

WHEREAS by an Order made by his Honour the Vice Chancellor of England, in a cause wherein Richard Parsons is plaintiff, and Richard William Benn, Richard Joseph Parsons, and Thomas Hamer Rigbye are defendants, bearing date the 9th day of November 1848, such Order being in the words and figures following, namely;

"Forasmuch as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Glasse, as Counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff filed his bill in this Court against the defendants, and took out process of subpoena against the defendant, Richard William Benn, on the 1st day of June and the 26th day of July last, requiring him to appear to and answer the plaintiff's bill; that it appears by the affidavits of the above-named plaintiff, and of James Wells Taylor, William Shipston, John Gwyn Middleton Wigley, Arthur Parsons, and Edward Hoare, that the defendant, Richard William Benn, has been within the jurisdiction of the Court at some time not more than two years before the subpoenas issued; and, upon enquiry at his last known place of abode, and at another place where, at the time when the subpoenas issued, he might probably have been met with, he could not be found so as to be served with process, and that there is just ground to believe that the said defendant, Richard William Benn, is keeping out of the way or otherwise absconding to avoid being served with process; it is therefore ordered, that the defendant, Richard William Benn, do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the 1st day of December next; and it is ordered, that the plaintiff do cause a copy of this Order, together with the notice pursuant to the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette, and in the Times Newspaper published in London, and the Nottingham Journal, published in Nottinghamshire, within fourteen days from the date hereof."

Notice.—Richard William Benn, take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own shewing.

TAYLOR and COLLISON, 28, Great James-street, Bedford-row, London, Plaintiff's Solicitors.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes Kelly versus Cheswell, and Kelly versus Cheswell, it was ordered that it should be referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court who was or were the next of kin of Thomas Moore, late of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, Gentleman, and formerly a Master or Captain in the Merchant Service, the testator in the pleadings of the said causes named, living at the time of his death (which happened in the month of October 1798), and whether any of them had since died, and, in case any of them had since died, who was or were the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying; and also to enquire and state to the Court who was or were the next of kin of the said testator at the time of the death of the said testator's widow, Ann Moore (which happened in the month of April 1829), and whether any and which of them were since dead, and, if dead, who was or were the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying; therefore any person or persons claiming to be next of kin of the said testator, Thomas Moore, living at his death, or any person or persons claiming to be personal representative or representatives of such of them as have since died, and also any person or persons claiming to be the next of kin of the said testator at the time of the death of the said testator's widow, Ann Moore, or any person or persons claiming to be the personal representative or representatives of such of them as are since dead, is or are, by his, her, or their Solicitors, on or before the 20th day of December 1848, to come in and establish such claim or respective claims before the said Master, at his office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof such person or persons will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
