London, March 13. The Doctors of the Colledge of Physicians in London, and several other eminent Physicians, having given under their hands their Opinions concerning Sea Water made fresh, the same is ordered to be published for general Information, as follows:

Besides the Experience of Seamen in great and long Voyages, several Eminent Physicians of the Colledge, and others, have so well approved of this prepar'd Water, that they have directed the use thereof in Diet-Drinks, Coffee, Chocolate, and Tea, instead of Fountain-Water. And the Physicians under-written are of Opinion, that it may be useful to the said Purposes; And all agree, That Water Prepar'd according to the Patentes Way, is undoubtedly good against Scurvies, and other Diseases.

Reading in Berks, March 8. This day His Majesty's Gracious Charter to this Corporation was brought hither, having been met several miles from hence by divers of the Inhabitants on Horse-back, and received at the Confines of the Town by the Mayor and Aldermen, and all other Officers of the Corporation in their Formalities, accompanied with a considerable number of Gentlemen; from whence they proceeded in very good order, amidst the Acclamations of the People, the Bells ringing and Drums beating to the Town Hall, where the Charter was read, and the Officers therein named Sworn; and the Night concluded with Bells and Bonfires, and all other expressions of Loyalty.

His Majesty has been Graciously pleased to Grant in His new Charter to the Town of Brecon, two new Fairs to be kept yearly in the said Town, the First on the 23 of April, and the other on the 29th. of August, each Fair to continue for three days.

His Majesty has been likewise pleased to Grant in His new Charter to the Town of Carmarthen one new Fair to be kept yearly on the 23 of May in Gelly-street in the said Town of Carmarthen, and to continue three days.
