

being shall in like manner appoint; and that the patronage of and right of nomination to the several churches of Saint Paul and Saint Mary Wolverhampton shall, upon and from the death of the present patrons of such two last-mentioned churches respectively, become and be transferred to, and absolutely vested in, and may be exercised by the bishop of the diocese for the time being; and that the patronage of and right of nomination to the church of Wednesfield shall forthwith be, and the same is hereby transferred to and absolutely vested in the bishop of the diocese for the time being; and with respect to the church of Saint James, Wolverhampton, the patronage whereof is now vested in five trustees, the present Bishop of Lichfield and the present Archdeacon of Stafford, being two of such trustees, but not by virtue of their respective offices, and the said Reverend William Dalton and the Reverend Humphry Pountney, being two other of such trustees, and the office of the fifth trustee being now vacant, we recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, and of the said four trustees, testified by their having respectively signed this scheme, that the bishop of the diocese and the archdeacon for the time being of the archdeaconry wherein the said church is or shall be situated, shall at all times hereafter be, and be held to be, by virtue of such their respective offices, duly nominated and appointed as two of the five trustees in whom the patronage and right of nomination of and to the said church of Saint James, Wolverhampton, shall be absolutely vested.

“And whereas the five districts of Saint Mark and Saint Matthew, Wolverhampton, Holy Trinity and Saint Stephen, Willenhall, and Saint Luke, Bilston, mentioned in the said schedule hereunto annexed, were duly constituted and endowed under the provisions of the thirdly-recited Act, and will respectively become new parishes upon the consecration and approval of churches for such districts respectively under the provisions of the same Act; we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the same bishop so testified as aforesaid, that the said five several districts, so soon as they shall have respectively so become new parishes, and all the several other parishes mentioned in the same schedule (except the said rectory of Saint Peter), upon and from the twenty-first day next following the day upon which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, shall respectively be constituted and become and be vicarages, and the several ministers or incumbents thereof vicars, and as such vicarages and vicars shall be respectively invested with and entitled to all the same and the like rights and privileges as any new parish or perpetual curate would be invested with and entitled to under the said thirdly-recited Act; and that there shall, out of the endowments late belonging to the said collegiate church of Wolverhampton or out of any monies from time to time in our hands under the said recited Acts, or any of them, be paid by us to the respective vicars for the time being of the said vicarages, and to the respective ministers for the time being of the said five districts, so long as they respectively remain districts, and also of the districts of Ettingshall and Moxley, mentioned in the same schedule, the several augmentations of income or yearly sums of money which in the second column of the same schedule are set against the names of the respective districts and churches, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, in each and every year, the first of such payments respectively to be made on the first day of May now next ensuing, and that in the case of any and every future vacancy in any of the said vicarages or districts happening on any other day than one of the days so named, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the vicar or minister making the vacancy, or his personal representatives, and the vicar or minister succeeding to the same vicarage or district; and that there shall be paid by us, out of the like endowments or monies, when and so soon as occasion shall require, and to such persons and at such times as we shall deem expedient, the several grants or sums of money mentioned in the fourth column of the same schedule in respect of the several districts or vicarages opposite to the names of which, or of the churches thereof, such sums are placed, and for the objects and purposes mentioned in the fifth column of such schedule; but upon condition that the several sites for churches and residence houses shall be duly conveyed to and vested in the vicars of such vicarages or ministers of such districts respectively, and their respective successors for ever, and shall, previously to any treaty being entered into for the purchase of such sites respectively, be approved by us and by the bishop of the said diocese for the time being, and that the several churches and residence houses shall be erected and built under the direction and supervision of an architect so as aforesaid, to be nominated by us and the said Bishop of Lichfield. *

“And we further recommend and propose, that such vicarages and vicars shall be so respectively constituted and such augmentations of income and grants of money made subject to and upon the several conditions hereinbefore mentioned, and also the several further conditions set against the names of the corresponding districts and churches in the sixth and seventh columns of the said schedule; and that in default of such conditions being duly accepted with every such grant, or if and whenever at any future time, and from time to time, any of such conditions shall in any case be unfulfilled, the grant, or so much thereof as shall in such case remain unpaid, shall be withheld by us until every such condition shall be fulfilled to our satisfaction according to the terms and tenor of this scheme.

“And whereas the said several districts of Saint Mark, Saint Matthew, Holy Trinity, Saint Stephen, Saint Luke, and Moxley were constituted by Orders of your Majesty in Council duly made and gazetted under the provisions of the said thirdly-recited Act, and the endowments thereof were secured to the said several districts in the form of certain graduated incomes made payable by us under the same Orders in Council; we recommend and propose, that the several yearly sums of money, so as aforesaid set against the names of the said several districts in the said second column of the same schedule, shall be and be held to be in lieu and full satisfaction of and for such graduated incomes, and that all sums of money so payable under and by virtue of the said Orders in Council to the ministers of the same districts shall cease and determine as from the first day of November now last past.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.
