

boundary line of the parishes of Moreton Say and Drayton in Hales meet, at the bridle-way, entering into Longslow-lane, and proceeds from such bridle-way, in a south easterly direction, along the southern side of that lane as far as Shropshire-street, and crossing that street proceeds along the south western side of the lane leading by the National Schools, down the steps, and into the road, called New-town; up the southern side of which road it proceeds, north easterly, as far as the turnpike road leading from Drayton to Newport; crossing the river Tern, it proceeds, in a south easterly direction, along the western side of the said turnpike road as far as the boundary line of the parish of Hinstock; along which boundary line it then proceeds, in a south westerly direction, as far as the turnpike road from Whitechurch to Newport; and then proceeds, in a north westerly direction, along the boundary line of the parish of Stoke upon Tern as far as the river Tern; along which said river it then proceeds, south westerly, as far as the boundary line of the parish of Hodnet; and proceeds along that boundary line, in a northerly direction, until it reaches the boundary line which separates the parish of Moreton Say from the parish of Drayton in Hales; along which said boundary line it then proceeds south easterly, north easterly, and northerly, until it reaches the point where the said boundary first commenced, as such proposed district is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient, that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in Christ Church, at Little Drayton aforesaid; and that the fees to arise therefrom should belong and be paid to the incumbent thereof for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Lichfield (as Bishop of the diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, he has signed and sealed this instrument:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.
