ALL persons having claims on the estate of Miss Joanna Arratoon, deceased, formerly residing in Newland-terrace, and Newland-street, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, and lately residing at Kelvedon, in the county of Essex, are requested to present their claims to Messrs. Gordon and Son, Solicitors, Old Broad-street, London.

[Extract from the Dublin Gazette of July 22, 1851.]

I HALIDAY BRUCE, of No. 37, Dame-street, in the city of Dublin, Esq., do hereby, pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of His Majesty George the 3rd, c. 30, commonly called the Tenantry Act, call upon and require all persons entitled to, or claiming to be interested in the estate and interest granted and demised by Nathaniel Humphreys, of Turnafine, in the county of Dublin, Esq., to Benjamin Woodward, of the city of Dublin, Merchant, by a certain indenture of lease, dated 30th November, 1790, or by a certain renewal thereof, dated 21st January, 1813, of and in the lands of Pennycomequick, alias Turnafine, in the parish of Santry, barony of Coolock, and county of Dublin, forthwith to pay to me, in whom the estate and interest of the said lessor Nathaniel Humphreys is now vested, pursuant to the terms, conditions, and covenants of the said recited lease, the sum of £302 5s. 8d., now due and owing for the renewal fines payable upon the death of each of the lives named in the said lease, septennial fines and interest thereon to the date hereof; and also the sum of £243 5s. 11d. for one and a-half year's rent of said lands, up to the 29th September, 1850, together with the accruing rent and interest; and to nominate, in writing, the lives of three persons to be added and inserted of the time and term of the said lease, in the place and stead of the said deceased lives, and to take out a renewal of said lease. And I hereby give notice to all persons concerned, that if default shall be made in complying with the demand herein contained, all right and benefit of renewal under the said lease will be barred, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act.—Dated this 20th day of March 1851.

HALY. BRUCE.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a cause Hall v. Robertson, the creditors of William Gill Paxton, late of Buckingham-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. (who died in the month of May 1850), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 4th day of October 1851, to leave their claims of debts before Joseph Humphry, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and are, on the 4th day of November 1851, to establish such claims before the said Master, or in default thereof such persons will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree and the General Orders of the said Court.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery made in the matter of the trusts of the will of David Smith, late of Penrith, in the county of Cumberland, Clerk, deceased, the next of kin of the above-named David Smith, living at the time of his death, or the personal representative or representatives of any of such next of kin as have since died, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 2nd day of November 1851, to come in and prove their kindred, and make out their claims, before Richard Torin Kindersley, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will peremptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

The said David Smith was formerly Curate of the Parish Church of Hooles, near Preston, in the county of Lancaster, and for several years prior, and up to the time of his death, resided at Castlegate, in Penrith, where he died in the month of February 1823.
