

Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and ratepayers, and shall perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said William Manning, from illness, or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Samuel Farrow, Esq. of the parish of Diss, shall exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

"7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, shall be given to the said Reverend William Manning, at the Rectory, within the said district of Diss; or in case he shall refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Samuel Farrow, at his residence, at Diss, likewise within the district aforesaid.

"Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this thirty-first day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

(Signed) Edwin Chadwick.
T. Southwood Smith."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said report into consideration, is pleased to approve thereof, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby, under and in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, order and direct that, from and after the date of this Order, the Public Health Act, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by Her Majesty's printers, shall be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the parish of Diss, in the county of Norfolk, and that such area, places, and parts of places shall be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

2. That the Local Board of Health, to be elected under the said Public Health Act, shall consist of nine persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.

3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health shall take place on the twenty-first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board shall go out of office on the twenty-first day of January in each year subsequently to that in which the first election of that Local Board takes place; but in case the day so appointed shall fall on a Sunday or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then such one-third shall go out of office on the day next following.

5. That every person, at the time of his election, as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than one thousand pounds; or shall be so resident and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than twenty-five pounds.

6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, the Reverend William Manning, Rector of the parish of Diss, shall have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and ratepayers, and shall perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said William Manning, from illness or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Samuel Farrow, Esq. of the parish of Diss, shall exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, shall be given to the said Reverend William Manning, at the Rectory, within the said district of Diss; or in case he shall refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Samuel Farrow, at his residence, at Diss, likewise within the said district aforesaid.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 30th day of November 1850.

By the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of all Matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations.

BY virtue of the power given to them by the Designs Act, 1850, the Lords of the said Committee do hereby certify the Building, now being erected in Hyde-Park, on a piece of ground lying between the Kensington-Drive and the ride commonly known as Rotten-Row, for the purposes of the Exhibition of 1851, to be a place of public exhibition within the meaning of the said Act.

Signed by order of the Lords of the said Committee,

James Booth, one of the Joint Secretaries of the said Committee.

Downing-Street, December 3, 1850.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Alexander Bannerman, Esq. to be Lieutenant Governor of Prince Edward Island.

In pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:

I do hereby give notice, that the death of the Right Honourable George Lord Nugent, late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the borough of Aylesbury, hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown
