

thereof, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in possession in the Reverend John Vaughan Lloyd, Vicar of the parish of Hope, in the county of Flint and diocese of St. Asaph, and his successors, vicars thereof, for ever; and that the land particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked G., also vested in us for the purposes of the said Act, shall in like manner, and at the same time, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the Reverend John Wynne, Vicar of the parish of Llandrillo, in the county of Merioneth, and in the said diocese of St. Asaph, and his successors, vicars thereof, for ever, in addition to the annual sum of twenty-six pounds, referred to in the said schedule marked C.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit, when there shall be sufficient means for that purpose; and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any benefice, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

“And whereas the herein secondly recited Act, together with the Acts therein recited, authorize the assigning at any time, and from time to time, to the incumbent of any church or chapel whose fees, dues, or other emoluments shall be diminished by, or in consequence of, any proceeding under the provisions of such secondly-recited Act, of such an annual sum as shall upon due inquiry appear to be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution:

“And whereas by certain duly gazetted Orders of your Majesty in Council for confirming certain schemes prepared by us, pursuant to the same

Act, certain new parishes have been duly constituted, and the perpetual curates thereof respectively have become entitled to receive certain fees, dues, and other emoluments arising therein, and we deem it just and reasonable that compensation should be made to the incumbents of the churches or chapels hereinafter mentioned, whose fees, dues, or other emoluments have been diminished by or in consequence of such proceedings, and that the annual sums hereinafter mentioned should be assigned to such incumbents:

“We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that, in respect of the new parish of Whitfield, in the county of Derby, and diocese of Lichfield, there shall be forthwith paid by us to the legal representative or representatives of the Reverend Christopher Howe, deceased, late Vicar of Glossop, in the same county and diocese, the sum of fifty pounds by way of such compensation as aforesaid; and that in respect of the new parishes mentioned in the first column of the schedule hereunto annexed, marked H., there shall be paid by us, to the several incumbents named and described in the second column of the same schedule, so long as they shall respectively remain such incumbents, and no longer, the annual sums mentioned in the third column thereof by way of such compensation as aforesaid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, and that the payment to be made in each case on the first day of November next shall be a sum calculated at the annual rate applicable to such cases from the day on which the fees, dues, and other emoluments became so as aforesaid receivable by the perpetual curates of such new parishes respectively.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.
