

States of the Empire assembled here, have not yet taken a final Resolution concerning the place of Conference for the settling the Limits between the Empire and the Crown of France; The Electoral Colledge have indeed declared, that they think this City the most convenient place for that purpose, but the two other Colledges are not yet come to any conclusion therein.

Cologne, Jan. 18. The Imperial Sub-Commissioners having received directions from Vienna upon the matters they had laid before his Imperial Majesty, it's believed they will now in a short time finish their Commission. They intend once more to examine the three Prisoners at Dusseldorpe, who after that will be removed to Mulheim, in order to the execution of the Sentence that shall be pronounced against them. The Prince de Croy, General of the Emperor's Artillery, arrived here this week from Francfort. The Prince de Mourbach continues very ill, though not without hopes of his Recovery. The Letters from Vienna of the 10th Instant tell us, that the late Defeat of the Turky near Arach, had put all their Garisons on that side into a very great Consternation; And that the Baron de Mercy had sent an Officer to Vienna, to desire a reinforcement of 2000 Imperial Foot, with which he undertook to attack the Fortrels of Gyula, and doubted not to make himself Master of it.

Edinburgh, Jan. 18. The Troops which the Duke of Hanover sends to the assistance of the Republick of Venice, began their march the 15th of this Month. We are assured that the Treaties between the Emperor and the Electors of Saxony and Brandenburgh concerning the Forces with which these Princes are to assist his Imperial Majesty, are concluded; Those of the latter, as they write from Berlin, will be commanded by General Schoening. The same Letters say, that his Electoral Highness has resolved to raise several new Regiments; And that he intends to have a good Body of an Army in his Countrey of Cleves the next Summer. The Letters from Poland tell us, that the Tartars continue their Incursions into the Frontier Provinces of that Kingdom, from whence they have carry'd great Numbers of People into Slavery.

Hague, Jan. 20. Mr. Skelton, Envoy Extraordinary from His Majesty of Great Britain, is gone for England, from whence he is expected back again in three Weeks or a Month. The defensive Alliance between the King of Sueden and this State is renewed, having been signed the 12th Instant by the Heer Guldenstolpe, Envoy Extraordinary from that King, and the Deputies of the States General; By which they are reciprocally to assist each other in case of need with 6000 Men, and 12 Ships. The Treaty concerning the Separation of the Limits between this State and that of Liege is likewise concluded, and the Ratifications thereof will be exchanged in few days. Prince Waldecke is expected here the next Week from Germany. The Heer Van Dieft, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Brandenburgh, returned hither this week from Cleves.

Brassels, Jan. 22. On Friday last in the Evening we receiv'd by the Spanish Ordinary the welcome News of his Excellencies being confirmed in this Government, upon which he was the next day Complimented by all the Nobility, Ministers and General Officers, as likewise by the Council of State, and all the other Councils. On Sunday the Nations of this City, by their Deputies, performed the same Compliment, as the States of this Province and the Magistrates of this City have likewise done. His Excellency will remove to the Palace the next Week, which is making ready in the mean time. The Heer Van Staremberg, Ambassador from the States General of the United Provinces at the Court of France, arrived here two or three days ago from Paris, and yesterday continued his Journey for Holland. The Letters from France tell us, that the difference about the French Money seized at the Groyne will be accommodated; and that in the mean time the most Christian King has given Orders for the stopping the Consecrations that were ordered to be made by way of Reprizal in the New Conquests. They write from Vienna, that the Elector of Saxony is to assist the Emperor with 9000 Men, the Elector of Brandenburgh with 8000, and the Landgrave of Hesse Cassell with 4000, in pursuance of the Treaties his Imperial Majesty has made with these Princes.

Paris, Jan. 19. The Discourse continues of the King's Journey in the Spring towards Lorraine and Alsace. The Differences between the Inhabitants of Anlaye and those of Fonterabik are composed, and the Articles agreed on for that purpose have been published on both sides. The King has put a stop to the work of the River Eure, as well as to the Building at Versailles.

Westminster, Jan. 14. This day Henry Lord Delamere was brought to his Tryal, before the Lord High Steward of England appointed for that purpose, upon an Indictment of High-Treason, For Conspiring to raise a Rebellion against His Majesty, of which he was acquitted by his Peers. And it manifestly appearing upon the Tryal that Thomas Saxon, who was a Witness against the said Lord Delamere, was Perjured, His Majesty has been pleased to give particular Directions that an Indictment of Perjury be forthwith preferred against the said Thomas Saxon.

Whitehall, Jan. 16. Signior Zeno and Signior Giustiniani, Ambassadors Extraordinary from the Republick of Venice, had yesterday their Audience of Leave of her R: H. the Princess Ann, and this day of his R: H. Prince George of Denmark, being Conducted by Sir Charles Cottrel Master of the Ceremonies.
