TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1848.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of June 1848,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the law relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of

"Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the law relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for ratifying an agreement between us and the chapter of the collegiate church of Southwell.

"Whereas it was by the secondly recited Act enacted, that no appointment should be made to any canonry or prebend in the said collegiate church, but that so soon as every person who was a member of the chapter thereof, at the passing of the same Act, should have ceased to be such member, all lands and tenements, tithes and other hereditaments belonging to the said church or the chapter thereof, except any right of patronage, should without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the provisions of that Act accrue to and be vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and their successors, for the purposes of the first recited Act and of that Act; and that out of the lands, tenements, tithes and other hereditaments and endowments, which should so accrue to the said Commissioners or the proceeds thereof, competent provision should be made by the authority in the said first recited Act provided, and in such manner as should be by such authority deemed expedient for the services of the said church of Southwell, and for the maintenance and reparation of the fabric of the said church, and for any minor canon or officer thereof; and that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the like authority and out of the same lands, tenements, tithes or other hereditaments or endowments, or the proceeds thereof, or out of any other lands, tithes or other hereditaments or endowments then or in the mean time vested in the said Commissioners, or any emoluments already accrued or hereafter accruing to them in respect of the canonries or prebends of the said church, provision should be made for the spiritual care of the said parish of Southwell, and for the competent endowment of ministers in the several parishes within the deanry of Southwell, wherein any of such lands, tenements, tithes and hereditaments were respectively situated or arose:

“ And whereas there are now vacant in the said chapter of Southwell ten canonries, to the whole profits and emoluments whereof we are now entitled, under the provisions of the said Act in that behalf:

“ And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and duly gazetted in accordance with the said recited Acts, it is provided, that so long as there should continue to be any canons or canon remaining in the said collegiate church, the chapter or such remaining canons or canon might from time to time appoint a substitute or substitutes, to be approved by the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being, to perform the duties of a canon in residence for any period or periods during which canonical residence should remain unprovided for after all statutable and customary residence should have been kept by all the canons of the said church then remaining, or by the sole remaining canon as the case might be:

“ And whereas it was by the first and second recited Acts enacted, that any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent of the Visitor for the time being, and under the corporate seal of any chapter of any cathedral or collegiate church, for the sale, transfer or exchange of any lands, tithes or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes or other hereditaments for any money payment, or for substituting any money payment for any lands, tithes or other hereditaments:

“ And whereas, under and by virtue of the foregoing enactments and the other general provisions of the said several recited Acts, and for sooner and more effectually carrying into effect the purpose hereinbefore mentioned of making provision for the spiritual care of the said parish of Southwell, we have entered into an agreement in writing with the chapter of the said collegiate church of Southwell, under the corporate seal, bearing date the ninth day of March, in this present year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, a copy of which agreement is hereto annexed:

“ We, therefore, with the consent in writing of the said chapter of the said collegiate church of Southwell, testified by the corporate seal of the said chapter being affixed to this scheme, and also with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lincoln, as Visitor of the said chapter, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that the said agreement and all acts, deeds, matters and things already done or executed for carrying the same into effect, shall be valid and effectual in law and binding upon the several parties thereto, and upon all other persons whomsoever to all intents and purposes, and that all such further acts, deeds, matters and things as shall be necessary or proper to be done or executed shall accordingly be done and executed, and shall be valid, effectual and binding as aforesaid, for the purpose of carrying the said agreement into effect according to the true intent and meaning thereof.

“ And we further particularly recommend and propose, with such consent as aforesaid, that all and singular the lands and tenements, and also the fabric and chapter estates and funds, including the balance in the hands of or due to the said chapter at the date of the said agreement, and all other the property and hereditaments whatsoever and wheresoever belonging to or forming part of the property or endowment of the said collegiate church of Southwell, or the chapter thereof, collectively, or held in trust for the said collegiate church or the said chapter (other than any rights of patronage), and all the estate, right, title and interest of the said collegiate church or the said chapter therein or thereto, together with all the rents, issues, fines, premiums and other profits, from the third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and all rights, powers and remedies at law and in equity heretofore belonging to or which might have been had and exercised or enjoyed by the chapter of the said collegiate church for or in respect of such lands, tenements, property and hereditaments, rents, issues, fines, premiums and profits, and balance as aforesaid, or any of them, or any part thereof shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and immediately after the gazetting of such Order, become and be to all intents and purposes transferred to and absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the hereinbefore recited Acts, subject only to such leases or grants heretofore made thereof, or of any part thereof, as may be now legally subsisting and not void or voidable at law or in equity; and that the general funds vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts shall, as from and after the said third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, be chargeable with the several annual payments by the said agreement agreed to be made by us as therein expressed in exoneration of the said chapter estates and property from all lien on account thereof.

“ Provided always, and we do further recommend and propose, that in case any proceedings shall be taken by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for setting aside any lease or grant heretofore made of any of the lands, tenements or hereditaments belonging to or forming part of the said collegiate church on the ground of any defect at law or in equity in or affecting such lease or grant, or for obtaining or enforcing any remedy or redress on account of any waste or dilapidations in or about any of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, shall, out of the general funds placed at our disposal, indemnify and save harmless the said chapter against all losses, costs, charges, damages and expenses which they may pay or incur, or to which they may become liable in consequence thereof, either under any express or implied covenant on the part of the said chapter for the quiet enjoyment of the premises comprized in such lease or grant, or otherwise.

“ And we do further recommend and propose, that as soon as conveniently may be after the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, all deeds, books, registers, leases, counterparts of leases, court rolls, court books, maps, terriers, valuations, plans, and all other papers, writings and documents whatsoever, which are or ought to be in the custody, possession or power of the said chapter, and relating to the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, property and estate so recommended to be vested in us as aforesaid, or the title thereof (other than and except the chapter books and records hereafter mentioned), shall be delivered to us, and that all and singular the chapter books and records relating as well to the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, property, and estate, or the title thereof, as also relating to and recording Acts heretofore made, done or passed by the said chapter in its corporate capacity, shall remain and be kept in the treasury or muniment-room of the said collegiate church, and shall be under the custody of the canon residentiary for the time being, or of the substitute for the time being (being a canon of the said church) appointed, as in the said agreement referred to, and the chapter clerk, as well on behalf of the said chapter as of us, and for their and our joint use, until every person who was a member of the said chapter at the passing of the said secondly recited Act shall have ceased to be such member, unless by any further Order to be hereafter made by your Majesty in Council, any further or other directions shall be given for the custody of the said chapter books and records; and when and as soon as all the persons who were members of the said chapter at the passing of the said secondly recited Act shall have ceased to be such, the said chapter books and records shall be delivered over to us.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ Collegiate Church of Southwell.

“ Terms finally agreed on at a chapter held on the ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, between the chapter of Southwell, capitularly assembled, on the one part, and John Meadows White, of 7, Whitehall-place, in the county of Middlesex, acting for the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, on the other part, being for the commutation of the interests of the chapter in their estates for an annual payment, pursuant to 3d and 4th Victoria, cap. 113, sec. 68, and 4th and 5th Victoria, cap. 39, sec. 21, and 5th and 6th Victoria, cap. 26, sec. 8 :

“ 1. That the future annual payment from the Commissioners, in lieu of the rota dividend, be £87. 10s.

“ 2. That the accustomed net payment to each canon upon the occasion of residence be made by the Commissioners, and added to the foregoing annual payment, and payable by equal half-yearly instalments, commencing from first of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

“ 3. That such last-mentioned payment be £32. 10s. per annum, making, with the £87. 10s., an annuity of £120 to each canon for the term of his incumbency.

“ 4. The appointment of substitutes, as exercised at present by the Commissioners for the vacant turns, to be extended to the remaining canonries, the stipend for the substitutes being paid by the Commissioners, but, in consideration of the remaining canons having already served their turn for the present rota, a further sum of £15 each be paid with the annuity for the present year.

“ 5. Nevertheless each canon to be at liberty to take his turn personally if he see fit, finding his own residence, the house and furniture, and all annual proceeds from the third day of November last, to become the property of the Commissioners, they making such arrangements for the residence of a permanent substitute as they may think fit.

“ 6. That each canon have the benefit of the three years that have elapsed since the last rota dividend, by receiving from the Commissioners a payment of £150 at the end of the current rota; the accumulations since the last rota dividend, amounting to £2107. 11s., being transferred to the Commissioners, subject to all payments made, and charges attaching thereon and payable thereout.

" 7. The Commissioners to adopt the investments in which the accumulations have been made up to the expiration of the present rota, the payments of £150 to the canons being a charge thereon, a like sum of £150 being paid to the executors of Mr. Becher and Mr. Boothby, who are entitled to an interest in the present rota.

" 8. The accounts having been passed by the Commissioners up to Candlemas one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, the further accounts to be taken from that date, any monies received by any canon over and above the £190 residence money being accounted for in settling for the £150.

" 9. All leases granted or renewed, previous to the first of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, to be considered as adopted by the Commissioners, and, if necessary, legally confirmed by them; the services of the church and present officers to be continued, during the existence of the chapter, on their present footing, under the direction of the chapter.

" 10. The augmentations to the livings already granted to be made permanent, and the stipends of the two minor canons to be £150 each, in discharge of all emoluments, they continuing the services at present performed by them.

" 11. The chapter clerk to continue as receiver, and perform the duties attached to that office, and as the local agent of the Commissioners touching the chapter estates, he being paid for the same, and for compensation for loss of emoluments £160 per annum, commencing from the first of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, so long as he shall continue to be so employed; but on his ceasing to hold such office, the annual payment to be reduced to a pension of £80 for his life.

" 12. The field adjoining the residence, called the Residence Close, and the two minor canons gardens being part of the same, and purchased for 500 guineas in one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and since held in trust for the chapter, to become the property of the Commissioners, and be conveyed or vested in the Commissioners as they may see fit, the Commissioners taking the title as it stands.

" 13. The whole fabrick fund and estates to be made over to the Commissioners from the third of November last, subject to the usual annual charges thereon, and also to the existing debt, and the requisite repairs, and the sustentation of the fabrick during the existence of the chapter.

" 14. A scheme to be forthwith prepared by the Commissioners, and submitted to Her Majesty in Council, for confirming the above arrangement, and all such other legal documents as may be necessary at the expense of the Commissioners for confirming the same.

" 15. The chapter distinctly reserve to themselves their rights of patronage, capitular or individual, so long as the chapter exists, and during their respective incumbencies.

" Signed on behalf of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;
" John Meadows White."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.
