By Authority of Parliament,

HENRY BICKNELL,
Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Grocers'-Hall, July 4, 1851.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Independent Chapel, situated at the bottom of the Chipping Hill, in the parish of Tetbury, in the county of Gloucester, in the district of Tetbury Union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 23rd day of June 1851, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 26th day of June 1851.

Wm. Mashelyne, Superintendent Registrar.

Croydon Union.—Croydon Parish.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Croydon, in the county of Surrey;

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said parish is situate;

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons.

And whereas, at a meeting of the Vestry of the said parish held, after public notice in that behalf, on the twenty-eighth day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty, it was resolved,—

That the whole of an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to prevent the holding of vestry or other meetings in churches, and for regulating the appointment of vestry clerks," be put in force within this parish.

And whereas the Churchwardens and Overseers of the said parish have made their application in writing to the said Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolution.

Now, therefore, we, the said Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, do hereby order and direct as follows, that the whole of the aforesaid Act shall forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within the said parish of Croydon.

And we do hereby order and direct, that a copy of this order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

M. T. Baines, President.

Courtenay, Secretary.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Brighton, Lewes, and Tonbridge Wells Direct Railway Company.

By direction of Sir William Horne, the Master of the High Court of Chancery charged with the winding up of this Company, notice is hereby given, that the said Master purposes, on Thursday the 10th day of July 1851, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, in the county of Middlesex, to proceed to make a call on each of the contributories settled on the list of contributories who are included in that portion of the said list numbered from 1 to 59, both inclusive; and that the said Master purposes that such call shall be £175 on each of such contributories.

All persons interested are entitled to attend at such day, hour, and place, to offer objections to such call.—Dated 1st July 1851.

Wm. Horne.

Masters' Office, Southampton-buildings, 24th day of June 1851.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Act, 1848, and of the Compressed Air Engine Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a return at the rate of four shillings and nine pence per share is now payable to the respective Shareholders and contributories of the above Company who paid up upon their respective shares of one pound one shilling the full amount thereof, and that cheques for the same may now be received by those legally entitled, at the office of the Official Manager of the above Company, situate No. 17, Warwick-street, Regent-street, in the county of Middlesex, on any Tuesday or Saturday in the month of July 1851, between the hours of 10 and 4 o'clock. Executors and administrators of deceased Shareholders will be required to produce the probate of will and letters of administration.

Wm. Horne,

The Master of the High Court of Chancery charged with the winding up of this Company.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 22nd instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store at Her Majesty's Naval-yard at Bermuda,

A cargo of 400 tons of COALS, namely,
Simpson's Pontops,
or Windsor's Pontops.

The coals to be dispatched within 5 weeks from the date of contract. A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Coals," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £150 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR WHEAT, WINE, TOBACCO, AND RICE.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 1, 1851.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 24th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, the undermentioned articles;

Wheat, 1500 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering.

Wine (White, strong bodied), 3000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco (Virginia), 15 tons; half to be delivered in a fortnight, and the remainder in a fortnight afterwards, or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering.

Rice (Bengal, White), 15 tons; half to be delivered in a fortnight, and the remainder in a fortnight afterwards, or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering.

The wine, tobacco, and rice to be exempted from the Customs' duties.

Tenders will not be received for a less quantity than 300 quarters of wheat, 1000 gallons of wine, 5 tons of tobacco, and 5 tons of rice.

Samples of the wheat (not less than two quarts), of the wine (not less than two bottles), and of the rice (not less than 2 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering; and samples of the rice and wine, of the descriptions and qualities admissible, and of the tobacco, together with the conditions of the contracts, may be seen at the said office, and at the office of the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and those for wine and rice must be accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £20 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of the contracts.

Vice Chancellor

Lord Cranworth.—Tuesday, the 24th day of June, in the 15th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1851, between José Mendes Braga, Antonio José Marques Grumaraens, and José Dias Santiago, on behalf of themselves and all other the unsatisfied creditors of Richard Langley, formerly of Oporto, in the kingdom of Portugal, but late of Wash-common, Newbury, in the county of Berks, Plaintiffs; Anna Rosa, falsely calling herself Anna Rosa Langley, Francis Ignatius Vanzeller, and Joseph Langley, when he, the last named person, shall come within the jurisdiction, Defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Tennant, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs exhibited their Bill in this Court against the defendants, and sued out process of subpoena against the defendant, Anna Rosa, falsely calling herself Anna Rosa Langley, on the 1st day of February 1851, to compel her to appear to and answer the same: it appears by the affidavit of James Barber and Robert Edwin Smith, that the defendant, Anna Rosa Langley, has been within the jurisdiction of this Court at some time not more than two years before the subpoena issued, and that there is just ground to believe that the said defendant is keeping out of the way, or otherwise absconded, to avoid being served with process: it is thereupon ordered that the defendant, Anna Rosa, falsely calling herself Anna Rosa Langley, do appear to the plaintiffs' Bill on or before the 24th day of July next; and it is ordered that the plaintiffs do cause a copy of this order, together with the notice pursuant to the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette of Friday the 4th day of July next, and in the Times newspaper, on or before the said 4th day of July next.

Notice.—To Anna Rosa, falsely calling herself Anna Rosa Langley: Take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiffs may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiffs such relief as they may appear to be entitled to on their own showing.

Yours, &c. SIMPSON and COBB, Plaintiffs' Solicitors, 62, Moorgate-street.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause Kane v. Maule, it is referred to Sir William Horne to enquire who were the next of kin according to the Statutes of distribution of Thomas Kane, living at the time of his decease, and whether any of them are since dead, and if dead, who is or are their legal personal representatives; the said Thomas Kane died in the month of March 1846, he was married at Brentford, in the year 1817, where he continued to reside up to the time of his death, and carried on the business of a Tailor; it is supposed that he was a native of Ireland, and it has been stated that he came from the neighbourhood of Skibbereen, he had a brother named Charles Kane, who was a Purser in the navy, and who was found lunatic in the year 1833, and died on the 17th February 1837; all persons claiming to be such next of kin or the legal personal representatives of such of them as are since dead, are to come in before Sir William Horne, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and make out their kindred to the said Thomas Kane, or the kindred of those whom they represent, on or before the 1st of August 1851, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHEREAS, by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause of Sirdefield v. Thacker, it is referred to Joseph Humphrey, Esquire, one of the Masters of the Court, to inquire whether any of the debts at the death of William Sirdefield, late of Graisle, in the parish of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, Brass Founder and Gas Apparatus Manufacturer (who died in the month of September 1844), of the partnership of Robert Thacker and the said William Sirdefield, who carried on business in Wolverhampton, as Brass Founders and Gas Apparatus Manufacturers, under the firm of Thacker, Sirdefield, and Company, remain unsatisfied, and whether any of the debts of the partnership of Robert Thacker and Maria Sirdefield, as subsequently carried on by them in Wolverhampton, as Brass Founders and Gas Apparatus Manufacturers, under the firm of Thacker, Sirdefield, and Company, remain unsatisfied; therefore, all persons claiming any debts at the death of the said William Sirdefield, in respect of the first-mentioned partnership business, which now remain unsatisfied, and all persons claiming any debts of the partnership as subsequently carried on, and which now remain unsatisfied, are on or before the 2nd day of August next, to leave their claims of debts before the said Master, at his office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and are, on the 8th day of November, to establish such claims before him, in order that such persons may not peremptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
