At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of March 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Snaith, in the West Riding of the county of York, and within the diocese of York, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Goole, in the said parish of Snaith, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the church building Acts, and that such proposed district should be called 'the Chapelry District of Goole,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned:

"The chapelry district of Goole, which comprises the whole of the township of Goole, and the south west part of the township of Hook, adjoining upon the township of Goole, commences at the midstream of the river Ouse, opposite the south east corner of a close in the said township of Hook, belonging to Andrew Montagu, Esq. and in the occupation of Andrew Robinson, passing across the east end of the said close; and thence across the high-road from Hook to Goole; and thence along the south west side of Mill-house-lane to a close in the said township of Hook, belonging to Thomas Henry Sutton Sotheron, Esq. and in the occupation of James Robinson; and thence along the same close, to and across another close, in the same township, belonging to and in the occupation of William Marshall, to another lane, called Pasture-lane; and thence along the south west side of the last-mentioned lane and across the end of Halifax-lane to another lane called Nab-lane; and thence along the south side of the last-mentioned lane to a close in the same township of Hook, belonging to the said Andrew Montagu, Esq. and in the occupation of the said Andrew Robinson; and thence across the north east end of the same close to the township of Armine, otherwise Airmin; and thence along the boundary of the same township of Armine, otherwise Airmin, to the township of Rawcliffe, near Hook-grange; and thence along the boundary of the said township of Rawcliffe, near South Common, to the townships of Snaith and Cowick; and thence along the boundary of the last-mentioned townships to the Blackwater-dyke, the boundary of the parish of Thorne; and thence along the boundary of the last-mentioned parish to and across the Swinefleet Warping Drain to the township of Swinefleet, in the parish of Whitgift, near Runlet-pit; and thence along the boundary of the last-mentioned township and parish to the midstream of the river Ouse; and thence along the midstream of the said river to the point where the boundary commenced, as such proposed chapelry district of Goole is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink:

"And your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it also appears to them to be expedient, that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, at Goole; and that the fees to arise from the publication of banns, or the solemnization or performance of marriages, baptisms, and burials should be equally divided between the incumbent or minister of such church for the time being and the Reverend John Paley, the present incumbent of the parochial chapelry of Hook, during his the said John Paley's incumbency thereof; but, that upon his avoidance of such parochial chapelry, that the whole of the said fees should belong to the incumbent or minister for the time being of the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, at Goole aforesaid; that the fees to arise from churchings should forthwith belong and be paid to the minister of such last-mentioned church and his successors.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Thomas Lord Archbishop of York (as the Archbishop of the diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Thomas Lord Archbishop of York has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that Your Majesty will be graciously
