

Whitehall, July 19, 1851.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Addenbrooke, of Stourbridge, in the county of Worcester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a building, named Church of Our Immaculate Lady of Victories, situated at Park-road, in the parish of Clapham, in the county of Surrey, in the district of the Wandsworth and Clapham Union, being a building licensed and used for public religious worship as a Roman Catholic Chapel exclusively, was, on the 18th day of July 1851, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th William IV., cap. 85, instead of a building named Saint Mary's Catholic Chapel, the registry of which has been cancelled.

Witness my hand this 19th day of July 1851.

George Fredk. Merriman, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application has been made to Her Majesty by or on behalf of the East Indian Iron Company (provisionally registered), formed for the purpose of working iron mines in India, and for smelting, manufacturing, and otherwise preparing for sale the ores and minerals to be obtained and raised from such mines, and also for disposing of the iron to be manufactured therefrom, both in India and in Great Britain, and for such other purposes as are incident to the objects aforesaid, to grant to such Company a charter of incorporation, under the provisions of the Act of 1st Victoria, c. 73, intituled "An Act for better enabling Her Majesty to confer certain powers and immunities on trading and other companies;" and that such application has been referred by Her Majesty to the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations.

Dated this 5th day of July 1851.
