"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church at Alderholt, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the incumbent thereof for the time being :

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Lord Bishop of Salisbury, as the bishop of the said diocese, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned : in testimony whereof the said Edward Lord Bishop of Salisbury has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 6th day of November 1849.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," as enlarged by the twelfth section of an Act passed in the session of parliament holden in the first and second years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual the Church Building Acts," and extended by the third section of an Act passed in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the "assignment of Ecclesiastical Districts to Churches or Chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in the said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation bearing date the twelfth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, in the words following ; that is to say :

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the district parish of Christ Church, Saint Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex, and within the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen the Martyr, situate at Portland Town, within the said district parish of Christ Church, Saint Marylebone, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the session of parliament holden in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' as enlarged by the twelfth section of an Act passed in the session of parliament holden in the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual the Church Building Acts,' and extended by the third section of an Act passed in the session of parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the governors of the bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be called 'The Chapelry District of Saint Stephen, Portland Town,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned.

"The chapelry district of Saint Stephen, Portland Town, is bounded by a line commencing at the point where the boundary line of the parish of Hampstead crosses the Avenue-road, and from that point takes a south-easterly direction along the middle of the Avenue-road for the distance of one hundred and twelve yards, and then turns at a right angle, in a straight line, in a south-westerly direction, excluding the two houses, Numbers 1 and 2, Victoria-villas, at the corner of the Avenue and Acacia-roads, and enters into Townshend-road, when it takes a south-easterly direction along the middle of that road as far as Saint John's Wood-terrace ; it then turns in a south-westerly direction, and proceeds along the middle of Saint John's Wood-terrace and the Circus-road until it reaches Cavendish-road, when it takes a south-easterly direction down the middle of that road, as far as Wellington-place ; it then turns in a south-westerly direction along the middle of that place as far as the middle of an intended road now occupied by Mrs. Guy as a nursery ground, along which it proceeds in a southerly direction as far as Saint John's Wood-road, and then proceeds again south-westerly along the middle of that road, as far as Grove End-road ; it then proceeds in a south-easterly direction along the middle of the latter road, as far as South Bank, up the middle of which it then proceeds in a north-easterly direc-
