The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any other power or authority vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following ; that is to say :

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, and within the diocese of Manchester, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church called Trinity Church, situate in the town and parish of Blackburn aforesaid, under or by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under or by virtue of any other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be called 'Trinity Chapelry District, Blackburn,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned :

"The Trinity Chapelry District, Blackburn, will consist of so much of the township of Blackburn as is comprized within a line beginning at the bridge on the Blackburn and Accrington-road where it crosses the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, proceeding along the north bank of the said canal, in a westerly direction, to Audley Higher Barn Bridge, over the same canal ; thence north-westerly, up the middle of Audley Higher Barn Lane, to Salford ; thence easterly, along the middle of Salford, to Syke-street ; thence north-westerly, up the middle of Syke-street, to Penny-street ; thence north-easterly, up the middle of Penny-street and Larkhill, to Birley-street ; and thence south-easterly, down the middle of Birley-street, to the north-west corner of Whalley Coppies ; thence continuing southerly, along the westerly side of the said coppies, to Abbot-street, otherwise Bancroft-street ; and thence south-westerly, along Abbot-street, to the Blackburn and Accrington turnpike-road, and along the middle of the said road, south-easterly, to the bridge where it crosses the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, as such proposed district is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church, called Trinity Church, and that one moiety of the fees to arise therefrom should, according to ancient parochial usage, be received and paid by the incumbent of such church to the Vicar of Blackburn for the time being, and that the other moiety of such fees should be received by, and belong to, the incumbent of the said church, called Trinity Church, for the time being :

"That the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince Lord Bishop of Manchester (as the Bishop of the diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said James Prince Lord Bishop of Manchester has signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your consideration, and make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made ; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization of baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.
