AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 19th day of June 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the canon of Dunham, in the collegiate church of Southwell, for certain property belonging to him as such canon, and for authorizing the sale of such property:

"Whereas it is by the first herein recited Act (amongst other things) enacted, that, subject to the provisions therein contained, all the estate and interest which the holder of any canonry not suspended by or under the provisions of the same Act, and his successors had and would have in any lands, tithes, and other hereditaments or endowments whatsoever annexed or belonging to or usually held or enjoyed with such canonry (except any right of patronage), or whereof the rents and profits had been usually taken and enjoyed by the holder of such canonry, as such holder separately and in addition to his share of the corporate revenues of such chapter, should, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than the provisions of the same Act, accrue to and be absolutely vested in us and our successors for the purposes of the same Act:

"And whereas the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required:

"And whereas it is by the said Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof any arrangement may from time to time be made with the consent, in writing, under the hand of any canon of any cathedral church for the sale, transfer or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such canon, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments:

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend Thomas Cozens Percival, the present canon of Dunham aforesaid, in the said collegiate church of Southwell, that with a view to the sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council:

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said Thomas Cozens Percival, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments situate, lying and being, or arising and accruing within the parish of Morton, in the county of Nottingham (except any right of patronage), now belonging to or forming part of the endowment of the said canonry of Dunham, or to or in which he the said Thomas Cozens Percival, as such canon, has or ought to have any estate, right, title, or interest separately and in addition to his share in the corporate revenues of the chapter of the said collegiate church of Southwell, shall, together with all such estate, right, title and interest therein, be and be held to be for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Thomas Cozens Percival to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us to the said Thomas Cozens Percival, on the tenth day next after the day of the gazetting of such Order of your Majesty in Council, the sum of one hundred and seventy-one pounds sterling, provided that no renewal of any lease nor any new lease of any part of such lands, tithes, and other hereditaments as aforesaid shall, since the seventeenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three last, have been or shall be granted by the said Thomas Cozens Percival, or any of his predecessors:

"And whereas it is by the herein thirdly recited Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are
