FRIDAY, JULY 14, 1848.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the
27th day of June 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Order in Council, made on the twenty-sixth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, for regulating the trade and commerce of the district of Natal, in South Africa, certain duties of Customs were directed to be levied upon certain goods, wares, and merchandizes imported into the said district; and whereas it is expedient to exempt agricultural implements imported into the said district from the payment of such duties :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of the publication of this Order in the said district, no duties of Customs shall be levied in the said district upon agricultural implements imported into the said district, any thing in the said first-mentioned Order in Council to the contrary notwithstanding :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, and the Right Honourable Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, shall give the necessary directions herein as to them respectively doth appertain.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the
27th day of June 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act "to make better provision for the spiritual care "of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for compensating the incumbent of Saint James, Sutton, in the county and diocese of York, for diminished emoluments.

"Whereas the said Act (together with the Acts therein recited) authorizes the assigning at any time, and from time to time, to the incumbent of any church or chapel whose fees, dues or other emoluments shall be diminished by or in consequence of proceedings under the provisions thereof, and, if deemed expedient, to his successors also
