

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of January 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation bearing date the twenty-second day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Saint Philip and Saint Jacob, Bristol, in the city of Bristol, and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate at Barton-hill, in the said parish of Saint Philip and Saint Jacob, Bristol, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be called 'The Chapelry District of Saint Luke, Barton-hill,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned.

"The boundary of the chapelry district of Saint Luke, Barton-hill, commences at the Tollbar-gate, on the south-east side of the Packhorse Inn, on the road to Bath, and proceeds in a south-easterly direction down the centre of Packhorse-lane, and along the eastern walls of the Cotton Factory, as far as the water called the Feeder, along which water it proceeds in a westerly direction as far as a lane or passage at the western extremity of the Bristol Ironworks, up which lane or passage it proceeds north-westerly, and turning in a northerly direction enters Cook's-lane; it then proceeds north-westerly up Cook's-lane, as far as Kilbear-street, and then turning eastwardly proceeds in a straight line along Oxford-place, and proceeding up the middle of Oxford-road, enters Barton-hill-lane, up the middle of which lane the boundary then proceeds in a north-easterly direction as far as Folly-lane, up the middle of which it proceeds in a north-westerly direction as far as the stream of water; it then follows the course of that stream in a north-easterly and northerly direction to the Packhorse Inn, and leaving the said stream proceeds in a direct line in a north-easterly direction to the toll-bar where the boundary commenced, as such proposed chapelry district is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty that it appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Luke, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be reserved for and paid over to the Reverend Samuel Emery Day, Master of Arts, the present vicar or incumbent of the said parish of Saint Philip and Saint Jacob, Bristol, during his incumbency of that parish, and that upon his avoidance thereof the said fees should belong to the minister or incumbent for the time of the said church of Saint Luke, at Barton-hill aforesaid.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol (as the Bishop of the said diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned: in testimony whereof the said James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
