FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1850.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the fifteenth day of October next, be further prorogued to Thursday the fourteenth day of November next.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of Her Majesty "for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining), into districts, and to order that the County Court shall be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and from time to time to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court shall be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, of which the county of Devon was one, and the town of Plymouth was named as a place for holding one of the courts of the said county for the district therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be of advantage to the public that the County Court now holden at Plymouth should be holden at East Stonehouse instead of at Plymouth: Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, the County Court now holden by the name of "The County Court of Devonshire holden at Plymouth," shall be holden by the name of "The County Court of Devonshire holden at East Stonehouse," and the said Court now holden at Plymouth shall be holden at East Stonehouse instead of at Plymouth.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September 1850,

PRESENT,

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," or under or by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the words following; that is to say:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Saint Peter, in the Isle of Thanet, in the county of Kent, and within the diocese of Canterbury, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church or chapel, situate at Broadstairs, in the said parish of Saint Peter, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act,
