Whitehall, August 27, 1850.

THE following Address of congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the Birth of another Prince, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, was presented accordingly to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, Ministers of the Gospel in the connexion established by the late Rev. John Wesley, A.M., being now met in our annual assembly, beg to approach the Throne with sentiments of the most affectionate loyalty ; and, in behalf of our united societies throughout the empire, to offer to your Majesty, and to His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, our hearty congratulations on the recent addition of a Prince to the Royal Family.

We would humbly convey to your Majesty the assurance of our sincere prayers that the Royal Infant may be long preserved in health, honour, and happiness, and finally crowned with the infinitely higher blessings of the heavenly kingdom. And we rejoice in this opportunity of repeating the expression of our unwavering attachment to your Majesty's illustrious house, and of our devout hope that the Divine blessing will continually descend on your Majesty's Family and Government.

With the deepest feelings of veneration and affection, and anew commending your Majesty, and all within the circle of the Royal Family, to the everlasting favour of the King of kings, we are, in the name of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference, your Majesty's faithful and devoted subjects and servants,

John Beecham, D. D. President.

John Hannah, D. D. Secretary.
