4. A classified List of subjects under the province of each Jury is prepared, and forms the limitation to each class.

5. The Articles in the Building are arranged as much as possible in the 30 Classes so as to be coincident with the field of action of each Jury, and to facilitate its labours.

6. If Exhibitors accept the office of Jurors, they cease to be competitors for prizes in the class to which they are appointed, and these cannot be awarded either to them individually, or to the firms in which they may be partners.

7. Juries may take evidence when a majority of the Jury deem it advisable, and name the persons to be consulted. Jurors of another class may also be called in aid by a Jury, when a knowledge involved in that class is required.

8. Juries may act in matters of detail by sub-committees, but no award can be made except by the majority of the Jury.

9. Before a Jury can finally make its awards, they must be submitted to a meeting of the Juries of allied subjects, as indicated in the groups in the Decision 3. These Meetings of allied Juries will have power to confirm the award of the Juries, and to investigate any disputed decisions. Before, however, the awards are published, they must be submitted to a Council, consisting of the Chairmen of the Juries, in order to secure uniformity of action—and a compliance with the regulations originally laid down by that body.

10. The awards of a Jury, when reported by the Council of Chairmen as being made in conformity to the rules, are final.

11. The Juries will commence their duties on Monday the 12th May, at 10 o'clock, and will be aided in the general transaction of the business by a person to be named by the Royal Commissioners, who by himself, or by a deputy to be approved of by the Commission, may be present at their delibera-

* The Jury for Agricultural Implements is made exceptional, as the Agricultural Committee, consisting of eminent Members of the Royal Agricultural Society, have undertaken the functions of the Jury. Foreigners may be added to this Committee, if desired.
