TUESDAY, MARCH 18, 1851.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 13, 1851.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday, 26th March next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, on Monday, 24th March, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levee but in conformity with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

Some irregularities having taken place, notice is hereby given, that no Officer of the Army or Navy, nor any Civilian, to be presented to the Queen at the Levee, can be admitted to the state apartments for that purpose, whose presentation card has not been previously sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office according to the above regulations.

The name of any Gentleman not adhering to the regulation, must be excluded from the presentation book, and the reason entered for so doing; viz.—The contravention of the regulations.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levee, are to send a card (having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come) to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, on Monday, 24th March next; and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee; one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 13, 1851.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday, the 3rd of April next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOM.

The Ladies, who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

And those Ladies, who are to be presented, are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, on Tuesday, the 1st of April next, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, which names shall correspond with those previously sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested, that in every case written cards only be delivered.

Smithfield Market Removal Bill.

IN compliance with a resolution of the Select Committee on Standing Orders, agreed to by the Honourable the House of Commons on the eleventh day of March instant, notice is hereby given, that a Bill has been brought into that Honourable House, intituled "A Bill for providing a Metropolitan Market, and conveniences connected therewith, in lieu of the Cattle Market at Smithfield;" and that by such Bill it is proposed to apply for powers to enable the Commissioners, to be thereunder appointed, to provide, build, and maintain, in such situation as may appear to them convenient for the purpose, places for holding a Cattle Market, in lieu of the Market now holden in Smithfield, and a meat market, with slaughter-houses, and lairs for cattle brought to such Cattle Market, or intended to be slaughtered in such slaughter-houses; and to provide, build, and maintain such pens, stalls, shops, buildings, and conveniences for the purposes of the said markets, slaughter-houses, and lairs as the Commissioners may think necessary; and to make and maintain all necessary and convenient roads and approaches to and from the market-places, slaughter-houses, and lairs to be provided as aforesaid, and with the consent of the owner of any existing road, or of the persons in whom the management thereof may by law be vested, to widen and improve such existing road for facilitating ingress and egress to and from such market-places, slaughter-houses, and lairs, and to purchase, by agreement, such lands as the said Commissioners may deem necessary for the purposes aforesaid; and also to fix a table of tolls and payments to be demanded and taken for or in respect of cattle, horses, and meat brought into or exposed for sale in the said markets, and for or in respect of the use of pens, lairs, and conveniences to be provided under the said Bill, and from time to time to vary such table of tolls and payments as to the said Commissioners may seem fit; and also powers for one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after such market-places and slaughter-houses shall have been provided, to notify the same, and the time when such market-places and slaughter-houses will be opened, and that from the time so mentioned Smithfield Market will cease to be a market for the sale of cattle and horses, and the markets for the sale of cattle, horses, and meat are to be holden in the respective places provided under the said Bill, and such markets are to be deemed to be public markets; and no new market for the sale of cattle or horses is to be opened in the city of London or Westminster, or the liberties thereof, or the borough of Southwark, or at any place distant less than five miles in a straight line from Saint Paul's cathedral; and that such bill will operate to vary or extinguish all existing tolls, rights, or privileges taken or enjoyed in respect of Smithfield Market, and all other existing rights or privileges in any way affecting the maintaining and user of the market to be established under the said Bill; and that it is intended to proceed with such Bill with a view to pass the same in the present session of Parliament.

Dated this 14th day of March 1851.

Lyon, Barnes, and Ellis, 7, Spring-gardens.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the National Disinfected and Dry Manure Company.

BY direction of James William Farrer, Esq. the Master of the High Court of Chancery charged with the winding up of this Company, notice is hereby given, that the said Master purposes, on Wednesday the 19th day of March instant, at three o'clock in the afternoon, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, to proceed to make a further call on all the contributories of the said Company, and that the said Master purposes that such call shall be for two pounds per share.

All persons interested are entitled to attend at such day, hour, and place, to offer objections to such call.

NEXT OF KIN.

IF the relations or next of kin of Sarah Hill, late of Riga, in the empire of Russia, Spinster, deceased (which Sarah Hill was the daughter of the late Quarter-Master Hill, of Chelsea Hospital, deceased), will apply either personally or by letter to George Maule, Esq. Solicitor for the affairs of Her Majesty's Treasury, at the Treasury-chambers, Whitehall, London, they may hear of something to their advantage.

Estate of Charlotte Rayner, late of Layton, in the county of Essex, Spinster, deceased.

WHEREAS the above-named Charlotte Rayner, did, by her last will and testament, bearing date the 5th day of June 1845, bequeath to her nephew, William Crisp, therein described to be then residing in North America, the sum of £300, and did also bequeath to the children of the said William Crisp, who might be living at the testatrix's death, the sum of £240, to be equally divided between them, and directed the said legacy of £240 to be paid to the said William Crisp, for the benefit of his said children; and the said testatrix also declared, that if the said legacies of £300 and £240, were not claimed by the said William Crisp, and his children, or either of them, within twelve calendar months from the death of the said testatrix, the legatees should be considered as having died in her lifetime, and the said legacies should fall into the residue of her personal estate, and be applied accordingly. Now, notice is hereby given, that the said testatrix died on the 25th day of February 1851, and that if the said legacies of £300 and £240, are not claimed within twelve calendar months next after her decease, the same legacies will, by virtue of the directions contained in the same will, become void. Apply to the executors, William James Lees, of Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, and James Hastie, of Broad-street-buildings, in the city of London, Solicitor.—Dated this 17th day of March 1851.

Estate of Charlotte Rayner, late of Layton, in the county of Essex, Spinster.

WHEREAS the above-named Charlotte Rayner, did, by her last will and testament, bearing date the 5th day of June 1845, bequeath the sum of £800 to her great nephews, Robert Stillingfleet Rayner and Alfred Howell Rayner, both then residing in New Zealand, and directed the same to be paid for their benefit, in manner therein mentioned, and did also direct that if the said legacy was not claimed within thirty calendar months next after her decease, the said Robert Stillingfleet Rayner and Alfred Howell Rayner should be considered as having died in her lifetime, and the said legacies should sink into the residue of her estate. Now, notice is hereby given, that the said testatrix died on the 25th day of February 1851, and that if the said legacy of £800 is not claimed within thirty calendar months next after her decease, the same will, by virtue of the directions contained in her will, become void. Apply to the executors, William James Lees, of Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, and James Hastie, of Broad-street-buildings, in the city of London, Solicitor.—Dated this 17th day of March 1851.
