To the Town Council of the Borough of Leicester; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas it is provided in the fifth section of the aforesaid recited Act, that nothing hereinbefore contained shall apply to any district, parish, or place in which the Public Health Act 1848, or any part thereof, shall be in force, unless and except in so far as the General Board of Health, by order in writing, sealed with the seal of such Board, and signed by two or more members thereof, or (in case there be no such Board in existence) as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by order in writing under his hand, shall otherwise direct;

And whereas it is expedient that the provisions of the said Act shall continue in force throughout the several parishes and places within the borough of Leicester, for the space of three calendar months from and after the date of this Order, notwithstanding the application of the Public Health Act to Leicester;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order and declare, that the various provisions and powers of the above-recited Removal of Nuisances and Prevention of contagious Diseases' Act shall remain in force within and throughout the several parishes and places within the said borough of Leicester, for the aforesaid period of three calendar months from and after the date of this present Order.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 3rd day of August 1849.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas the parishes and places comprised within the Neath Union appear to be affected by formidable epidemic and endemic disease; and it is desirable to give power to the Guardians of the Poor, or their duly appointed officers, to remove the families of necessitous persons who have been attacked with cholera, and other persons living under the same roof, or in the immediate vicinity;

Now we, the General Board of Health, do in further exercise of the power vested in us as aforesaid, issue the following directions and regulations to extend to the parishes and places comprised in the Neath Union;

That the said Board of Guardians, having provided houses of refuge and other appropriate places, shall be authorized and empowered to remove the families of such necessitous persons as have been attacked with cholera, and also such necessitous persons living under the same roof, or in the vicinity of persons so attacked, as the medical officers acting under the authority of the said Board may deem it necessary to remove; the houses, rooms or dwellings from which persons may have been removed to the houses of refuge to be cleansed and purified by the owners or persons having the care or ordering thereof, or in their default by the said Board of Guardians.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 3rd day of August 1849.

And whereas various parts within the Neath Union appear to be affected by formidable epidemic and endemic disease;

Now we, the General Board of Health, in further exercise of the power vested in us as aforesaid, do issue the directions and regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to the Neath Union:

1. That houses of refuge be forthwith provided at Neath and at Cadoxton, affording accommodation in proportion to the necessities of the case and the extent of the disease, and to which may be removed the families of such poor persons as have been attacked with cholera, and such others as the medical officers may deem it requisite or desirable to remove; and that the places from which such persons have been removed be forthwith effectively cleansed and purified.

2. That an inspector of nuisances be immediately appointed, and that he see to the removal forthwith of all such nuisances as shall be certified either by the medical superintending inspector, or by either of the union medical officers.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 16th day of August 1849.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Falmouth Union; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas we have been informed that vessels have lately arrived in the port of Falmouth having on board persons suffering from cholera or other epidemic diseases;

And whereas it is very desirable that persons so attacked should be provided with proper and adequate accommodation for their reception, and also with immediate medical relief;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order and declare, that the Guardians of the Poor of the Falmouth Union shall, by themselves or their officers, enter the said vessels or any other vessel coming into the said port, in which cholera or other epidemic disease has occurred, and examine the sanitary condition of the same, and inquire into the health of the crew or crews, and, if need be, order cleansing, purification, and all other necessary measures for the prevention of disease which are authorized or required to be adopted in any dwellings on land by the General Regulations of the Board of the 4th day of April 1849, issued to the Guardians of the Poor throughout England and Wales.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 20th day of August 1849.

CONTRACTS for SALT PORK of the CURE of the UNITED KINGDOM, or of any FOREIGN COUNTRY WHATSOEVER.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 30, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 27th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

SALT PORK,

Of the Cure of the United Kingdom, or of any Foreign Country whatsoever, equal to 6,000 Tierces, to be cured in the ensuing season, and to be delivered in tierces, excepting a part thereof, equal to 100 tierces, which is to be delivered in casks containing 100lbs. each, and for which separate tenders are to be made; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part; and also an unlimited power of selection, according to quality.

Every tender to specify where the meat is intended to be cured, and a separate price for each denomination of cure comprised therein.

The pork to be delivered into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haubowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed, and within the following periods:

One-third on or before the 31st March 1850,

Two-thirds on or before the 31st May 1850, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight, but not during the first period of delivery, for any quantity beyond that specified.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 300 tierces, except for the quantity to be delivered in casks containing 100lbs. each.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Pork," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons engaging to become bound with the person tendering in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract for the due performance of the same.

NEXT OF KIN.

IF the relations or next of kin of Maria Anna Ross, Spinster, late Governess in the family of Charles Count Von Haugwitz, at Vienna, where she died, on the 11th January 1847, will apply, either personally or by letter, to George Maule, Esq. Solicitor, for the affairs of Her Majesty's Treasury, at Gwydyr-house, Whitehall, London, they may hear of something to their advantage.

To be sold by auction, pursuant to a Decree in the Court of Chancery for the County Palatine of Lancaster made in a cause Loxham v. Bonnell, with the approbation of Peter Catterall, Esq. Registrar of the said Court, by Mr. Thomas Winder, at the house of Mrs. Elizabeth Batty, the sign of the Black Cat, in Saint Leonard-gate, in Lancaster, on Monday the 17th day of September 1849, at five o'clock in the afternoon:

That long established and well accustomed Public House, called the Black Cat, situate on the east side of Saint Leonard-gate, in Lancaster, with an extensive newly erected building behind the same, now used as a public or club-room, brew-house, spacious yard and other conveniences, now tenanted by Mrs. Elizabeth Batty;

Also a dwelling-house adjoining, and fronting the said street, called Saint Leonard-gate, and now in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Shaw, as tenant;

And also a plot of building-land, behind the aforesaid premises, containing about 368 superficial square yards.

The whole contains upwards of 680 superficial square yards.

A plan of the property may be seen at the said Registrar's office in Preston, and further particulars had from Mr. Thomas Lamb, Solicitor, Lancaster; or from Mr. Ascroft, Solicitor, Preston, at whose offices a plan of the property is also lodged.

In Chancery.—Crook v. Crook. Valuable Freehold and Leasehold Properties, let at rentals amounting to £1082 per annum.

MR. PRICE will sell by auction, at Garraway's Coffee House, Change-alley, Cornhill, on Wednesday, the 3rd day of October 1849, at twelve for one o'clock, by order of the Court of Chancery, and with the approbation of J. W. Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, the following freehold and leasehold properties; viz:

A freehold ground-rent of £45 per annum, arising from twenty-four houses in Cumberland-street, Hackney-road; two freehold houses, Nos. 24 and 25, Old-street, St. Luke's, let at £80 per annum; a capital leasehold dwelling-house, with shop, No. 39, St. John-street, Clerkenwell, let at £60 per annum; two leasehold houses, Lloyd-street, Lloyd-square, Pentonville, let at £92 per annum; four leasehold houses in Wharton-street, Lloyd-square, Pentonville. let at £168 per annum; a superior leasehold residence, No. 26, Cloudesley-street, let at £52 10s. per annum; and four leasehold houses in Charles-street, Gibson-square, Islington, let at £168 per annum; a leasehold estate comprising seven houses in Bridport-place, Hoxton, and twelve houses in Clift-street, Hoxton, adjoining, mostly let at ground-rents, producing £169 12s. per annum; also a very desirable leasehold estate, situate in the Canal-road, Hoxton, comprising spacious wharfs, a manufactory, and dwelling-houses, let at £247 per annum. The leaseholds are all held for long terms, at low ground-rents.

The properties may be viewed by leave of the tenants, and particulars had of J. Crafts, Esq. or Edward Maniere, Esq. No. 28, Martin's-lane, Cannon-street; of E. Clarke, Esq. No. 5, Featherstone-buildings, Holborn; of T. W. Burr, Esq.
