Vice-Chancellor

Knight Bruce.—Thursday the 25th day of April, in the 18th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1850, between Francis Burton Mills and Alice his wife, and William Hardman Mills and Alice Mills the younger, both of them infants by the said Francis Burton Mills, their father and next friend, Plaintiffs; John Francis Lamb and John Taylor Crook, Defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Palmer, of Counsel for the Plaintiffs, that the Plaintiffs having exhibited their Bill in this Court against the Defendants, and sued out process of subpoena on the 23rd day of April instant, to compel the Defendant, John Francis Lamb, to appear to and answer the same: It appears by the affidavit of the Plaintiff, Francis Burton Mills, that the said Defendant, John Francis Lamb, quitted this country and sailed for New York, in the United States of America, on the 20th day of March last, in the sailing vessel called "The Philadelphia," and that upon various and searching enquiries at the usual place of abode of the said Defendant, the deponent has discovered and believes the fact to be that the said Defendant has absconded from his residence in this country for the express purpose of escaping out of the jurisdiction of the Court, and avoiding being served with the process of the Court in any suit which might be instituted against him. It is thereupon ordered that the Defendant, George Francis Lamb, do appear to the Plaintiffs' Bill, on or before the 13th day of June 1850. And it is ordered that the Plaintiff do cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the general Orders of this Court, in that behalf to be inserted in the London Gazette of Friday, the 3rd day of May next, and in two newspapers published in the counties of Oxford and Buckingham on or before the 6th day of May next.

John Francis Lamb: Take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the Plaintiffs may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the Plaintiffs such relief as they may appear to be entitled to on their own showing.
