Whitehall, November 3, 1848.

The Right Honourable Sir Thomas Wilde, Knt. Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, has appointed John Clarke Chaplin, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Gent. to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the county of Warwick, also in and for the counties of Stafford and Worcester.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Catholick Church, situated at Woolhampton, in the county of Berks, in the district of Thatcham, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 10th day of November 1848, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 11th day of November 1848,
John Tanner, Superintendent Registrar.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Act, 1848, and of the Nister Dale Iron Company.

A PETITION for the dissolution and winding up of the above-named company was presented to the Lord Chancellor in England, by John Newbery, of No. 10, Hereford-street, in the county of Middlesex, a Colonel in Her Majesty's Army, the 14th day of November 1848.
Hume and Bird, 10, Great James-street, Bedford-row, Solicitors for the Petitioner.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Act, 1848, and of the Saint George Steam Packet Company.

I JAMES WILLIAM FARRER, Esq. the Master of the High Court of Chancery charged with the winding up of this Company, hereby give notice, that I shall, at my chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, on Monday the 27th day of November 1848, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, or at such other adjourned time or place as I may then or afterwards fix, appoint an Official Manager or Official Managers of this Company; and I give notice, that all parties interested are entitled to attend at such time and place, and to offer proposals or objections as to any such appointment.
J. W. Farrer.

WE, the undersigned, Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, hereby give notice, that applications have been made by Thomas William Tatton, of Wythenshawe-hall, in the county of Chester, Esq. for the advance of the under-mentioned sum, by way of loan, under the provisions of the Act of the 9th and 10th Victoria, cap. 101, for the drainage of the lands hereinafter specified :

North Western Railway.

(Extension of Lancaster Branch, Abandonment of William Lands Branch, New Road to Settle Station, Extension of Time for Purchase of Lands and Construction of Works.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, or to repeal some of the powers and provisions of "The North Western Railway Act, 1846," "The Morecambe Harbour and Railway Act, 1846," and "The North Western Railway (Diversions at Skipton, Casterton, Sedbergh, and Bulk) Act, 1848," and to enable the North Western Railway Company to make an extension of the Lancaster Branch of the North Western Railway, to commence at or near the Lancaster Station of the said North Western Railway, in the township of Lancaster, in the parish of Lancaster, in the county of Lancaster, and to terminate at or near the Castle Station of the Lancaster and Carlisle Railway, in the township of Lancaster aforesaid, there to form a junction with the Lancaster and Carlisle Railway, which said extension line of railway will pass from, in, through, or into, or be situate within the town of Lancaster, borough of Lancaster, borough and town of Lancaster, parish of Lancaster, and township of Lancaster, all in the said county of Lancaster.

And it is also intended by the said Act to authorize the said North Western Railway Company to abandon the formation of and to relinquish so much of the branch railway, commencing from the main line of the Morecambe Harbour Railway at or near Poulton-le-Sands, and terminating by a junction with the Lancaster and Carlisle Railway, at or near William Lands, in the township of Slyne-with-Hest, as authorized to be constructed by the said Morecambe Harbour and Railway Act, 1846, as will become useless and unnecessary in consequence of the construction of the extension line of railway hereinbefore mentioned.

And it is also intended by the said Act to authorize the said North Western Railway Company to make a new road, to commence at or near Beggarwaith-bridge, otherwise Beggarwife-bridge, in the parish of Giggleswick, in the west riding of the county of York, at or near to the point of junction of a certain road or highway there, which leads from or towards Paley-green, in the parish of Giggleswick aforesaid, with a certain other road or highway, in the said parish of Giggleswick, which leads from the village of Rathnel, in the said last-mentioned parish, to or towards the village of Giggleswick, in the said parish of Giggleswick, and to terminate at or in the town of Settle, in the parish of Giggleswick aforesaid, at or near to the point of junction of a certain yard there, called Clarkson's Yard, with the main street, otherwise called Duke-street, otherwise called Duck-street, in the town of Settle aforesaid, which said road will pass from, in, through, or into, or be situate within the parish of Giggleswick, in the several townships of Giggleswick and Settle, all in the said west riding of the county of York.

And it is also proposed by the said Act to take power to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike and other roads and highways, railways, tramways, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers, within the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places, or any of them, as it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert by reason of the construction of the said railway, road, and works, or any or either of them.

And it is also intended by the said Act to take powers for the purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, of lands and houses for the purposes of the said intended railway, road, and works, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands and houses, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said intended railway, road, and works, and to confer other rights and privileges, and also to levy tolls, rates, and duties for or in respect of the use of the said intended railway and works, and to confer such exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties as may be thought expedient.

And notice is hereby further given, that maps, plans, and sections of the said intended railway, road, and works, and of the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and houses, and describing such lands and houses respectively; and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office in Preston, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the west riding of the county of York, at his office in Wakefield; and that a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, and books of reference, as relates to the several parishes in or through which the intended railway, road, and works are proposed to be made, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the said thirtieth day of November, be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerks of those parishes at their respective places of abode.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended by such Act to extend the time or to revive the powers granted by "The North Western Railway Act, 1846," "The Morecambe Harbour and Railway Act, 1846," and "the North Western Railway (Divisions at Skipton, Casterton, Sedbergh, and Bulk) Act, 1848," for the compulsory purchase of the lands and houses authorized to be taken under the provisions of such Act or Acts within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them (that is to say), Long Preston, Hellifield, Hellefield, Newton, Little Newton, Arnford, Arnsford, Arndford, Arnford with Little Newton, Giggleswick, Settle, Clapham, Clapham-with-Newby, Newby-with-Clapham, Newby, Newby Coats, Newby Cotes, Newby Cote, Bentham, Ingleton, Cold Coates, Cold Cotes, Twistleton, Thornton, Thornton-in-Lonsdale, Burton, Burton-in-Lonsdale, Black Burton, Masongill, Moorgarth, Westhouse, High Westhouse, Low Westhouse, Westhouses, Sedbergh, Marthwaite, Howgill, Upper Bland, Nether Bland, Howgill-with-Bland, Soobank, Frostrow, Frastrow, Cautley, and Dowbiggin, all in the west riding of the county of York; and Lancaster, Poulton, Bare, and Torrisholme, Poulton, Heysham, Thornton, Thornton-in-Lonsdale, Ireby, Ireby-with-Tatham, Tatham-with-Ireby, Tunstall, Cantsfield, Leck, High Leck, Low Leck, Burrow, High Burrow, Low Burrow, Over Burrow, Overtown, Overborough, and Burrow-with-Burrow, all in the county palatine of Lancaster; and Kirkby Lonsdale, Casterton, High Casterton, Low Casterton, Barbon, Beckfoot, Barbon-Beckfoot, Mansergh, Middleton, Killington, Firbank, Firbank High, Firbank Low, Kendal, Kirkby Kendal, Kirkby in Kendal, Dillicar, Dillicar Smithy, Bretherdale, Borrowdale, Langdale, Whinfell, Orton, and Tebay, all in the county of Westmoreland; and also to extend the periods limited by the said Acts respectively, for the completion of the works thereby authorized.—Dated this sixth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

John Sharp, Lancaster.

Congleton Inclosure Act Amendment.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions contained in an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and leasing or letting certain commons or waste grounds within the borough and township of Congleton, in the county of Chester, and for applying the profits of part of the same in aid of the poors' rate, or other taxes or public expenses within the said township;" or to repeal the said Act, and grant further provisions instead thereof; and in such Bill provision is intended to be made to enable the Trustees appointed by or by virtue of the said Act to sue and be sued in the name of one of them, or of their Clerk, and to sell, exchange, and grant leases for long terms of years, or in perpetuity of all or any parts of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments vested in such trustees, by virtue of the said Act; and it is intended to make provision for the application of the money in the manner mentioned in the said Act, or in some other manner to be prescribed in the said Bill; and it is also intended to vary or extinguish any rights or privileges which may interfere with the objects aforesaid; and to confer further powers upon the said trustees.—Dated this seventh day of November 1848.

Thomas Vaudrey, Solicitor.

"The Northumberland Dock Company's Act, 1846."

(Continuance.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for constructing docks and other works at the Coble Dean, in the county of Northumberland, and in the borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, to be called the Northumberland Docks;" and in which Bill it is intended to extend and continue the time granted by the said Act for the completion of the said dock and works and conveniences connected therewith; and for the taking compulsorily any lands and houses for the purposes thereof; and if necessary to amend or repeal the said Act, or to alter the existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to levy other tolls, rates, and duties, or to make other provisions in lieu thereof.—Dated this eighth day of November 1848.

Laws and Glynn, Newcastle-upon-Tyne,
Parratt and Walmisley, House of Lords,
 Parliamentary Agents.

Kingston-upon-Hull Dock Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts following (that is to say), an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and establishing public quays or wharfs at Kingston-upon-Hull, for the better securing His Majesty's Revenues of Customs, and for the benefit of commerce in the port of Kingston-upon-Hull; for making a basin or dock, with reservoirs, sluices, roads, and other works for the accommodation of vessels using the said port; and for appropriating certain lands belonging to His Majesty; and for applying certain sums of money out of His Majesty's Customs at the said port for those purposes; and for establishing other necessary regulations within the town and port of Kingston-upon-Hull;" and an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His said Majesty, for the purpose of amending the Act aforesaid, and for making additional basins or docks at Kingston-upon-Hull, with an entrance into the same from the river Humber, and for granting certain lands belonging to His Majesty in aid of the said works; an Act, passed in the forty-fifth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act for raising a further sum of money for carrying into execution an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His present Majesty, for making additional basins or docks at Kingston-upon-Hull;" an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for making new docks and other works connected therewith, in addition to the present docks at Kingston-upon-Hull, and for amending the Acts relating to such last-mentioned docks;" an Act, passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the Acts relating to the docks at Kingston-upon-Hull, and for enlarging one of the said docks;" and an Act, passed in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for removing doubts as to the purchase of lands by the Dock Company at Kingston-upon-Hull in certain cases."

And it is intended by such Act so to be applied for to enable the Dock Company at Kingston-upon-Hull, incorporated by the first recited Act, to raise further sums of money in addition to the sums of money authorized to be raised by virtue of the said Acts, or any of them; and to mortgage the rates and duties granted by the said Acts, or otherwise to raise such further sums of money by such means as they shall think proper.—Dated this eighth day of November 1848.

Charles Frost, Solicitor to the Dock Company at Kingston-upon-Hull.

Newcastle and Carlisle Railway.

(Alterations of and Branch from Alston Branch.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the session held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to authorize the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company to extend their railway in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, to make a branch railway, and for other purposes connected with their undertaking."

And it is intended by the said Act, so to be applied for, to take powers to alter and vary the branch railway, extending from the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway, at or near Haltwhistle, to Alston and Nent Head, authorized to be made by the said Act, by abandoning so much of the said branch railway as extends between the point of junction with the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway, in the township of Haltwhistle, in the parish of Haltwhistle, in the county of Northumberland, at or near the Haltwhistle Station upon the said railway, and marked with the letter A on the plans hereinafter referred to, and a point or place, marked B on the said plans, in a field called Broomhouse-meadow, belonging to Cuthbert Ellison, Esquire, and occupied by John Waugh, situate in the township of Bellister, in the parish of Haltwhistle, in the county of Northumberland, and passing in, through, or into the parish of Haltwhistle, and the several townships of Haltwhistle and Bellister, all in the said county of Northumberland, and by making and maintaining, in lieu thereof, a line of railway, commencing at the said point of junction with the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway, marked A on the said plans, and terminating at the said point marked B on the same plans, in the said field called Broomhouse-meadow, and passing in, through, or into, or to be made within the several parishes, townships, townlands, and extra-parochial places following, or some of them, that is to say, Haltwhistle, Plenmeller, and Bellister, all in the said county of Northumberland, and by abandoning so much of the said branch railway, by the said Act authorized to be made, as extends between a point or place marked with the letter C on the plans hereinafter referred to, in a field belonging to the Honourable James Hope Wallace, situate on the south side of the road leading from Rowfoot to Featherstone, and in the township of Featherstone, in the said parish of Haltwhistle, and a point or place marked D on the said plans, in a field belonging to Edward Robson, and in the occupation of Ann Stephenson, situate in the township of Knaredale, in the parish of Knaredale, in the said county of Northumberland, and passing in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, townlands, and extra-parochial places following, or some of them, that is to say, Haltwhistle, Featherstone, Lambley otherwise Lamley, Asholme, and Knaredale, in the said county of Northumberland, and making and maintaining in lieu thereof a railway, commencing at the said point or place marked C, in the said field belonging to the said James Hope Wallace, and terminating at the said point or place marked D, in the said field occupied by the said Ann Stephenson, and extending or passing to, from, in, through, or into, or to be made within the several parishes, townships, townlands, and extra-parochial places following, or some of them, that is to say, Haltwhistle, Featherstone, Lambley otherwise Lamley, Asholme, and Knaredale, all in the said county of Northumberland; and by abandoning so much of the said branch railway hereinbefore described, and by the said Act authorized to be made, as extends between a point or place marked E on the plans hereinafter referred to, in a field belonging to the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich Hospital, occupied by Rebecca Walton, situate in the township and parish of Alston-moor otherwise Alston otherwise Aldstone, in the county of Cumberland, and the western terminus of the said branch railway, in the chapelry of Nent Head, in the said parish of Alston-moor otherwise Alston otherwise Aldstone, in the said county of Cumberland, and by making and maintaining in lieu thereof a railway commencing at the said point or place marked E on the said plans, in the said field occupied by the said Rebecca Walton, and terminating at the point or place marked F on the said plans, in a field occupied by Jane Errington, and situate in the said township and parish of Alston-moor otherwise Alston otherwise Aldstone, and near to the bridge over the river Nent, which last-mentioned railway will extend or pass from, in, through, or into, or be made within the said parish or township of Alston-moor otherwise Alston otherwise Aldstone, in the said county of Cumberland. And it is intended by the said Act, to be applied for as aforesaid, to take powers to make and maintain a branch railway, with all necessary and convenient works connected therewith, to commence at or upon the line of substituted railway secondly above described, in a plantation belonging to and in the occupation of Thomas Whitfield, situate in the said township of Lambley otherwise Lamley, and near to the place where the last-mentioned railway will be carried across the river Tyne, and to terminate at or upon a part or point (marked X on the said plans) of a railway belonging to the Earl of Carlisle, situate at Haltonlea-gate, in the township of Hartley Burn, in the said parish of Haltwhistle, which last-mentioned branch railway and works will be made or pass to, from, through, into, or within the parishes, townships, townfields, or extra-parochial places of Haltwhistle, Lambley otherwise Lamley, Asholme, Bellister, and Hartley Burn, all in the said county of Northumberland, or some of them. And it is also intended to take powers to cross, divert, or alter all such roads, parish-roads, and other highways and railways within the townships, parishes, townlands, and extra-parochial places aforesaid, or any of them, as it may be necessary to cross, divert, or alter, for the purposes of the said works, and powers to purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, lands and houses, for the purposes aforesaid, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with such lands and houses, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction and maintenance of the said railways and works. And also to levy tolls, rates, and duties, for and in respect of the use of such substituted railways and branch railway, and is necessary to alter the tolls, rates, and duties, by the Acts relating to the said Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company, or any of them authorized to be levied. And also to extend the time limited by the said recited Act, for carrying the same into effect.—And it is intended by the said Act, so to be applied for as aforesaid, to alter, amend, enlarge, and repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company, passed respectively in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, in the second and fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and in the first, fifth, and tenth years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, or some of the said Acts. And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate maps or plans and sections, describing the lines or situations and levels of the said intended railways and works, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, and copies of the Gazette notice, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Northumberland, at his office in the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne; and, on or before the last-mentioned day, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cumberland, at his office in the city of Carlisle, in the said county of Cumberland. And a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said railways or works will be made or pass, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, with the respective parish clerks of the said parishes respectively, at their respective residences.—Dated the 6th day of November 1848.

York and North Midland Railway.

Deviation and Abandonment of part of the Authorized Lines of Railway between Market Weighton, and Beverley, and Copmanthorpe, and Tadcaster.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, and repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the York and North Midland Railway Company, passed respectively in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and in the first, fourth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, and to enable the said York and North Midland Railway Company, to deviate or alter part of their line of railway called the East Riding Branches, Number 1 Railway, authorized by "The York and North Midland (East Riding Branches), No. 1 Railway Act 1846;" and also to deviate or alter part of their line of railway called the Leeds Extension Railway, authorized by "The York and North Midland (Leeds Extension) Railway Act, 1846," and to make and maintain the railways, branch railways, and works following, or some of them, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith (that is to say), A railway commencing by a junction with the present authorized line of the said East Riding Branches, Number 1 Railway, at or near the East End of the Passenger Platform of the Market Weighton Passenger Station, in the township and parish of Market Weighton, in the East Riding of the county of York, belonging to, and in the occupation of the said York and North Midland Railway Company, thence passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial, or other places following, or some of them (that is to say), Market Weighton, Goodmanham, Etton, and Cherry Burton, all in the said East Riding of the county of York, and terminating by a junction with the present authorized line of the said East Riding Branches, No. 1 Railway, at or near a public highway leading from Etton to Cherry Burton aforesaid, in the township and parish of Cherry Burton aforesaid, and which highway is numbered 2 on the plans deposited, in November 1845, with the Clerks of the Peace for the North and East Ridings of the said county of York, and for the town or borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, and referred to by the said Act called "The York and North Midland (East Riding Branches) No. 1 Railway Act, 1846."

And a railway commencing at or near a field belonging to Colonel George Wyndham, and in the occupation of William Shillitoe, in the township of Tadcaster East, otherwise Tadcaster East Side, in the parish of Tadcaster, in the West Riding of the county of York (which field is numbered 30 on the plans deposited, in November 1845, with the Clerk of the Peace for the west riding of the county of York, and referred to by the said Act called "The York and North Midland (Leeds Extension) Railway Act 1846," thence passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them (that is to say), Tadcaster, Tadcaster East, otherwise Tadcaster East Side, Healaugh, Wighill, Catterton Bilbrough, Angram, Hutton Wansley, Askham Richard, Askham Bryan, Colton, Steeton, Oxton, Bolton Percy, Street Houses, Nun Appleton, Appleton Roebuck, Acaster Selby, Acaster Malbis, Copmanthorpe, Saint Mary Bishophill the Younger, and Bolton Percy, all in the West Riding of the said county of York, and terminating by a junction with the York and North Midland Railway, at or near where the same railway crosses the highway leading from Bolton Percy to Colton, in the township and parish of Bolton Percy aforesaid.

And it is also proposed by such Bill to enable the said York and North Midland Railway Company to abandon and relinquish the construction of the following portions of their lines of the said East Riding Branches, No. 1 Railway, and of the said Leeds Extension Railway, namely, so much of the said East Riding Branches, No. 1 Railway, as is authorized to be made by "The York and North Midland (East Riding Branches) No. 1 Railway Act 1846," and lies between the said East End of the said platform of the said Market Weighton Passenger Station, in the township and parish of Market Weighton aforesaid; and the said public highway leading from Etton to Cherry Burton, numbered 2 on the said first-mentioned plans, in the township and parish of Cherry Burton aforesaid, and so much of the said Leeds Extension Railway as is authorized by "The York and North Midland (Leeds Extension) Railway Act 1846" and lies between the said field (numbered 30 on the said plans referred to by the same Act), belonging to Colonel George Wynham, and in the occupation of William Shillitoe, in the said township of Tadcaster East otherwise Tadcaster East Side, in the parish of Tadcaster aforesaid, and the point where the same Leeds Extension Railway is authorized to join the said York and North Midland Railway, in the township of Copmanthorpe aforesaid, in the parish of Saint Mary Bishopill the Younger aforesaid, at or near a field in the same township and parish, numbered 6 on the same plans, belonging to Frederick Henry Wood, and in the occupation of John Nalton.

And in the same Bill it is intended to apply for powers to stop up, divert, or alter, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike roads, parish roads, and other highways, streams, canals, navigations, railways, and tramroads within the said parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to stop up, divert, or alter for the purposes of the said proposed railways and other works.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to take powers for the purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, of lands and houses for the purposes of the said intended railways and works, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands and houses, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said proposed railways and works, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges, and also to levy tolls, rates, and duties for or in respect of the use of the said intended railways and works, and to confer such exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties as may be thought expedient.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to extend the time by "The York and North Midland (East Riding Branches) No. 1 Railway Act 1846," limited for the compulsory purchase of the lands thereby authorized to be taken, and for the completion of the works thereby authorized to be made.

And notice is hereby further given, that maps, plans, and sections of the said intended railways and other works, together with books of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November in this present year, be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the East Riding of the said county of York, at his office in Beverley, in the same riding; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the said county of York, at his office in Wakefield, in the same riding; and that, on or before the same 30th day of November, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, with a book of reference thereto, as relates to each parish in or through which the said intended railways and works are proposed to be made; and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his place of abode; and in case of any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining such extra-parochial place, at his dwelling-house.

Dated this seventh day of November 1848.

Stockton and Darlington Railway.

(Alteration of Line in Egglecliffe and Stockton-upon-Tees.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Stockton and Darlington Railway, passed, respectively, in the sessions of Parliament held in the first and second, in the fourth, in the fifth, and in the ninth years of the reign of King George the Fourth; and to enable the Stockton and Darlington Railway Company to abandon a portion of their railway in the townships of Egglecliffe, Preston, and Stockton, and parishes of Egglecliffe and Stockton-upon-Tees, in the county of Durham, commencing at or near the east side of the Yarm Station of the said railway, in the said parish and township of Egglecliffe, and terminating at or near the three-quarters' mile post of the said railway, in the said township of Stockton and parish of Stockton-upon-Tees.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Company to make and maintain a new line of railway, in lieu of the portion of railway so proposed to be abandoned, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith; such new line of railway to commence by a junction with the Stockton and Darlington Railway, at or near the east side of the Yarm Station thereof, then passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Egglecliffe, Preston, Stockton, and Stockton-upon-Tees; in the said county of Durham, and terminating by a junction with the Stockton and Darlington Railway, at or near the said three-quarters' mile post of the said railway, in the said township of Stockton and parish of Stockton-upon-Tees, all in the said county of Durham.

And it is also intended by such Act to take powers to stop up, alter, or divert, either temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads and highways, railways, tramways, aqueducts, viaducts, canals, streams, and rivers within the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extraparochial or other places, or any of them, which it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert by reason of the construction of the said intended works, or any of them.

And it is further intended by such Act to enable the said company to purchase lands and houses for the purposes of the said intended new line of railway and works, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with such lands and houses, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said railway, and to confer other rights and privileges; and to enable the said company to levy tolls, rates, and duties for the use of the said intended railway and works, and to grant exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties.

And notice is hereby further given, that maps, plans, and sections of the said intended railway and works, and of the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and houses, and describing such lands and houses respectively; and a copy of this notice will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Durham, at his office in Durham, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes in, to, or through which the said railway and works are intended to be made and maintained; and a copy of this notice will be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the said thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, at his place of abode.

And it is also intended by the said Act or Acts to enable the said Stockton and Darlington Railway Company to raise a further sum of money for the purposes of the said intended railway and works, and for the general purposes of the said undertaking.—Dated this sixth day of November 1848.

Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway.
(Consolidation and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to consolidate into one Act all or some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament, or some of them, following, relating to the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, and to repeal such Acts, or otherwise to alter and amend the same, and to extend and enlarge the powers and provisions of such Acts respectively (that is to say), the several Acts relating to the Sheffield, Ashton-under-Lyne, and Manchester Railway, passed respectively in the sessions of Parliament held in the seventh year of the reign of King William the Fourth, the fifth and sixth, the sixth and seventh, the seventh and eighth, and the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty; the several Acts relating to the Great Grimsby and Sheffield Junction Railway, passed respectively in the sessions of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth and the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her said present Majesty; the several Acts relating to the Grimsby Haven Company, passed respectively in the sessions of Parliament held in the thirty-sixth and the thirty-ninth years of the reign of King George the Third, and the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth; the Act relating to the Grimsby Docks, passed in the said session held in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her said present Majesty; the Act passed in the said session held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, authorizing the construction of the Sheffield and Lincolnshire Junction Railway; the Act passed in the same session authorizing the construction of the Sheffield and Lincolnshire Extension Railway; the several Acts relating to the Company of Proprietors of the Peak Forest Canal, passed respectively in the sessions of Parliament held in the thirty-fourth, the thirty-ninth and fortieth, and the forty-fifth years of the reign of King George the Third; the Act relating to the Company of Proprietors of the Macclesfield Canal, passed in the seventh year of the reign of King George the Fourth; the Act passed in the said session held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, for vesting in the said Sheffield, Ashton-under-Lyne, and Manchester Railway Company the said Peak Forest and Macclesfield Canals; the Act passed in the same session for the amalgamation of the said Sheffield, Ashton-under-Lyne, and Manchester, Sheffield and Lincolnshire Junction, Sheffield and Lincolnshire Extension, and Great Grimsby and Sheffield Junction Railway Companies, and the said Grimsby Dock Company, under the name or title of "The Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company;" the Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of King George the Third, relating to the Canal Navigation from Chesterfield to the river of Trent; the several Acts passed in the sessions of Parliament held respectively in the ninth and tenth and the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, relating to the Manchester and Lincoln Union Railway and Chesterfield and Gainsborough Canal; the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, incorporating the Manchester and Lincoln Union Railway and Chesterfield and Gainsborough Canal Company with the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company; the several Acts passed in the session of of Parliament held in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, and in the last session of Parliament, relating to the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company; the several Acts relating to the Company of Proprietors of the Canal Navigation from Manchester to or near Ashton-under-Lyne and Oldham, passed respectively in the sessions of Parliament held in the thirty-second, the thirty-third, the thirty-eighth, the thirty-ninth and fortieth, and the forty-fifth years of the reign of King George the Third; the Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for vesting in the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company the said last-mentioned Canal Navigation; the Act relating to the Company of Proprietors of the Sheffield Canal, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third; and the Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for vesting in the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company the said Sheffield Canal.

And also to alter and amend, so far as the same respectively relate to the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, the several Acts of Parliament following (that is to say), the several Acts relating to the Manchester, South Junction, and Altrincham Railway Company, passed respectively in the sessions of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth and the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, and in the last session of Parliament; the Act relating to the Manchester, Buxton, Matlock, and Midlands Junction Railway Company, passed in the session of Parliament held in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her said present Majesty; the several Acts relating to the Manchester and Birmingham Railway Company, passed in the sessions of Parliament held in the first and the second and third years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, and the Act to consolidate the London and Birmingham, Grand Junction, and Manchester and Birmingham Railway Companies, passed in the session of Parliament held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her said present Majesty.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to dissolve, if need be, the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, and to incorporate a new company in lieu thereof, and for the various purposes thereof, and to vest in such new company all the railways, docks, ferries, canals, reservoirs, and other works, and shares, and interests in railways, docks, ferries, canals, reservoirs, and other works, and all the lands, property, capital, stock, shares, estate and effects of or belonging to the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, and all the rights, powers, privileges, and authorities vested in and exercised or enjoyed by the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company; and to enable such new company to levy tolls, rates, and duties for, or in respect of, the railways, docks, ferries, canals, reservoirs, and works vested in or belonging to the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company; and to alter, vary, and increase the tolls, rates, and duties payable and authorized to be taken for or in respect of the said railways, docks, ferries, canals, reservoirs, and works; and to enable the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, or, as the case may be, such new company, to levy other and additional tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of any such tolls, rates, and duties, and also other rights and privileges.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act, to confer on the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, or, as the case may be, on the new company to be incorporated under the provisions of the said intended Act, further and more efficient powers than those at present possessed by the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, in reference to the construction, maintenance, regulation, and management of the several undertakings of the said Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, and to the regulation of their capital, and the creation, division, and distribution of shares in the said company, and the payment of interest and dividends, in respect of shares therein, and the conversion of shares therein into stock.—Dated this ninth day of November 1848.

Borough of Birmingham.

(To exempt the Borough of Birmingham from all Contributions towards any Expenses incurred, or to be incurred, by the county of Warwick, and payable out of the County Rates, for purposes in the immediate benefits of which the said Borough does not participate, or which, so far as the interests of the said Borough are involved, are adequately provided for by and at the separate Expense of the said Borough.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an act to exempt the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, from all liability to be charged with any share or proportion of any expenses incurred, or to be incurred, by the said county of Warwick; and payable out of the county rates, for purposes solely for the benefit and advantage of the said county, or which, so far as the interests of the said borough are involved, are otherwise provided for by and at the separate expense of the said borough; and for better settling and defining the proportion (if any) of the charges and expenses to be contributed by the said borough of Birmingham for and towards any of the objects and purposes to which the county rates of the said county of Warwick are applicable; or which the said borough may be liable to be charged with under or by virtue of the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament following, or any of them, that is to say—an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales;" an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning prisons;" an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to annex the county of the city of Coventry to Warwickshire, and to define the boundary of the city of Coventry;" and an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the appointment and payment of parish constables;" or under or by virtue of any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to alter, vary, and extend, as far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, the provisions of the aforesaid Acts, and of the Charter of Incorporation of the borough of Birmingham, and to enable the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said borough to charge the borough fund of the said borough with the expenses of the said intended Act, and to vary or extinguish all rights or privileges which would in any manner interfere with the objects aforesaid.—Dated the third day of November 1848.

Forest of Dean and South Wales Railways.

(Amendment of Acts as to Charges on Forest of Dean Railway and Branches.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, repeal, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, relating to the Forest of Dean Railway, otherwise called the Bulko Pill Railway, or some of them (that is to say), the 49 George III., cap. 158, and 7 George IV., cap. 47; and also of the several Acts following, relating to or affecting the South Wales Railway Company (that is to say), the South Wales Railway Act, 1845; the South Wales Railway (Amendment) Act, 1846; the South Wales Railway (Amendment) Act, 1847; and to alter, amend, and explain the provisions of the said South Wales Railway Amendment Act, 1847, relating to the maximum rate of charge to be made by the South Wales Railway Company, or by the Forest of Dean Railway Company, in respect of or incidental to the conveyance, upon the Forest of Dean Railway, and the branches thereof; or upon the railways by the last-mentioned Act authorized to be constructed in lieu of portions of the said Forest of Dean Railway, or either of them, of coals and other articles therein mentioned; and also to alter, amend, and explain the provisions of the said South Wales Railway Amendment Act, 1847, relating to the finding and providing of locomotive power upon the said last-mentioned railways; and to alter and extend the period from which such several provisions as aforesaid shall take effect.—Dated the thirteenth day of November 1848.

Great Western Railway.

(Branch from the Windsor Line of the Great Western Railway to the Windsor, Staines, and South Western Railway, at Datchet.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to authorize the construction and maintenance by the Great Western Railway Company of a railway or railways, with all proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, commencing at two points on the Windsor Line of the Great Western Railway as authorized to be made by the Great Western Railway (Slough and Windsor) Act, 1848, one of such points being in or near a close, numbered 40, in the parish of Upton-cum-Chalvey, in the county of Buckingham, on the plans of the said Slough and Windsor Line, deposited in the month of November 1847, with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Buckingham, and the other of such points being in or near a close, numbered 42, in the said parish of Upton-cum-Chalvey, on the said plans, passing from, in, through, or into, or being situate within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them, that is to say, Upton-cum-Chalvey and Datchet, in the said county of Buckingham, and terminating at or near the present station of the Richmond and Windsor Line of the Windsor, Staines, and South Western Railway, in the parish of Datchet, in the said county of Buckingham, by a junction with such last-mentioned railway.

And it is also intended by such Act to take power to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads and highways, railways, tramways, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers, within or adjoining to the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places, or any of them, which it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert, by reason of the construction of the said intended railway or railways and works, or any of them.

And it is also intended by such Act to take powers for the purchase of lands and houses, by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes of the said intended railway or railways and works.

And it is also intended by such Act to vary, repeal, or extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with the lands and houses proposed or required to be purchased or taken, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended railway or railways and works, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended by such Act to take powers for levying tolls, rates, and duties, in respect of the use of the said intended railway or railways and works, and to grant exemptions from such tolls, rates, and duties.

And it is also intended by such Act to enable the Great Western Railway Company to raise additional capital for the purposes of the said intended undertaking.

And it is also intended by such Act to take powers to enable the Great Western Railway Company, and the Windsor, Staines, and South Western (Richmond to Windsor) Railway Company, and their successors or assigns, to make and enter into such mutual contracts and agreements as may be deemed expedient with reference to the use by the said last-mentioned company, their successors or assigns, of all or any part of the railway from Slough to Windsor, belonging to the Great Western Railway Company, and of all or any part of the said intended railway or railways, and of the stations and other works and conveniences connected therewith respectively.

And notice is hereby also given, that maps, plans, and sections, describing the directions, lines, and levels of the said intended railway or railways and works, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands proposed to be taken for such railway or railways and works, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette will be deposited, on or before the 30th day of November in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Buckingham, at his office in Aylesbury; and that, on or before the same date, so much of the said maps or plans, sections and books of reference, as relates to each of the several parishes in or through which the said proposed railway or railways and works are intended to be made, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively, at their respective residences.

And it is also intended by such Act to alter, amend, and enlarge, and to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts herein-after mentioned, or some of them, relating to the Great Western Railway Company, which Acts, (local and personal) are distinguished in the Queen's printers' copies thereof as the 5 and 6 William IV. chapter 107; 6 William IV. chapters 36, 38, 77, 79; 1 Victoria, chapters 91, 92, 24, and 26; 2 Victoria, chapter 27; 3 Victoria, chapter 47; 3 and 4 Victoria, chapter 105; 4 and 5 Victoria, chapter 41; 5 Victoria, session 2, chapter 28; 6 Victoria, chapter 10; 7 Victoria, chapter 3; 7 and 8 Victoria, chapter 68; 8 and 9 Victoria, chapters 40, 53, 155, 156, 184, 188, 190, 191; 9 Victoria, chapter 14; 9 and 10 Victoria, chapters 166, 181, 236, 239, 240, 278, 313, 315, 335, 337, 338, 369, and 402; 10 and 11 Victoria, chapters 60, 72, 76, 91, 101, 109, 149, 154, 226, and 243; 11 and 12 Victoria, chapters 28, 59, 74, 77, 82, 95, 131, 133, 135, 158, 159; and of the Acts following, or some of them, affecting the Windsor, Staines, and South Western (Richmond to Windsor) Railway Company, that is to say, the Windsor, Staines, and South Western Railway Act, No. 1, 1847; the Windsor, Staines, and South Western Railway Act, No. 2, 1847; the Windsor and South Western Railway Deviations Act, 1848; and of the several Acts relating to the London and South Western Railway, or some of them, as follows, that is to say, local and personal Acts, 4 and 5 William IV. chapter 88; 1 Victoria, chapter 71; 2 Victoria, chapter 28; 4 and 5 Victoria, chapters 1, 39; 7 and 8 Victoria, chapters 63, 86; 8 and 9 Victoria, chapters 165, 185; 9 and 10 Victoria, chapters 252, 131, 174, 175, 370, 173, 391; 10 and 11 Victoria, chapters 88, 115, 145, 249, 244; 11 and 12 Victoria, chapters 85, 87, 89, 125; 51 George III. chapter 196; 10 and 11 Victoria, chapter 296; 8 and 9 Victoria, chapter 93; 10 and 11 Victoria, chapters 97, 96, 58, 57; 11 and 12 Victoria, chapter 75; 9 and 10 Victoria, chapter 129; 10 and 11 Victoria, chapter 243; 11 and 12 Victoria, chapter 157.

Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway Acts Amendment; Branches and Deviations.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of "The Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway Act, 1846;" "The Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway (Amendment and Branches) Act, 1847;" and "The Shrewsbury, Wolverhampton, and South Staffordshire Junction Railway Act, 1846." And in such intended Act powers will be applied for to enable the Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway Company to abandon the formation of so much of the Coalbrookdale Branch of the said railway as authorized to be constructed by the said Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway Act, 1846, as is situate between the junction of such branch with the main line of the said railway, as authorized to be made in the parish of Shifnal and county of Salop, and the junction of the said branch, with a certain other branch railway (hereinafter called or referred to as the Shifnal and Madeley Branch of the said Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway), in the parish of Dawley Magna, in the county of Salop.

And also to enable the said company to abandon the formation of so much of the said Shifnal and Madeley Branch of the Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway (which said Shifnal and Madeley Branch is one of two branch railways authorized to be constructed by the Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway (Amendment and Branches) Act, 1847, and is thereby authorized to commence by a junction with the main line of the said Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway as authorized to be made in the parish of Shifnal, and county of Salop, and to terminate by a junction with the said Coalbrookdale Branch of the said railway, in the parish of Dawley Magna aforesaid, in the said county of Salop) as is situate between such commencement of the said Shifnal and Madeley Branch and the western side of a certain field in the parish of Madeley and county of Salop, and distinguished on the plans of the said Shifnal and Madeley Branch referred to in the said Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway (Amendment and Branches) Act, 1847, by the number 27.

And also to enable the said company to make and maintain a railway or branch railway, with proper works, stations, and other conveniences connected therewith and approaches thereto, commencing in the said parish of Shifnal and county of Salop, by means of two junctions with the main line of the Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway, as authorized to be made (one of such junctions to be situate near to the point in that parish where the said main line intersects a certain road leading from Prior's Lee Turnpike Gate to the Naird, and the other about four furlongs to the westward thereof), and passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Shifnal parish, Shifnal township, Shifnal, Prior's Lee, St. Andrew's Prior's Lee, Malin's Lee, St. Leonard's Malin's Lee, Shaw and Wyke, the Naird, the Hem, Blythbury, Homer, the Brands, Woodhouse, Haughton, the Manor, Aston, Woodside and Lizard, Evelith, Hinnington, Upton, Stanton, Stirchley otherwise Sturchley, Dawley Magna parish, Dawley Magna township, Dawley, Dawley Parva, Kemberton parish, Kemberton township, Kemberton, Brockton, Sutton otherwise Sutton Maddock, and Madeley, or some of them, all in the said county of Salop, and terminating in the said parish of Madeley, in the county of Salop, by a junction there with the said Shifnal and Madeley Branch hereinbefore referred to, at or near the said field, in the said parish of Madeley, distinguished on the plans of the said Shifnal and Madeley Branch, hereinbefore referred to, by the number 27.

And also to enable the said company to abandon the formation of so much of a certain line of railway authorized to be constructed by the Shrewsbury, Wolverhampton, and South Staffordshire Junction Railway Act, 1846, and by the Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway Act, 1846, or one of them, as is situate between the west side of a road, in the parish of Tettenhall, in the county of Stafford, and distinguished on the plans referred to in the Shrewsbury, Wolverhampton, and South Staffordshire Junction Railway Act, 1846, by the number 30, and a certain field situate in the township and parish of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, and distinguished on the said last mentioned plans by the number 20; and to enable the said company to make and maintain, in lieu thereof, a branch railway, with all proper works, stations, and conveniences connected therewith and approaches thereto, commencing by a junction with the main line of the Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway, as authorized to be made in the said township and parish of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, in or near to a certain field distinguished on the plans referred to by the Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway Act, 1846, by the number 7, and passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Wolverhampton parish, Wolverhampton township, Wolverhampton, St. Peter, St. Mary, St. Mark, and St. James, Wolverhampton, or some of them, all in the county of Stafford, and terminating in the said township and parish of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, at or near to a certain field distinguished on the plans referred to in the Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway Act, 1846, by the number 18.

And also to enable the said company to make a navigable canal, commencing by a junction with the Birmingham Canal, at or near a certain bridge over the said Birmingham Canal, at or near the end of Railway-street, in the township and parish of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, and terminating by another junction with the said Birmingham Canal, at or near a certain timber yard or wharf, in the occupation of Edward Dawes, and being wholly situate in the same last-mentioned township, parish, and county, in substitution of so much of the said Birmingham Canal as is situate between the same points (which last-mentioned portion of the said canal is to be stopped up and abandoned); and the said proposed substituted canal is to be vested in the Company of Proprietors of the Birmingham Canal Navigations, in lieu of the portion of the said Birmingham Canal to be so stopped up and abandoned as aforesaid, with power to the said Company of Proprietors to levy and collect tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use of the said substituted canal, and to exercise all such powers, rights, and authorities over the same as they are now authorized to do over that portion of their canal for which the same is to be substituted; and for the above purposes to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the "Birmingham Canal Navigations" (that is to say), local and personal Acts, 5 William IV, chapter 34; 2 and 3 Victoria, chapter 61; 3 and 4 Victoria, chapters 24 and 56; 7 and 8 Victoria, chapter 11; 9 and 10 Victoria, chapter 269; and an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect certain arrangements between the London and Birmingham Railway Company, and the 'Company of Proprietors of the Birmingham Canal Navigations,'" and for granting certain powers to the said respective Companies.

And also to enable the said Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway Company, and the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley Railway Company, to make and carry into effect certain arrangements and agreements for the formation, maintenance, and future management of a station at or to the town of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, for the use and accommodation of the said respective companies; and for the above purposes to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley Railway Act, 1846, Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Dudley Lines, and the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, and Stour Valley Railway Act, 1847 (No. 1), Smethwick Deviation, and of the Portobello and Wolverhampton Railway Act, 1847.

And also to empower the said Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway Company, and the Shropshire Union Railways and Canal Company, the Shrewsbury and Chester Railway Company, and the Shrewsbury and Hereford Railway Company, to make and carry into effect certain arrangements and agreements for the formation, maintenance, and future management of a station at or near to the town of Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop, for the use and accommodation of the said respective companies; and to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the following Acts (that is to say), local and personal Acts, seventh and eighth Victoria, chapter 99; 8th and 9th Victoria, chapters 42 and 115; 9th and 10th Victoria, chapters 322, 323, 324, 250, 251, 274, 275, 325; and 10th and 11th Victoria, chapters 121 and 144.

And also to enable the said Shrewsbury and Birmingham Railway Company to subscribe or contribute, out of the general capital of the company, towards the formation of the Shrewsbury and Hereford Railway.

And in such intended Act power will also be applied for to deviate from the line or lines laid down on the plans hereinafter mentioned to the extent thereon defined, and to divert, stop up, or alter, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike roads, highways, railways, tramroads, streets, paths, passages, aqueducts, canals, navigations, streams, rivers, and watercourses within the places aforesaid, as it may be necessary or expedient so to divert, alter, or stop up for the purposes of the said railways, navigable canal, works, stations, approaches, and conveniences.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power by the said intended Act to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the said lines of railway and canal hereinbefore described respectively, and to grant certain exemptions from such tolls, rates, or duties; and also to apply for the powers usually conferred for the compulsory purchase of the lands, houses, and hereditaments to be described upon the plans hereinafter mentioned; and for power to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges touching such lands, houses, and hereditaments which may in any manner interfere with the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said intended railways, navigable canal, and works hereinbefore described, and of the lands, houses, and hereditaments which may be required for the purposes thereof, with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, houses, and hereditaments, together with a published map, shewing the general direction of the said intended railways, together with a copy of this notice, will, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Salop at Shrewsbury, and at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford at Stafford; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes from, in, through, or into which the said intended works, or any of them respectively, will be made or pass, together with a copy of this notice, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the same thirtieth day of November, with the parish clerk of each such parish, at the respective residence of each such parish clerk.—Dated this 6th day of November 1848.

Birkenhead, Lancashire, and Cheshire Junction Railway.

(Abandonment of Part of Line; Extension to London and North Western Railway; Alteration of Levels of Chester Branch, and of Mode of Crossing Canning-street, in Birkenhead; Extension of Time for Purchase of Lands; Alteration of Tolls; and Decrease of Capital and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, and to repeal some of the powers, restrictions, and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Birkenhead, Lancashire, and Cheshire Junction Railway (that is to say), local and personal, 1st Victoria, cap. 107; 3rd Victoria, cap. 2; 8th and 9th Victoria, cap. 99; 9th and 10th Victoria, cap. 91; 10th and 11th Victoria, caps. 222 and 223; and to authorize the Birkenhead, Lancashire, and Cheshire Junction Railway Company to abandon the formation of so much of the main line of the railway authorized to be made by the said Act of the 9th and 10th of Victoria, as lies between a point situate in a field numbered 115, in the township of Norton and parish of Runcorn, in the county of Chester, on the plans of the said railway referred to in the said Act, and the termination of the said main line, in the township of Heaton Norris, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and also to abandon the formation of the branch railway authorized by the said Act, commencing in the township of Altrincham and parish of Bowden, and terminating by a junction with the Manchester South Junction and Altrincham Railway, in the township of Timperley and parish of Bowden, all in the said county of Chester, being the railway in the said Act of the 9th and 10th of Victoria, secondly described; and also to abandon the formation of the branch railway authorized by the said Act, commencing in the town of Warrington, and terminating by a junction with the Grand Junction Railway, in the township and parish of Warrington, all in the county of Lancaster, being the railway in the said Act of the 9th and 10th of Victoria, lastly described.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Birkenhead, Lancashire, and Cheshire Junction Railway Company to make a railway, to commence by a junction with the said main line of their railway, in the said field numbered 115, in the said township of Norton and parish of Runcorn, and thence passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Kekewick, Norton, and Runcorn, and to terminate by a junction with the line of the London and North Western Railway, at or near Kekewick, in the township of Kekewick and parish of Runcorn, all in the said county of Chester.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Birkenhead, Lancashire, and Cheshire Junction Railway Company to alter the levels of so much of the Chester Branch of the said railway as authorized by the said Act of the 10 and 11th Victoria, cap. 223, as lies between a field numbered 73, in the township of Hoole and parish of Saint John the Baptist, on the plans of the said branch referred to in the said last-mentioned Act, and a field numbered 43, in the township of Helsby and parish of Frodsham, on the said plans, which portion of railway will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Saint John the Baptist, Hoole, Saint Oswald, Great Boughton, Plemstall otherwise P' emondstall, Guilden Sutton, Mickle Trafford, Barrow, Bridge Trafford, Thornton otherwise Thornton-in-the-Moors, Dunham-on-the-Hill, Hapsford, Frodsham, and Helsby, all in the said county of Chester.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said company to alter the mode of carrying the railway authorized by the said Act of the 8th and 9th Victoria, cap. 99, across a certain road in the extra-parochial chapelry or township of Birkenhead, in the said county of Chester, known as the Corporation-road or Canning-street, so as to carry the said road across the said railway upon the level thereof, instead of by means of a bridge, and for such purpose to alter the existing level of the said road, within the said extra-parochial chapelry or township of Birkenhead.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to extend the time granted by the said Act of the 9th and 10th of Victoria, for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Eastham, Childer Thornton, Little Sutton, Overpool, Whitby, Stoke, Great Stanney, Stanlow, Ince, Thornton-in-the-Moors otherwise Thornton, Elton, Hapsford, Frodsham, Helsby, and Lordship of Frodsham, in the said county of Chester, and for the completion of the works therein.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to reduce the capital of the said company, and to make regulations as regards the division thereof into shares, and the payment of dividends or interest thereon.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to take power to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike and other roads and highways, railways, tramways, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers, within the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places, or any of them, as it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert, by reason of the construction of the said railway and works, or any or either of them.

And it is also intended by the said Act to take powers for the purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, of lands and houses for the purposes of the said intended railway and works, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands and houses, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said intended railway and works, or any or either of them; and to confer other rights and privileges; and also to levy tolls, rates, and duties, for or in respect of the use of the said intended railway and works, and to alter the tolls, rates, and duties, at present leviable upon the Birkenhead, Lancashire, and Cheshire Junction Railway, and to confer such exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties, or any of them, as may be thought expedient.

And notice is hereby further given, that maps, plans, and sections of the said intended railway and works, and of the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, and also amended sections of the Chester Branch, showing the levels thereof as proposed to be altered, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners, lessees, and occupiers of such lands and houses, and describing such lands and houses respectively, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, at his office in Chester, and that a copy of so much of the said plans and sections and book of reference, as relates to the several parishes in or through which the intended railway and works, and alterations of section, are proposed to be made, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the said thirtieth day of November, be deposited with the parish clerks of those parishes, at their respective places of abode, (and as regards the extra-parochial place of Birkenhead, with the clerk of the parish of Bidston, in the said county of Chester, immediately adjoining to such extra-parochial place).

Dated the fourth day of November 1848.

Wisbech, Chatteris, Tidgote, and Downham
Bridge Turnpike.

(Continuation of Act; Alteration of Provisions relating to repair of Waldersey and South Side Banks; Abandonment as Turnpike of Road over same; Construction of new Turnpike Road.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to continue or otherwise to repeal and re-enact for a further term of years, but subject to certain alterations and amendments, the provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repairing the road leading from Chatteris Ferry, through Chatteris and March, to Wisbech Saint Peters, and from thence to Tidgote, in the Isle of Ely, and from Wisbech aforesaid, through Outwell, to Downham Bridge, in the county of Norfolk."

And it is intended by the said proposed Act to repeal certain parts of the said existing Act, and especially so much thereof as relates to the repairs of "Waldersey Bank" and the "South Side Bank," and to make other provisions in lieu thereof, and further to alter and amend the said Act.

And it is also intended by the said proposed Act to confer powers upon the trustees to be appointed for carrying into effect the provisions thereof to make and maintain a turnpike road, with all proper toll-houses, toll-gates, toll-bars, and other works and conveniences connected therewith, diverging from or out of the existing turnpike road leading from Chatteris Ferry to Wisbech aforesaid, at or near the town of March, in the hamlet of March and parish of Doddington, in the Isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge, and passing thence through or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places following, or some of them (that is to say), March, Doddington, and Elm, in the said Isle of Ely and county of Cambridge, and Emaneth, in the county of Norfolk, and terminating by a junction with the existing turnpike road from Wisbech to Downham Bridge aforesaid, at or near a certain bridge over the Wisbech Canal, commonly called "Elm Bridge," but situate in the parish of Emneth aforesaid, in the said county of Norfolk.

And it is also intended by the said proposed Act, in the event of power being granted for making the said proposed turnpike road, to authorize the abandonment as turnpike of so much of the said existing turnpike-road leading from Chatteris Ferry to Wisbech as lies between the point at which the said intended turnpike road will diverge from the said existing turnpike road, at March aforesaid, and the Great Bridge, in the town of Wisbech, or some part or parts of so much as aforesaid of the said existing turnpike road.

And it is also intended by the said proposed Act to confer powers upon the said trustees for the compulsory purchase of all such lands and houses as may be necessary or required for the purposes of the said intended turnpike road, and for appropriating and making turnpike the highway commonly called or known by the name of "The Wisbech and March Low Road," and all other highways which it may be necessary or expedient so to appropriate and make turnpike for the purposes and as parts or part of the said intended turnpike road, and for stopping up or diverting, temporarily or permanently, all highways, roads, cuts, canals, drains, waters, or watercourses, which it may be necessary so to stop up or divert for the purposes of making or maintaining the said intended turnpike road.

And it is further intended by such proposed Act to extinguish all rights of putting up gates across the said Wisbech and March Low Road, or so much thereof as may be made turnpike under the authority of the said intended Act, and to remove all existing gates across the said road, or so much thereof as aforesaid, and to vary or extinguish all other existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with the lands or houses which may be purchased or taken under the powers of such Act, or with the said Wisbech and March Low Road, and all other rights or privileges which would impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended turnpike road, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended by the said proposed Act to confer power upon the said trustees to levy tolls upon or in respect of as well the said intended turnpike road as all other turnpike roads, and every part thereof respectively which shall be vested in them, or subject to their control under the provisions of such Act, and to vary the existing tolls upon such roads, or any of them, and to authorize the said trustees to raise money upon the credit of such tolls, and to authorize the levying of other tolls or rates, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls or rates.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the said intended turnpike road, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the actual or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of the lands and houses which will or may be required for the purposes of such intended turnpike road, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace of the Isle of Ely, at his office at Wisbech Saint Peter's aforesaid, and with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Cambridge, at his office at Cambridge, in the said county of Cambridge, and with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Norfolk, at his office at Aylsham, in the said county of Norfolk, on or before the thirtieth day of November next; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes and extra-parochial places through or into which the said intended turnpike road will pass or be situate, together with a copy of the said notice, will, on or before the said thirtieth day of November, be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his residence, and as regards extra-parochial places with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining to each such extra-parochial place, at his residence.—Dated the thirtieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

Edwd. Jackson, Wisbech.

Marshland Smeeth and Fen.

(Equalization of Drainage Rates, and Repair of Roads.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter the mode of assessing the drainage rates leviable under the powers of an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King

George the Third, intituled "An Act for draining and improving, and for inclosing, dividing, and allotting certain tracts of common and waste lands, called Marshland Smeeth and Marshland Fen, lying within the country of Marshland, in the county of Norfolk; and for stinting and regulating the stocking, feeding, and depasturing of the said Smeeth and Fen until the inclosure division and allotment thereof," within the district to which the provisions of the said Act apply, with a view to equalizing the burden of such rates; and to authorize the Commissioners of Drainage, appointed under the provisions of the said Act, to assess such rates at a sum per acre, instead of at a sum upon every allotment made by virtue of the said Act, and to levy the rates so assessed, and to increase, vary, or otherwise alter the said rates.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to form the lands in the said Smeeth and Fen, and in Well Moor, Broad Fen, and Short Fen, in the said Act mentioned, and now drained with the said Smeeth and Fen, and all other places comprized within the limits of the said drainage district, into a district for the repair of all the roads situate within the said limits, which the persons entitled to allotments under the said Act were, by the award made in pursuance thereof, required or directed to repair, and also the gravel bank from Tilney-bridge to Lord's-bridge; and to authorise the said Commissioners to levy rates or taxes upon such allotments, and upon the said lands in Well Moor, Broad Fen, and Short Fen, or upon the owners, lessees, or occupiers thereof, respectively, in respect thereof; and to raise money upon the credit of such rates or taxes for the repair of such roads.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to exempt all such allotments aforesaid, and the said lands in Well Moor, Broad Fen, and Short Fen, and the said roads, or the owners, lessees, and occupiers thereof, respectively, in respect thereof, from the payment of the ordinary parochial highway rates in the several parishes, townships, or places where such allotments and lands respectively are respectively situate, or from otherwise contributing towards or being liable for the repair of public highways situate in such parishes, townships, or places, or any of them, beyond the limits of the said district.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act, further and otherwise, to alter existing rates and taxes within the parishes, townships, places, and district aforesaid, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of rates and taxes, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to repeal, alter, or amend such of the provisions of the said existing Act as it may be necessary or expedient so to repeal, alter, or amend for the purposes of the said intended Act.—Dated this fourth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

Edwd. Jackson, Wisbech.

Stockton and Darlington Railway.

(Lease of Line to the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company, and Amalgamation of the two Undertakings.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Stockton and Darlington Railway, passed respectively in the sessions of Parliament held in the first and second, the fourth, the fifth, and the ninth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George IV, and of the several Acts relating to the York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway, passed respectively in the sessions of Parliament held in the fifth, sixth, seventh, ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And it is intended by the said Act, so to be applied for, to enable the Stockton and Darlington Railway Company to demise or lease for any term or number of years to the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company, the said Stockton and Darlington Railway, and all the branch railways, stations, houses, warehouses, buildings, works, lands, and hereditaments connected therewith, or thereunto belonging; and all the estate, right, title, interest, conveniences, and things in, about, or appertaining thereto or connected therewith; and all other the property and effects, and all the powers and privileges now vested in them the said Stockton and Darlington Railway Company, or which may become vested in them by any Act to be passed in the next session of Parliament, and to enable the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company to enter into and accept such lease of the said Stockton and Darlington Railway, and of the said railway branches, works, property, and effects, and to exercise all the powers and privileges now vested in the said Stockton and Darlington Railway Company, and to consolidate and unite the said last-mentioned railway branches and works with the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway, and to enable the said York, Newcastle, and Berwick Railway Company to levy and receive tolls, rates, and duties on or in respect of the said Stockton and Darlington Railway, and on or in respect of the said branches and works respectively, and to exercise all or any of the rights and privileges relating thereto, and if necessary to alter, vary, and increase the tolls, rates, and duties now payable on the same respectively, and to grant exemptions from the payment of such respective tolls, rates and duties, and to alter, amend, enlarge, and extend or repeal some of the powers and provisions of the before-mentioned Acts relating to the said Stockton and Darlington Railway.—Dated this sixth day of November 1848.

Mewburn, Hutchinson, and Mewburn, Solicitors for the Bill.

Stockton and Darlington Railway.
(Consolidation of Acts. Increase of Capital, and Purchase of the Middlesbrough Dock.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Stockton and Darlington Railway, passed respectively in the sessions of Parliament held in the first and second, in the fourth, in the fifth, and in the ninth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, or to consolidate the provisions of such several Acts, or some of them, into one Act, or otherwise to repeal the provisions of the said Acts, and to obtain other powers and provisions in lieu thereof; and it is proposed by the said intended Act to enable the Stockton and Darlington Railway Company to increase their capital, and raise a further sum of money for the purchase, by the said Company, as after mentioned, of the Middlesbrough Dock, and for other purposes relating to the said Company; and to alter, vary, and regulate the tolls and charges payable to the said Company, for the use of the railways and works belonging to them; and it is also proposed by the said intended Act to enable the said Company to contract and agree with the owners of a certain dock, and the approaches, ways, works, and conveniences connected therewith, situated at Middlesbrough, in the north riding of the county of York, and known as "The Middlesbrough Dock," for the purchase of and to purchase the said dock, approaches, ways, works, and conveniences at and for such price or consideration as has been or may be agreed upon between the said parties respectively; and it is proposed by the said intended Act to make provision for the management and regulation of the said dock, approaches, ways, works, and conveniences when purchased, and for the demanding, levying, and recovering of rates, tolls, and charges for the use thereof; and also for altering, varying, or extinguishing all such rights and privileges connected with the said dock, approaches, ways, works, and conveniences as would or might impede or interfere with the exercise of the powers before referred to, and to grant other rights and privileges. Dated this sixth day of November 1848.

Eastern Counties and Norfolk Railways Amalgamation.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to authorize and empower the union and consolidation into one undertaking of the Eastern Counties Railway and the Norfolk Railway, and the respective capital, stock, shares, property, and effects of the Eastern Counties Railway Company and the Norfolk Railway Company, and the vesting in and transferring to one company of all the capital, stock, shares, property, and effects, powers and privileges, contracts, liabilities, and obligations now vested in the said two companies or either of them, or to which the said two companies or either of them are now subject and liable, and if need be to incorporate a new company for the purposes aforesaid. And it is intended by such Act to alter, amend, extend, enlarge, repeal, or consolidate the powers and provisions contained in the several Acts relating to the Eastern Counties and Norfolk Railway Companies respectively (that is to say), the following Acts relating to the Eastern Counties Railway Company local and personal Acts, 6 & 7 Will. IV., cap. 106; 1 & 2 Vic., cap. 81; 4 Vic., cap. 14; 7 Vic., cap. 20; 7 & 8 Vic., cap. 62; 8 & 9 Vic., caps. 110 and 201; 9 & 10 Vic., caps. 258 & 367; 6 & 7 Will. IV., cap. 103; 2 & 3 Vic., caps. 77 & 78; 3 Vic., cap. 52; 4 Vic., cap. 24; 4 & 5 Vic., cap. 42; 6 Vic., cap. 28; 7 Vic., cap. 35; 10 & 11 Vic., caps. 92, 156, 157, 158, and 235; and the following Acts relating to the said Norfolk Railway Company (that is to say), local and personal Acts, 5 & 6 Vic., cap. 82; 7 & 8 Vic., caps. 4 and 15; 8 & 9 Vic., caps. 41, 45, and 154; 9 & 10 Vic., caps. 132 and 169; 10 & 11 Vic., caps. 64, 94, 98, and 99; and 11 & 12 Vic., cap. 3). And it is also intended by such Act to enable such amalgamated or new company to levy the tolls, rates, and duties which the said companies, or either of them, are now authorized to levy, and to alter such tolls, rates, or duties, or any of them, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemption from payments of tolls, rates, or duties, and other rights and privileges.

Dated this seventh day of November 1848.
