

purposes of divine worship, should be constituted separate districts in manner herein-after set forth :

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all those parts of the said parish of Leeds, and also all those parts of the said chapelry of Headingley-cum-Burley, district parishes of Saint Stephen Kirkstall and Saint Mark Woodhouse, and district of Little London, respectively described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered respectively 1 and 2, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are respectively delineated and set forth in the maps or plans hereunto also annexed, and respectively numbered in like manner, shall be respectively constituted two separate districts for spiritual purposes accordingly ; and that the same shall be respectively named as follows ; that is to say : the district numbered 1, in the said schedule, shall be named ' The District of Burley ; ' and the district numbered 2 therein, shall be named ' The District of Buslingthorpe. '

" And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be approved by the like authority :

" And whereas a certain fund was bequeathed by Jane Mathewman, late of Harrogate, in the said county of York, widow, lately deceased, to William Beckett and John Atkinson, both of Leeds, esquires, as trustees to apply the same towards promoting, in the borough of Leeds, divine worship according to the liturgy and usages of the United Church of England and Ireland, in such manner as the said William Beckett and John Atkinson, with the sanction of the Bishop of Ripon for the time being, should think fit ; and the said William Beckett and John Atkinson, as such trustees, with the sanction of the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, have, out of the said fund, contributed and transferred to our account and into our names, in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, a sum of ten thousand pounds, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, being a sum of stock sufficient to produce the full annual endowment of one hundred and fifty pounds, required by the said Act as aforesaid, for the permanent endowment of each of the two districts or new parishes herein recommended to be constituted as aforesaid :

" And whereas the said William Beckett and John Atkinson have, by an instrument in writing under their hands, nominated to us the several persons, herein-after named and described, as trustees of the patronage in perpetuity of the said districts and contemplated new parishes respectively, and of the right of nomination of the ministers or perpetual curates thereof ; and have, in and by the same instrument, proposed that vacancies in the trusteeships of such patronage shall be filled up from time to time in manner hereinafter mentioned ;

" We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the patronage of the said district or new parish of Burley, and the right of nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, shall be assigned in perpetuity to the said William Beckett and John Atkinson and John Smith and Thomas Townend Dibb, both of Burley aforesaid, esquires, and the Reverend William Williamson, now perpetual curate of the said chapelry of Headingley-cum-Burley ; and that the patronage of the said district or new parish of Buslingthorpe, and the right of nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof shall be assigned in perpetuity to the same William Beckett and John Atkinson and John Gott, William Hey and John Heaton, all of Leeds aforesaid, esquires, as trustees duly nominated to us for such purposes ; and that such patronage and right of nomination of the ministers of such districts or new parishes respectively shall for ever hereafter be exercised by the same persons respectively, or the survivors or survivor of them, as such trustees respectively, and by such future trustee or trustees, being a member or members of the United Church of England and Ireland, as shall from time to time be nominated by writing under the hands or hand of the trustees or trustee for the time being of each of the said districts or new parishes or the major part of them, in the place and stead of any one or more of them who shall from time to time die, resign or become incapable of acting ; provided always, that the number of such trustees in each case shall not at any time exceed five.

" And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of each of the districts so herein recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, and so soon as such districts shall have become new parishes according to the provisions of the same Act, to the perpetual curate of each of such new parishes, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year ; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or perpetual curate ; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of either of such districts or new parishes shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy or his personal representative or representatives and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.
