

Warsaw, Febr. 1. The Palatin of Posnawia, chief of the Embassy to the Czars of Moscovy, has given the King an account of his arrival on the Frontiers, and that the advices he had receiv'd from Moscovy, seem'd to promise a good success in his Negotiation at that Court. The King has named the Bishop of Chehm to go his Ambassador to the Pope. The Express that arriv'd lately from Persia, will be sent back with a Letter from the King of Poland to the Sophy, to confirm him in his Resolution of making War upon the Turks. The Letters from Lemberg tell us, that the Turks do draw together a great Body of Men on the Frontiers of this Kingdom, which obliges the Forces of the Crown to be upon their Guard.

Milan, Febr. 20. Our Governor the Count de Melgar having taken a review of the Troops in the Service of this Duchy, has Reformed Twelve Spanish and Three German Companies of Foot, and Four Troops of Horse; It was thought there would have been more Troops broken, according to the Orders that came lately from Spain, but his Excellency has thought fit to leave it to the Count de Fuenfiliada his Successor to finish this Reform.

Genova, Febr. 28. The Count de Fuenfiliada the new Governor of Milan is expected here from Sardinia the beginning of the next Month; during his stay in this City he will be lodged in the Palace of Prince Doria. Captain Caratino is fitting out the Ship he has bought of this Republick, with all the diligence imaginable; she will carry 60 pieces of Cannon, and will be ready to sail in a very short time. By a Vessel arriv'd in this Port from Civita Vecchia we are inform'd, that the Pope's Gallies design'd for the assistance of the Venetians, would be by the middle of the next Month in a condition to part from thence for the Levant, and that his Holiness had resolv'd to send a greater number of Land Forces on the said Gallies this year than he did the last. The Gallies of the Great Duke of Tuscany are likewise fitting with great diligence at Leghorne; they are design'd for the same Service, and will it's believed be ready to sail about the same time.

Venice, March 4. A great Convoy is preparing of above 30 Ships, which will be ready to sail the next week to joyn the Fleet, which according to our last advices was still at Corfu. Captain-General Morosini has written to the Senate that he intends to open the Campaign before the end of this Month, and therefore prays that the Troops and Provisions, which he expects, may be hasten'd to him. We have advice that the Bacha of Lepanto has reinforced the Garrison of Navarino, apprehending the Venetians have a design upon that place.

Vienna, March 3. The Sieur Grunckow, Commissary-General of the Forces which the Elector of Brandenburg is to send to the Emperor's assistance, arriv'd here the 28th. past; he has assur'd the Imperial Ministers that the said Forces will begin their March the 20th. of this Month. A Commissary is likewise come hither from Dresden, as well to regulate all Matters concerning the March of the Troops of Saxony, as to provide Magazines for them in Hungary. A great many Boats pass daily down the Danube laden with all sorts of Ammunition and Provisions; and the Recruits arrive here in considerable Bodies, who after having refresh'd themselves, are sent for Hungary. Several Ingeniars, and a great number of Gunnees and Miners, who came from Moravia, have been sent to Raab and Comorra to be employ'd in the making of Bombs, Carcasses, &c. Two dayes ago arriv'd here Lieutenant-Collonel Corbelli, being sent by Lieutenant-General de Mercy to give the Emperor an account of the condition Zolnock and the other places the Imperialists are possess'd of on that side, are in, and to solicit a sum of Money, as well for the making the necessary provision for the defence of those places, as for the payment of the Troops in Garrison there. All our advices from the Frontiers say, the Turks make great preparations for the Campaign; That the Grand Visier will come into Hungary with a very numerous Army, and that he will be joyn'd by a great Body of Tartars; That Eali Bacha is made Seraskier against the Poles, who with the Forces of Moldavia and Valachia, will it's said, have 80000 Men under his Command. The Emperor has nam'd the Baron de Becke to be Governor of Philipsbourg in the place of the Count de Starenberg, who with his Imperial Majesties leave, goes into the Service of the Elector Palatin, in the quality of General of his Forces. We have from several hands the confirmation of the account we gave you in our last, of the taking of the Forts of St. Job by the Imperial and Hungarian Troops commanded by General Caraffa.

Ratisbonne, Febr. 30. The Deputy of Mentz has propos'd to the Dyet, to take into consideration the Emperor's Letter, demanding the assistance of the Empire against the Turks, which the Electoral Colledge have resolv'd to do at their next meeting. There is likewise before the Dyet a Memorial presented by the Elector Palatin's Minister, concerning the Pretensions of the Dutchets of Orleans upon the Allodial Lands of the Palatinate, in which they have not yet taken any Resolution.

Cologne, March 15. The Imperial Sub-Commissioners have this week received new Orders from Vienna concerning, as it's believ'd, the persons that are now Prisoners here, some of the chief whereof, and particularly Fuden, have been since several times examin'd in order to the forming their Processes. The Children of Sacks, and several others, who promot'd the late disorders here, have been banish'd. They write from Bonne, that great preparations were making there for the Reception of the Elector of Mentz, who had let the Elector of Cologne know he intend'd to make him a Visit.

Hague, March 19. The Heer Van Staremberg, Ambassador from this State to his M. C. Majesty, who had leave to come home to look after his private Affairs, is order'd to hasten his return to that Court. The Count de Nassau is gone back to his Government of Bolduc. The Letters from Hamburg of the 15th instant, tell us the Lunenburgh Troops continu'd in the Polls they had taken within the Territories of that City.

Paris, March 20. The King recovers daily of
