

your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Chesterfield, in the county of Derby, and within the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Hasland, in the said parish of Chesterfield, under and by virtue of the power and authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and also in the third section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels, augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should consist of the greater part of the township of Hasland, in the said parish of Chesterfield, and also some small detached part or parts of the township of Calow, in the same parish, which is or are situate in the midst of the said township of Hasland, and that such district should be named 'The District Chapelry of Hasland, with boundaries, as hereinafter mentioned :

The district chapelry of Hasland is bounded by the centre of the Spital Brook from its confluence with the River Rother, where the township and borough of Chesterfield adjoin the township of Hasland, to the place where the said brook reaches the boundary line between the said township of Hasland and the said township of Calow, thence by the boundary line between the said two last-mentioned townships until the same reaches the township of Temple Normanton, in the said parish of Chesterfield, thence by the boundary line between the townships of Hasland and Temple Normanton aforesaid, until the same reaches the township of Northwingfield, in the parish of Northwingfield, thence by the boundary line between the townships of Hasland and Northwingfield, until the same reaches the township of Tupton, in the said parish of Northwingfield, thence by the boundary line between the said townships of Hasland and Tupton, until the same reaches the parish of Wingerworth, thence by the boundary line between the said township of Hasland and the said parish of Wingerworth to the place (at or near Birdholme) where the river Rother ceases to be the boundary between the township and parish last aforesaid, and flows in the township of Hasland aforesaid, and thence by the centre of the River Rother to its confluence with the Spital Brook, where the township and borough of Chesterfield aforesaid adjoin the said township of Hasland, and as such district chapelry of Hasland is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Paul, at Hasland aforesaid; and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent thereof for the time being :

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section firstly hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, he has signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.
