

No hackney carriages will be admitted within the gates.

For all persons having the privilege of the entrée, tickets will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, on Tuesday next, from eleven till three o'clock; their carriages are to pass through Constitution-hill-gate into St. James's-park. Those belonging to the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers are to set down in Marlborough-court, at the east end of the Palace, and wait there till called. Those belonging to the Cabinet Ministers and Great Officers of State are to set down in the Ambassadors'-court, and wait there. The carriages of all other persons having the entrée are likewise to set down in the Ambassadors'-court, and wait in Stable-yard, or St. James's-park, till called; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, and pass away up St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than as above directed.
