

Mount so long as he shall continue to be the prebendary of the same prebend, and no longer, the annual sum of fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of April and the first day of October, and that the first such half-yearly payment shall be made on the first day of April next; provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease of the said lands, tithes or other hereditaments or of any part thereof shall, since the eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six have been or shall be granted or made by the said Charles Milman Mount or any of his predecessors; and that if the next avoidance of the said prebend shall happen on any other day than one of the said two half-yearly days of payment, then a proportionate sum only shall be paid to the said Charles Milman Mount or his representatives:

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of January 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ‘ An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,’ have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for assigning the right of patronage of the district of Saint Thomas, Woolwich, in the county of Kent, and diocese of London.

“ Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying such scheme), at any time to assign the right of patronage of any district or new parish constituted under the provisions of the said Act, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation aggregate or sole or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be approved by the like authority:

“ And whereas by a scheme duly prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council by us, and an Order ratifying the same, made by your Majesty in Council on the twenty-sixth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and duly gazetted, the said district of Saint Thomas, Woolwich, was duly constituted out of the parishes of Charlton and Woolwich, in the county of Kent:

“ And whereas no provision has yet been made under the said enactment respecting the right of patronage of the said district or new parish:

“ And whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twelfth and thirteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ‘ An Act to enable Sir Thomas Maryon Wilson, Baronet, to grant the site of a church for the district of Saint Thomas, Woolwich, in the county of Kent, and for other purposes,’ it was among other things enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Sir Thomas Maryon Wilson, by deed, under his hand and seal, to give, grant, and convey to us and our successors the piece of land particularly described in the schedule annexed to the same Act, to be appropriated and used as the site for the church of the new parish of Saint Thomas, Woolwich, which the said district will become upon a church being built therein, and consecrated, and approved by us, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, and for a churchyard to be annexed and appurtenant to such church, and for the site of the parsonage house of such district or new parish, in exchange for the patronage and right of nomination of the minister or perpetual curate of the same district or new parish, to be assigned by the said authority by the herein firstly-recited Act provided in manner hereinafter mentioned.

“ And whereas under the provisions of the said secondly-recited Act the said Sir Thomas Maryon Wilson hath accordingly, by deed duly executed, given, granted, and conveyed to and vested in us the said piece or parcel of land for the purpose hereinbefore mentioned:

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that in consideration of such grant the patronage of the said district or new parish of Saint Thomas, Woolwich, and the right of nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, shall be assigned to and be absolutely vested in the said Sir Thomas Maryon Wilson and the person or persons for the time being entitled to the estates in the said parish of Charlton devised by the will of Sir Thomas Maryon Wilson, Baronet, deceased, as mentioned in the said secondly-recited Act.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”
