The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in that behalf vested in the said Commissioners under the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Stowe and Colwich, in the county of Stafford, and within the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous parts of the said parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Hixon, in the said parish of Stowe, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts; and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should consist of part of the liberty of Hixon, and be formed of certain contiguous parts of the said parishes of Stowe and Colwich, small portions of each of which parishes are isolated from the remainder of the parishes to which they belong; and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be called or named, "The Consolidated Chapelry of Hixon," with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned:

"The consolidated chapelry of Hixon is bounded on the east by Moreton Brook, or other the boundary line that divides the parishes of Stowe and Colwich from the parish of Blithfield, on or towards the south by hedge rows from Moreton Brook to Gaw Brook, and by the said Gaw Brook, which divides it from the remaining part of the parish of Colwich, as far as the canal, and from thence to the point where the said brook enters the river Trent; on the south west by the river Trent, or other the boundary line that divides the said parishes of Stowe and Colwich from the parish of Ingestre; on the north west by the parish of Weston, as far as the foot-path from Weston to Hixon, along which foot-path it then proceeds, in a southerly direction, as far as a brook, called Hixon Brook; thence, in a northerly and north easterly direction, along the said brook, and crossing the lane leading to Stowe, until it reaches the road leading from Hixon to Blithfield; whence it proceeds, in an easterly direction, along the middle of the said road to Moreton Brook, or other the boundary of the parishes of Stowe and Blithfield, where the boundary of the said proposed consolidated chapelry of Hixon commenced, and as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green and pink:

"And your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between Maria Frances Mould, of the Ashbourn-road, in the town and county of Derby, widow, as the patron of the parish church of the said parish of Stowe, and the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Lichfield, as the patron in right of his see of the parish church of the said parish of Colwich (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, and with the consent of the said John Lord Bishop of Lichfield as such Bishop), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate
