, that the said Master do enquire and state who were or was the children or child of the said Martha living at the time of her decease, and who were or was the heirs or heir at law or real representatives or representative of any of the children or child of the said Martha as were or was then dead; and it is ordered, that the said Master do enquire and state whether any such heirs or heir at law or real representatives or representative of any such deceased children or child, as were or was living at the time of the death of the said Martha, are or is now living or dead, and, if any such heirs or heir at law, real representatives or real representative be dead, who are or is his, her, or their heir or heirs at law or real representatives or representative, and who are or is the personal representatives or representative of such heirs or heir at law, real representatives or real representative as are or is now dead; therefore any persons or person claiming to be such heirs or heir, or representatives or representative as aforesaid, is or are, on or before the 10th day of June 1848, to leave their claims before the said Master, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; and are, on or before the 10th day of July 1848, to establish such claims, and make out his, her, or their heirship or representation, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.—The said Richard Clark was a Cordwainer, residing in Cranbourn-street, Leicester-fields, in the county of Middlesex, and died on the 28th day of July 1796; and his said daughter Martha married Peter Robertson or Robinson, formerly of Beltrin, in the parish of Glenbucket, in the county of Aberdeen, North Britain, and late of Charles-street, Tottenham-court-road, in the county of Middlesex, since deceased, and she died, on the 10th day of November 1839, at No. 21, Beaufort-street, Chelsea, in the same county.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause the London Hospital against Taylor, the creditors of Jere Francis Painter, formerly of Leicester-square, in the county of Middlesex, Cabinet Maker, deceased (who died on or about the 2d day of September 1845), are, on or before the 6th day of July 1848, to leave their claims of debts before the Honourable Sir George Rose, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and are, on or before the 6th day of August 1848, to establish such claims before the said Master, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
