

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Cardiff Union, and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 25th day of September 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit, as far as possible, for the prevention, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas the town of Cardiff appears to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease;

We order, that in case any dwelling-house or lodging-house shall appear to the medical officer to be dangerously overcrowded, he shall certify the number of persons that may be safely lodged in any living or sleeping-room, and the Relieving Officer shall take order for the removal of all persons beyond such number.

And we hereby direct the police to aid, if necessary, the Relieving Officer in the execution of this Order.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 27th day of February 1850.

(Signed) Ashley.
Edwin Chadwick.
