

courts and passages in the intended site of the said market house, and to stop up, alter, or divert, either temporarily or permanently, any other streets, ways, passages, sewers, drains, or pipes, which it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert, by reason of the construction of the intended works or any of them.

To open and make a street, passage, or thoroughfare between Dumble-street and Cross-street, in the said township of Scarborough, and parish of Scarborough.

To alter, vary, or improve the line or course of the streets or places called Leading Post-street, Saint Sepulchre-street, and Dumble-street, such alterations, variations, or improvements to be made at and near the junction of the said streets, in the said township of Scarborough, and parish of Scarborough, and also the streets or places called Saint Helen's-square, and Cross-street, in the said township and parish, at or near the site of the intended market; also to authorise the appropriation for the purposes of the market house of a part of the present line of the streets so to be altered, varied, or improved as aforesaid.

To improve the approaches to the market by Saint Sepulchre-street, and Saint Helen's-square, by authorising the removal of the public conduit, situate at the junction of Saint Sepulchre-street with Leading Post-street and Dumble-street, and the removal of the public fountain and weighing house in Saint Helen's-square, both in the said township of Scarborough, and parish of Scarborough, and the erection of other public fountains or conduits in the neighbourhood of those intended to be removed, in the said township and parish.

To confer upon the Company the powers usually granted for the compulsory purchase of the lands, houses, and property required for the said market house, slaughter houses, passages, alterations of streets, and other intended works and buildings.

To remove the existing markets and fairs now held in the said borough, and to vary or extinguish any existing rights and privileges of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Scarborough, and of all other corporations and persons with reference to the holding of markets and fairs in the said borough, whether under Act of Parliament, charter, prescription, or otherwise.

To authorise the purchase by agreement or compulsion of the tolls, stallages, or rents now payable to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or any other corporation or person, in respect of meat, corn, vegetables, or any other article sold or delivered on sale in the said borough, and to enable the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses to sell the same tolls, and either to vest such tolls in the Company, or to alter, abolish, or extinguish the same.

To authorise the Company so to be incorporated to levy tolls, stallages, and rents for the use of the intended market, market houses, or places, and for standing or stallage therein, and for the use of the weighing machines and other conveniences; to confer exemptions from payment of tolls, stallages, and rents, and to alter or extinguish any existing exemptions from payment of tolls, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

To prevent the hawking or vending of butchers' meat, poultry, fish, butter, cheese, vegetables, fruit, and other provisions, matters and things, in the streets, public passages, or roads, within the said borough, or in certain parts thereof.

To incorporate the Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847, and the Lands Clauses Consolidation

Act, 1845, and the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

To authorise the Company to establish, erect, maintain, and regulate public slaughter houses in connection with or apart from, the said market house, and to prevent the slaughtering of cattle, sheep, or animals, within the borough, except in such slaughter houses, or in any existing slaughter houses, or under certain regulations and restrictions, and to authorise the collection of rates, tolls, and rents, for the use of such intended slaughter houses.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans describing the line or situation of the intended alterations and diversions and improvements of streets and of the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, and also describing the situation of the lands proposed to be taken for the said market house, and slaughter houses, ways, passages, works, and conveniences connected therewith, and duplicate sections shewing the levels of the said alterations and diversions and improvements of streets, with books of reference to such plans containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the twenty-ninth day of November next, with the Clerk of the Peace for the North Riding of the county of York, at his office in Northallerton, and a copy of the said plans, sections, books of reference, and Gazette notice, will be deposited on or before the said twenty-ninth day of November, with the Parish Clerk of the parish of Scarborough, at his residence.
