The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that, upon the decease of John Baron Colville of Culross, without issue (which happened on or about the 22nd day of December last), the title and dignity of Baron Colville of Culross devolved upon Charles-John, now Baron Colville of Culross, as the eldest son and heir of the late General Sir Charles Colville, commonly called the Honourable Sir Charles Colville, G.C.B. whilst living, the younger and only brother of the said John, late Baron Colville of Culross, and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour the younger brother and sisters of the said Charles-John, now Baron Colville of Culross, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their late father, the said Sir Charles Colville, had survived his elder brother, the said John Baron Colville of Culross, and had, thereby, succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Colville of Culross, Her Majesty hath been graciously pleased to ordain and declare, that William-James Colville, a Lieutenant in the Rifle Brigade, and Catherine-Dorothea Colville and Georgiana-Clementina Colville, Spinsters, the younger and only brother and sisters of the said Charles-John, now Baron Colville of Culross, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same titles, place, pre-eminence, and precedence, as if their late father, the said Sir Charles Colville, had survived his elder brother, the said John, late Baron Colville of Culross, and had thereby succeeded to the said title and dignity of Baron Colville of Culross :
