

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JULY 30, 1850.

Cambridge-House, July 29, 1850.

THE Duke of Cambridge has been pleased to appoint Lieutenant-Colonel Sir William Davison, Major the Honourable James Macdonald, Mr. Edmond St. John Mildmay, and Major Baron Knesebeck, to be His Royal Highness' Equerries; and

The Reverend Henry Harvey, M.A. the Reverend John Rile Wood, M.A. and the Reverend James Hutchinson, M.A. to be His Royal Highness' Chaplains.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Northampton.

Northamptonshire Regiment of Militia.

Edward Hatton Finch Hatton, Esq. to be Lieutenant. Dated 22nd July 1850.

FURTHER REGULATIONS AS TO POST-OFFICE MONEY ORDERS.

1. WHEREAS certain regulations relating to Post-office Money Orders were made and issued, bearing date on or about the 12th day of September 1848; and whereas it is expedient to make and establish other regulations relating thereto; Now I, Ulick John Marquess of Clanricarde, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, by and with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby order, direct, and declare that the said regulations, bearing date the said 12th day of September 1848, shall be and remain in force as to all money orders heretofore granted or issued, save and except so far as the same shall or may be altered by the regulations hereby made; and that so far as the same shall be so altered, or shall be inconsistent with the regulations hereby made, the said regulations of the 12th September 1848, or so much thereof as shall be so altered or inconsistent, shall, be and the same are hereby repealed.

2. And whereas it sometimes happens that Post-offices on which money orders are drawn become vacant, and the business thereof is suspended or impeded by reason of the death, resignation, dismissal, or otherwise, of the deputy, sub-deputy, or receiver, and sometimes application is made for the payment of money orders to be transferred from the Post-office on which they have been drawn to some other Post-office, and it is expedient to make provision for the payment of such money orders; Now I do hereby, by and with such consent as aforesaid, further order, direct, and declare that the Postmaster-General for the time being may, from time to time, as he shall think fit, order and direct that the payment of any money orders which have been at any time heretofore issued or granted, or which shall be at any time hereafter issued or granted on or payable at any Post-office shall be transferred to, and that such money orders shall be paid and payable at any other Post-office the said Postmaster-General shall for that purpose direct or appoint.

3. And I do hereby, by and with such consent as aforesaid, further order, direct, and declare, that from and after the expiration of twelve calendar months next, after the month in which any money order shall be hereafter issued or granted by any Post-office, every such money order shall be absolutely void and of no effect, and all liability to pay such money order, or the money in respect of which the same shall be so issued or granted by or on the part of the Post-office revenue, or the Postmaster-General, or the Deputy Postmaster, or other person by whom such money order shall be issued or granted, or upon whom, or upon, or at whose office the same shall be drawn, or in the event of the payment thereof having been transferred to any other Post-office then upon whom, or upon, or at whose office the same shall be subsequently made payable, shall absolutely cease and determine to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

4. And I do hereby, by and with such consent as aforesaid, further order, direct, and declare, that all money orders which have been at any time heretofore issued or granted, or which shall be at anytime hereafter issued or granted by any Post-office, shall be paid at the Post-office upon which the same have been or shall be drawn (or in the event of the payment thereof having been transferred to any other Post-office, then at the Post-office at which the same have been or shall be subsequently made payable), before the expiration of two calendar months next after the end of the month in which the same have been, or shall be so issued or granted; and that from and after that period no such money orders shall be paid or payable: Provided always, that in every case where any money order at any time heretofore issued or granted, or at any time hereafter issued or granted, shall not have been paid as aforesaid within the period of two calendar months next after the month in which the same hath been or shall be issued or granted, the person or persons