Madrid, March 14.

Count Mansfeldt, the Emperor's Ambassador, having informed the King that several Princes and States of the Empire, had resolved to meet by their Deputies at Ausburgh, to treat upon what had been proposed by the States of Franconia, for their mutual Defence and Security, his Catholick Majesty has named the Sieur de Neufgorges, his Deputy at the Dyet at Ratisbonne, to assist on his part at the said Conference. Orders have been sent to Cadix, to hasten the Equipage of the Men of War which are to go and meet the Galeons, and a Sum of Money has been sent thither for that Service. Don Joseph de Faria, late Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Portugal at the Court of England, is come to reside here in the same Quality, in the place of Don Mendo de Pereyra, who has had his Audiences of Leave. The Decrees for the great Reform which the King has resolved to make in the several Councils, &c. are not yet published.

Warsaw, March 8. The Letters from the Frontiers inform us, that some Polish Troops defeated about ten days ago, a Convoy of 200 Wagons laden with Ammunition, which the Turks were carrying to Caminiec, and killed and took many of the Turks prisoners; but that the Bassa of Caminiec having notice of it, sent out a party of that Garison, who coming up with the Poles, charged them, and exceeding them very much in number, obliged them to abandon their Booty, and to retire in great disorder; and that upon this news Orders were sent to the Sieur Laska, who commanded a party of Poles on that side to joyn with Mobila General of the Cossacks, and to pursue the Enemy. These Letters add, that five persons who were Spies for the Turks, having been lately taken, confessed that they had been in all the Frontier places of this Kingdom, and even at Leopol, to observe what Preparations were making for the Campaign, as well as the Situation and strength of the said places. The King is still at Zalkiew; The Express he sent to Rome is come back, with fresh assurances that the Pope will further assist his Majesty with very considerable Supplies, to enable him to support the Expences of the Campaign. The Letters from Moscow say, the Ambassadors of this Crown were very well received there, and that the Czars had appointed some of their chief Ministers to treat with them.

Vienna, March 19. The 14th instant arrived here an Express from Upper Hungary, with the News that General Caprara was before Montgatx; And that the King of Poland had sent to give him notice that the Tatars were marching in a great Body towards Hungary. The 17th we had an account by a second Express, that Count Caraffa had joined General Caprara with 800 Horse, 2000 Foot, and eight pieces of Cannon, and six Mortars, and that they had begun to batter the Castle of Montgatx. The advice of the march of the Tatars is confirmed from several hands; We are told they are commanded by Sulran Galga, and that they take their march through Moldavia and Valachia, with a design, as it's thought, to joyn with the Turks for the relief of Montgatx. The Count de Herberstein, Lieutenant-Colonel of the Regiment of Strafaldo, who was taken by the Rebels some years ago, and has been ever since a Prisoner at Montgatx, is exchanged for two Hungarian Officers of that Garison, who were lately taken in the Sally they made. The Bassa of Great Waradin has caused 16 Officers of the Garison of St. Job to be strangled, for making no better defence than they did. Count Caraffa has put into that place a Garison of 800 Men, and has set several hundred Men on work to repair the Fortifications. We have advice that Count Teckley having got together about 800 Hungarians, is gone with them from Great Waradin to the Turkish Camp between Gyula and Lippa, where they have about 8000 Men, but that he is so closely observed, that he may not write or speak but in the presence of two Officers, who are appointed to accompany him wherever he goes. The Duke of Lorraine is expected here in ten days or a fortnight; and in the mean time the Preparations for the Campaign are carried on with all the diligence and application imaginable. The Regiments appointed to serve in Hungary, are 26 of Foot, viz. those of Count Ernest de Staremberg, Lesley, Keyserlin, Bade, Mansfeldt, Maximilian de Staremberg, Schermy, Croy, Salm, la Vergne, Stadel, Scherfemberg, Souches, Meternich, Diepenbal, Thun, Neubourg, Wallis, Becke, Aspremont, Nigrelli, Heussler, Lorraine, Hontschin, Furstenberg and Spinola, making together 38600 Men; 19 Regiments of Horse, viz. of Saxe Lawembourg, Caprara, Dunewaldt, Palfi, Caraffa, Gondola, Taffi, Mercy, Montecuculi, Veserani, Piccolomini, Heussler, Neubourg, Gotz, Hanouer, Furstenberg, Platz, Truchs, and another, making 15200 Men; 8 Regiments of Dragoons, of Schultz, Dupin, Cassel, Serau, Herbeville, Savoy, Dafoni, and Magni, making 6400; and 2 Regiments of Groats of Keri and Lodron, making 2000; The Auxiliary Troops of Saxony will be 4000; those of Bavaria 8000; those of Brandenburg 7000; those of Franconia and Swabia 8000; and those of the Circle of the Upper Rhine 3600: All these Forces together amount to 92800 Men. It is said that the Elector of Brandenburg has promised the Emperor 1200 Men, besides those for which his Imperial Majesty has treated with him. There are private Letters from Buda of the 3 Instant, which confirm what our former advices said of the Grand Viziers Resolution to bring the Ottoman Forces that served the last year against the Poles into Hungary, and to employ the Troops of Asia, with the Moldavians, Valachians, and a Body of Tartars on that side. It is likewise confirmed that the Turks of Pest having fallen upon a party of our Foragers, took and killed about 120 of them. The Count d'Ervedi Viceroy of Croatia is upon his departure, having settled the matters he came hither about to his satisfaction. The Letters from Zolnocke say, that the Generals de Mercy and Heuster are drawing together the Imperial Troops under their Command, to observe the Turks, who they believe have design to fall upon them in their Quarters. Count is arrived here from Upper Hungary to hasten a Convoy of Money and Provisions that is to be sent thither for the payment and subsistence of the Forces commanded by General Caprara.

Ratisbonne, March 22. The Imperial Decree, which the Emperor demands the assistance of the Electors of the Empire against the Turks, has been considered of in the several Colleges; That of the Electors have consented to it, but the Colleges of the Princes, and the Imperial Cities have not yet been able to come to any determination therein; The said Cities, and some of the lesser Princes being unwilling to give their assent to the Subsidies the Emperor demands, but on condition that they may be exempted from furnishing Winter Quarters for the Imperial Forces, and from giving any thing in lieu thereof. The Count de Hobenloe parted from hence the last week for Nuremberg, to assist at the meeting of the Estates of Franconia, who are now assembled here, to draw up Instructions for the Deputies they have resolved to send to Augsburg to confer with the Ministers of the Emperor, the Elector of Bavaria, and the Circles of Bavaria, Suabia, and the Upper Rhine, who are to meet there the beginning of the next Month. The King of Spain and the King of Sweden were told, will likewise send Deputies to this Meeting.

Paris, March 30. The 28th Instant the King's Statue, set up by the Marechal de la Feuillade, was uncovered, the Dauphin being present, with the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans, the Duke of Chartres, Madamoiselle, Madamoiselle d'Orleans, and Madame de Guise, and the Magistrates of this City being there in a Body; after this Ceremony the Dauphin went to the Opera and to the Town-House, where there was a magnificent Collation; a very fine Fire-work was prepared on the Greue, Fountains run with Wine in several places of this City, the Cannon were discharged, and in the Evening Bonfires were made in all the streets. Yesterday arrived here an Express from Germany with the news of the death of the Princess Charlotte of Hesse. Dowager to Charles Louis Elector Palatine, who died the last week at Hydelberg, after a long sickness; She was Daughter of William Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, was born in the year 1627, and Married to the said Prince Elector in 1650. This day two Companies of the Musqueteers exercised before the King in the great Court of the Castle of Versailles.

Paris, April 6. The King has visited the Dutchess of Orleans, upon the death of her Mother the Electress Palatin, and his Majesty and the whole Court are gone into mourning. We have an account from Rochefort, that Nine Men of War are gone from thence for Brest, to join with Seven more that lie ready there; The Marechal d'Estree, who is to command this Squadron, parted from hence the last week. They write from Spain, that at the instance of the Pope's Nuncio, orders have been sent to the Viceroy of Galicia, to put the Money that was some time ago seized at the Groyne, into the hands of the French Consul there; The Marquis d'Angeau, Governor of Touraine, is married to the Countess of Leweflein.
