

your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Brompton, in the county of Middlesex, and within the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at West Brompton, in the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Brompton, under and by virtue of the power and authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' as enlarged by the twelfth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual the Church Building Acts,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, West Brompton,' with boundaries, as hereinafter mentioned :

"The district chapelry of Saint Mary, West Brompton, is bounded on the west by the Kensington Canal; on the north the boundary line of the said district chapelry proceeds in an easterly direction from the bridge across the said canal, near the north-western corner of the West London Cemetery, to the eastern corner of Rich-terrace, then turns northerly up the Kensington-road to the corner of Earl's Court Lodge, then north-easterly in a straight line to the north corner of Gloucester Lodge, then easterly to the most northern point of the line drawn upon the map or plan hereinafter referred to, and marked (A) to the north of Cromwell-lane; on the east the said district chapelry is bounded by the line proceeding from the said point, marked (A), in a south-easterly direction down Cromwell-lane to the old Alms Houses, and from thence in a straight line south-westerly across certain gardens to the Swan Inn, and from the Swan Inn southerly down the middle of Swan-lane as far as Queen Elms, at the point marked B on the said map or plan where it meets the boundary of the parish of Chelsea; the said district chapelry is then bounded on the south by the said parish of Chelsea, from the point so marked B on the said map or plan, at the south-easterly corner of the said district chapelry, to Stanford-bridge over the Kensington Canal, at the south-western corner of such district chapelry, and which is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Mary, at West Brompton aforesaid; and that all the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the incumbent thereof for the time being :

"That the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned; and also the consent of the Reverend William Josiah Irons, Bachelor of Divinity, incumbent of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Brompton, as required by the Act and section secondly hereinbefore mentioned, in order that the subdivision of such district parish, by forming thereout a district chapelry as aforesaid, shall take effect from the assignment of such district chapelry: in testimony whereof the said Charles James, Bishop of London and William Josiah Irons have signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.
