" Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, titles, rent charges, tenements or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer and conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein; and with a further proviso, that none of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments be sold, transferred or conveyed except by the authority of a scheme and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

“And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said houses, tenements and hereditaments, and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

“We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by deed or deeds duly executed under our common seal, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said houses, tenements and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Hatherton, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for compensating the incumbent of Saint James, Sutton, in the county and diocese of York, for diminished emoluments.

"Whereas the said Act (together with the Acts therein recited) authorizes the assigning at any time, and from time to time, to the incumbent of any church or chapel whose fees, dues or other emoluments shall be diminished by or in consequence of proceedings under the provisions thereof, and, if deemed expedient, to his successors also of such an annual sum as shall upon due inquiry appear to be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution:

"And whereas by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the nineteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and duly gazetted, ratifying a certain scheme prepared by us, pursuant to the said Act, the district of Saint Mark, Hull, was formed partly out of the parish of Saint James, Sutton, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and the same became a new parish on the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and by reason of the perpetual curate thereof being entitled under the said Act to receive certain fees, dues or other emoluments therein, a diminution will be occasioned in the fees, dues and other emoluments, heretofore of right belonging to the incumbent of the said church of Saint James, Sutton, to the amount hereinafter mentioned, and we deem it just and reasonable, that compensation should be made to such incumbent and his successors:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the incumbent of the church of Saint James, Sutton, for the time being, the annual sum of twenty-five pounds, by way of such compensation as aforesaid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and first day of November in every year; and that the first payment shall be made on the first day of November next; and further, that we shall be authorized forthwith to pay to the Reverend Nicholas Watton, the late incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Saint James, Sutton, and to the Reverend John Adams Eldridge, the present incumbent thereof, such sums respectively as would, after the above rate, be proportionate to the time during which each has held the said perpetual curacy, between the said seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and the first day of this instant month of May.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling ecclesiastical corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling eccleciastical corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Redruth, in the county of Cornwall and diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and duly gazetted, ratifying a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, prepared by us under the provisions of the secondly-mentioned Act, for determining the portion of the improved value to be made payable to us in a certain mining lease, therein mentioned, to be about to be granted by the Reverend John Webster Hawksley, Clerk, Rector of the said parish of Redruth, one half of the whole net amount of the reservation or reservations to be made in the said lease was ordered to be made directly payable to us:

"And whereas, after due consideration of the wants and circumstances of the said parish, we deem it expedient, that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls therein, in manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the balance of all monies which shall from time to time be paid to us in respect of such lease as aforesaid, after deducting thereout all costs, charges and expenses incurred by us in respect of the said lease, or in receiving the said monies, shall be invested in Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, and the dividends arising from all such investments shall also be from time to time invested in like manner, until such annuities, with the accumulations thereon, will produce such a sum as shall appear to us and to the patron of the said rectory of Redruth for the time being to be sufficient to provide a parsonage house for the incumbent of the district of Treleigh, within the said parish; and that a parsonage house shall then be erected for the incumbent thereof, according to plans and specifications to be approved by us and by the patron for the time being of the said rectory of Redruth.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, from and after such specific appropriation towards building a parsonage house as aforesaid, all remaining or further stock or monies in our possession, or received by us as aforesaid, and all monies which from time to time may be paid to or received by us in respect of the said lease, after deducting the costs, charges and expenses to be incurred by us in receiving the same, shall be from time to time applied by us towards augmenting the income of the incumbent of the said district of Treleigh for the time being, or towards making better provision for the cure of souls in the said parish of Redruth, including the said district of Treleigh, or any other district which may be formed out of the said parish, in such manner as we, with the consent of the said patron of the rectory of Redruth for the time being, may at any time thereafter recommend, and your Majesty in Council approve.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing, with the consent of the said patron, any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament; and that no such recommendation or proposal, and no other scheme shall at any time be proposed or adopted in reference to the matters, or such monies as aforesaid, without the consent, in writing, of the patron of the rectory of Redruth for the time being.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of June 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Tormoham, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter.

“ Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the mean time, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as hereinafter provided:

“ And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be approved by the like authority:

No. 20873.

B

“ And whereas the said parish of Tormoham is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth:

“ And whereas an annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds has been provided by Sir Lawrence Vaughan Palk and Lawrence Palk, Esquire, both of Haldon-house, in the county of Devon, by means of a perpetual rent charge, now payable to us, and issuing out of certain lands in the same parish to which the said Sir Lawrence Vaughan Palk and Lawrence Palk are entitled, in lieu of the tithes of the said lands to which they, the said Sir Lawrence Vaughan Palk and Lawrence Palk, are also entitled, towards the permanent endowment of the minister of the district herein recommended to be constituted, and, so soon as such district shall have become, according to the provisions of the said Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, of the perpetual curate thereof; and it has been proposed to us, that in consideration of such permanent endowment, the right of patronage of the said district or new parish, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, should be assigned in manner hereinafter mentioned:

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of Exeter, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Tormoham, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly, and that the same shall be named, “ The District of Upton.”

“ And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of January and the first day of July, to the minister, for the time being, of the district so recommended to be constituted, and so soon as such district shall have become, according to the provisions of the said Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, to the perpetual curate thereof, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of January or of July next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such perpetual curate as aforesaid as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of January or the first day of July, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from discontinuing such payment, if at any time hereafter the said rent charge or annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, so provided by the said Sir Lawrence Vaughan Palk and Lawrence Palk as aforesaid, shall be transferred and permanently secured to the said minister or perpetual curate.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate to, the said district or new parish shall be assigned to, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Sir Lawrence Vaughan Palk and Lawrence Palk, their heirs and assigns for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of UPTON, being—

“ All that part of the parish of Tormoham, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues and patronage,” and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for determining the spiritual jurisdiction in and over the parish and church of Abbot's Leigh, in the county of Somerset.

“ Whereas, under the authority of the said recited Acts, we prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, for newly arranging the rural deaneries within the arch-deaconry of Bath, and for abolishing peculiar and exempt jurisdictions in the diocese of Bath and Wells, in which we recommended and proposed, that the rural deanry, then styled the rural deanry of Redcliffe and Bedminster, should be named the rural deanry of Chew, and that such rural deanry should thenceforth comprise and consist of the several parishes and districts mentioned and set under or against the name of such rural deanry, as the same are respectively set forth in the schedule thereunto annexed; and the said scheme was ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-second day of the same month of July, which Order has since been duly gazetted :

“ And whereas the said schedule contains the name of the parish and church of Abbot's Leigh, as forming part of the said rural deanery of Chew, and of the archdeaconry of Bath; but the said parish and church had theretofore been and then was in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol and subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop thereof; and the consent of the said bishop was not given to the said scheme, and such jurisdiction could not therefore be legally transferred thereby or by the said Order in Council :

“ Now, therefore, for the purpose of removing any doubts respecting the spiritual jurisdiction in and over the said parish and church of Abbot's Leigh, we humbly recommend and propose, that it be hereby declared, that, notwithstanding any thing contained in the said scheme and Order of your Majesty in Council, the said parish and church of Abbot's Leigh is included in and forms part of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and of the archdeaconry and deanery of Bristol.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the several registries of the dioceses of Bath and Wells, and Gloucester and Bristol.
