WILLOUGHBY DE ERESBY, G. C.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 17th day of July 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the spiritual duties of the parishes of Crickhowell and Llanvihangel Cwm Dû, otherwise Saint Michael's Cwm Dû, in the county of Brecon, and diocese of Saint David's.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that with respect to any benefice, with cure of souls, which is held together with, or in the patronage of, the holder of any sinecure preferment, belonging to any private patron, arrangements may be made by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), and with the consents of the respective patrons, for permanently uniting such preferment with such benefice.

"And whereas it is by the same Act further enacted, with an especial view to the better care of populous parishes, that arrangements may from time to time be made, by the like authority, for improving the value, or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill-endowed parishes or districts, by means of such alterations of the exercise of patronage as may be agreed upon by patrons, with the consent of the bishop.

"And whereas it is by the same Act further enacted, that arrangements may be made, by the like authority, for the apportionment of the income of two benefices belonging to the same patron, between the incumbents or ministers of such benefices, provided that no such arrangements shall be made in any case, so as to prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent, nor without the consent of the bishop of the diocese.

"And whereas the vicarages of the said parishes of Crickhowell and Llanvihangel Cwm Dû are respectively benefices with cure of souls, within the meaning of the said Act, and the sinecure rectories of Crickhowell and Llanvihangel Cwm Dû aforesaid are respectively sinecure preferments, also within the meaning of the said Act, and the said sinecure rectories are now respectively held, together with the said vicarages, by the Reverend John Evans and the Reverend John Hughes.

"And whereas the said vicarages are respectively in the patronage of the holders for the time being of the said sinecure rectories.

"And whereas it has been represented to us to be expedient that arrangements should be made for the permanent union of the said sinecure rectories with the said vicarages respectively, and for the apportionment of the incomes thereof; and it appears to us to be expedient that such union and apportionment should be forthwith effected; and that such other arrangements relating thereto should be made, as are hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consents of the said Henry, Duke of Beaufort, and of the Right Reverend Connop, Bishop of Saint David's, and of the said John Evans and John Hughes, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that the said sinecure rectory and vicarage of Crickhowell shall be forthwith permanently united and consolidated; and that the same shall become and be one benefice, with cure of souls, by the name of the Rectory of Crickhowell; and that the said John Evans shall thereupon become and be the rector of such rectory, and that he and his successors, rectors thereof, shall be entitled to all the emoluments both of the said sinecure rectory and of the said vicarage; and that the said sinecure rectory of Llanvihangel Cwm Dû, and vicarage of Llanvihangel Cwm Dû, shall be in like manner and at the same time united and consolidated, and shall become and be one benefice, with cure of souls, by the name of the Rectory of Llanvihangel Cwm Dû; and that the said John Hughes shall thereupon become and be the rector of such rectory, and that he and his successors, rectors thereof, shall be entitled to all the emoluments both of the said sinecure rectory, and of the said vicarage of Llanvihangel Cwm Dû, except and subject to the transfer to the said rectory of Crickhowell of a portion of such emoluments as hereinafter is mentioned; and that upon and from such union and consolidation as aforesaid, the said rectories of Crickhowell and Llanvihangel Cwm Dû shall respectively be and remain to such uses upon and for such trusts, intents, and purposes as are expressed and declared in or by the said Indenture of Settlement, of the second day of July, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, of and concerning the manors, advowsons, and other hereditaments, in the county of Brecon, therein comprised, or to, upon, and for such of the same uses, trusts, intents, and purposes as are now subsisting undetermined and capable of taking effect.

" And we further recommend and propose, that from and after such union and consolidation as aforesaid, the income of the said rectory of Llanvihangel Cwm Dû shall be apportioned in manner hereinafter mentioned, that is to say; the rent charges in lieu of tithe described or referred to in the schedule hereunto annexed, and charged on the lands mentioned in the same schedule (the same being copied or extracted from the confirmed award and apportionment made in respect of the said parish under the provisions of the Tithe Commutation Acts), shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and a duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and absolutely vested in the said John Evans, rector of the said rectory of Crickhowell, and his successors, rectors thereof, for ever, in addition to the other emoluments of the said rectory.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.
