

one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and duly gazetted, ratifying a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of the same month, prepared by us under the provisions of the secondly recited Act, for determining the portion of the improved value to be made payable to us in a certain mining lease therein stated to be about to be granted by the Reverend Thomas Pearce, Rector of the said parish of Roche, one moiety of the whole net amount of the reservation or reservations to be made by such lease was ordered to be made directly payable to us; and it was further ordered that nothing in the same scheme contained should prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"And whereas the proposed lease referred to in the said Order in Council has not yet been granted; and, with a view to making additional provision for the cure of souls in the said parish, we deem it expedient that the arrangements contemplated by the said Order should be varied in manner hereinafter mentioned.

"We therefore humbly recommend and propose that the share of the reservation or reservations under such lease, so directed to be made payable to us as aforesaid, shall be increased from one moiety to two third parts of such reservation or reservations, and that the remaining one third part, and no more, shall be made payable to the Rector for the time being of the said rectory of Roche.

"And we further recommend and propose that one half of the balance of all monies which shall, from time to time, be received by us in respect of such two third parts so to be made payable to us, shall, after deducting thereout a fair proportion of all costs, charges, and expences incurred by us in respect of the said lease or in receiving the said monies, be invested in the purchase of three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, and such annuities shall be held by us, in trust, for the said rectory of Roche, and the dividends arising therefrom shall from time to time be paid over by us to the Rector of Roche for the time being; provided always, that when the principal sums so invested shall amount in the aggregate to the sum of five thousand pounds sterling, such investments shall cease, and any further monies which shall become payable to us under or by virtue of the said lease, shall thenceforth be applicable to the purposes of the first recited Act.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.
