

"I thank you for the expression of your condolence on the loss I have sustained in my late beloved Aunt, to whose many excellent qualities and virtues you have rendered so just a tribute.

"I gratefully acknowledge the loyalty, courage, and fidelity of my people in upholding the supremacy of the law, and maintaining the principles of the British Constitution.

"I rely, with the fullest confidence, on your faithful and efficient fulfilment of the important charge committed to you, and I pray that, by the blessing of God, a long succession of pious, learned, and able men may be trained in your University, for the discharge of the various duties which will devolve upon them in Church and State."

They were all very graciously received, and the Vice Chancellor; the Dean of Windsor; the Master of Clare-hall, and the Master of Jesus College, had the honour of kissing Her Majesty's hand.

This day the following Address of congratulation upon the occasion of the birth of a Princess was presented to Her Majesty, and most graciously received:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lieutenant Governor, the Bailiff, the Jurats of the Royal Court, the Clergy, the Queen's Procureur, and the Deputies of the several parishes and cantons of your Majesty's island of Guernsey, in the States assembled, beg most humbly to approach your Majesty to offer our heartfelt congratulations on the birth of a Princess.

Deeply sensible of the blessings which this island has ever enjoyed under the protection of the British Crown, and animated by the same feelings of gratitude and loyal affection which on your Majesty's visit to our shores throbbed in every breast, we beg to express to your Majesty the joy that we feel at this auspicious event.

We hail it as an additional bond of union between the people and the throne; and we fervently pray, that while it contributes to your Majesty's domestic happiness, it may also, under the Divine providence, conduce to the general welfare of the realm.
