Burgesses, and Commonalty of the city of Bristol to reduce, alter, modify, and regulate, certain dues called 'Town Dues' and 'Mayor's Dues,' and for the charging and collecting thereof," it was (amongst other things) enacted, that, from and after the passing of the said Act, the tolls, duties, or sums of money therein mentioned, called the Town Dues, should cease and be no longer payable, but that in lieu thereof, the several tolls, duties, and sums of money set forth in the Schedule A thereunto annexed, as, for, and in lieu of the said town dues except as therein mentioned, should be, and the same were thereby substituted, and that the same, except as aforesaid, should be, and the same were thereby declared to be thenceforth payable to the said mayor, burgesses, and commonalty, in as full and ample a manner as the same had theretofore been and were then payable. And it was in and by the said Act further enacted, that it should and might be lawful for the said mayor, burgesses, and commonalty in council assembled from time to time, as and when they might see fit, to reduce, alter, modify, and regulate, and after such reduction, alteration, modification, or regulation, again to raise and increase, and so from time to time to reduce, alter, modify, regulate, and raise the rate
