

East Indian Railway Company for making and maintaining one or more Railways in the East Indies.

(Incorporation.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate a company, commonly called or known by the name of "The East Indian Railway Company," established for the purpose of making, constructing, working, and maintaining one or more railways in the East Indies, with all necessary and convenient extensions, branches, and works, and to enable the said Company to obtain and acquire all powers, rights, and privileges from the Supreme or any Local Government of India, necessary or convenient for the objects of the said undertaking; and also to confer on the Honourable East India Company, or the Supreme or any Local Government of India, all powers necessary or convenient for the purpose of authorizing, constructing, maintaining, protecting, and regulating railways and railway works in India, and taking, and purchasing, and holding lands, or any right, estate, interest, or profit, in or out of lands, for any term of years, or in perpetuity, for such purpose and for the exercise of such powers, by the said Supreme or any Local Government, in favour of, and to grant and concede lands, and depute the said powers to the said East Indian Railway Company, and any officer or officers thereof; and to enable the said East Indian Railway Company to make and enter into contracts with the Honourable East India Company, and the Supreme and any Local Government of India, or any other body corporate or person in Great Britain or India; and to enable any such body corporate or person to enter into any contract or contracts with the said East Indian Railway Company, or any officer or officers thereof; and to enable the said East Indian Railway Company to do all acts necessary and convenient for the objects aforesaid; and also to limit the responsibility of the proprietors in the said undertaking to the amount of their shares respectively; and also to enable the said East Indian Railway Company to sue and be sued in the name of one or more Directors, or some public or other officer of the same company, or otherwise; and to confer such other powers, rights, and privileges on the same company as may be deemed necessary or convenient for the purposes of the said undertaking, including powers to take and hold lands, or any right, estate, interest, or profit in or out of lands for any term of years, or in perpetuity, in the East Indies and in Great Britain; and also powers and facilities for making, enforcing, and recovering calls, reducing or altering the amount of the shares, creating and transferring scrip and other shares, mortgages, debentures, and other like instruments and securities; for increasing the capital of the company, consolidating and converting shares into stock, and for raising and borrowing money by mortgage or otherwise; and also for levying tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use of the said railway or railways and extensions, together with such powers for regulating and protecting the rights of the shareholders, and the remittance or payment of dividends or interest in respect of any share or shares, or other interest in the said railway or railways and extensions; and such further and other powers in relation to the premises as may be deemed advisable.—Dated this first day of November 1848.

D. J. Noad, Secretary of the East Indian Railway Company.

Mariners and General Life Assurance Company.

(To amend the present Act, and incorporate, vary the objects, and change the name of the Company.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act to alter and amend an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating legal proceedings by or against the Mariners and General Life Assurance Company, and for granting certain powers to the said company," in which Bill provision is intended to be made for enabling the said company to amend, vary, enlarge, and extend the objects, powers, and authorities of the said company, and to undertake, transact, and execute the business of a Society for the Guarantee of Fidelity of Trust, and to grant bonds for fidelity of trust.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to take power to alter and amend the deed of settlement of the said company, and if necessary to prepare, execute, and confirm a new or supplemental deed of settlement for the regulation and management of the affairs of the said company, and to alter the name or title of the said company, and to substitute and adopt the name or title of "The United Guarantee and Life Assurance Company," or some other name or title in lieu of the present name or title of the said company; and in which said Bill provision is also intended to be made for incorporating the said company and for enabling the said company to sue and be sued, and to hold and transfer property, real and personal, in the name of the Chairman, Deputy Chairman, or Secretary, or one or more of the Directors for the time being of the said company; and for enabling the said company to raise a further sum or sums of money, and to grant to the said company further and other powers, rights, and privileges.—Dated this first day of November 1848.
